Thursday, May 3, 1900.

There appears to be no way to check the influx of Chinese by the Pacific coast. A laundry check seems out of the question.

One interpretation of the rapt look on a youth's face when riding a tandem with his best girl in front, is that he has all the world before him.

If the Sultan persists in his present course he is likely to learn that there are seasons other than Thanksgiving and the holidays when Uncle Sam can carve turkey without any perceptible fatigue.

An aged man entered Johnstown last Thursday, and, seeking the executor of an estate, said he wished to pay a debt of $18 for leather which he had bought fifty-five years ago.
The debtor offered twice the amount of the original claim, which was accepted. At simple interest the accumulation on the $18 since 1845 would have amounted to $59.40, assuming a rate of 6 per centum.

Women physicians are becoming numerous in the towns of Pennsylvania, and it is well known that they soon establish large practices. Chester has several women doctors, Oil City one, Bradford five, and there are few communities in which the sex has not gained footing in medical competition. It is a very few years since a woman doctor was a novelty in any of the State towns.

The University of the South, at Sewanee, Tennessee, has placed its 8,000-acre tract of hardwood timber near that town under the management of the Division of Forestry.
An official of the Division will mark all trees to be cut and will draw up the logging contracts to provide for the preservation of young growth.
It is intended to make the forest yield a permanent annual revenue to go toward the support of the college.

Another interesting tract to come under Government supervision is one of about 47,000 acres, owned by the Adirondack League Club.
It is in the Adirondack Mountains of New York, near Lower Saranac, and is kept primarily as a game preserve.
The working plan will provide for the removal of all timber which can be spared without injuring the forest.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.

Some farmers have commenced to plant corn.
W. H. Kaltriter is on the sick list at present.

Miss Katharine Miller left last week for Danville.

W. F. Brown of Freeburg was seen in town Wednesday.

J. A. and F. I. Roush of Kreamer were in town Saturday evening.

Quite a number of our people expect to attend the show at Sunbury Thursday.

Mrs. C. A. Gearhart and Miss Elmira Erlenmeyer of Freeburg spent Friday in town.

Daniel Nace moved on Daniel Mau-avel's farm Thursday, and J. L. Aucker moved to Heistervall Wednesday.

P. A. Stuck, superintendent of the Sunday school, resigned that position last Sunday and his son, N. E. Stuck, was elected as his successor.

Now for the Big Show.

Under the personal direction of such master managers as James A. Bailey, W. W. Cole and Lewis and Peter Sells —with the first named gleaming every foreign field for noted and novel features—the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' united menageries, circuses and hippodromes have grown to be the greatest show of the era, and so generally recognized from New York to San Francisco. Now brilliantly and exclusively dominating the metropolitan field, left vacant by the departure to foreign parts of the Barnum & Bailey show, and making a season in Madison Square Garden a part of its regular programme, the World says it is "the biggest circus that New York ever saw," and that unqualified compliment is heartily seconded by the press and public generally. That is just the shape in which it will appear at Sunbury on Thursday, May 3rd bringing a wealth and variety of entertainment it is simply impossible to detail. There are hundreds of rare wild beasts and amphibia, including three herds of performing elephants, the only school of tamed sea lions and seals, and a whole caravan of other cute and cunning animals. There are hundreds of really eminent artists and royally beautiful horses, and over a hundred brilliant acts and electrifying races. The colossal circus contains all the fun that the biggest tent can hold, furnished by twenty-five famous and versatile clown nineteen champion male and female barback riders, and troops of thrilling and wonderful experts in mid-air and ground sensations. Everything is of the best and there is enough of it to fill three rings, elevated stages and pedestals, acres of aerial space and the biggest coliseum course ever canopied. The morning parade will be the same which, passing under the great Dewey arch, dazzled and delighted over half a million pair of eyes.

DUNDURE.

"Live not to eat, but eat to live."
"Rotten apples injure their comparions."

Dr. Krebs was seen on our streets the other day.

Harvey Bowersox is planting fifteen acres of potatoes.

Rev. Brillhardt and wife called to see Catharine Witmer.

Ex-Sheriff Wolf was noticed the other day on our streets.

L. S. Cooper wants to buy timber tracts for mining prosps.

Wanted two shoats of about 100 lbs. each, inquire at the post office.

Ed. Moyer thinks that there is no school like the one at Freeburg.

Cleveland's soup houses are dead, McKinley's prosperity killed them.

James A. Wise, one of enterprising young men, is running five farms this spring.

Our farmers feel flat on the prospect of a wheat harvest of 75 per cent. of an average crop.

G. A. Neitz spent one day last week in Selinsgrove making garden for Minnie E. Eyer.

Stephen Arnold of Chapman sold a good number of fine Japan chestnut trees in the community.

The Penn Telephone Company gave stakes from Selinsgrove to Liverpool and will in the near future complete the work.

Rev. Fortner of Selinsgrove called on Catharine Witmer, who used to attend the services of his church.

Daisy Witmer hired herself to John Bollinger near Northumberland at $1.50 per week for this summer.

To know how to earn a living, and then how to spend a little less than one earns, is the best insurance against poverty.

A stray horse is seen traveling from Aqueduct Avenue to Blissful Park.
The supervisors ought to take charge of the lost animal.

D. W. Eyer of Shamokin called to see his grandmother, Catharine Witmer, who is suffering from old age and general debility.

Ima Witmer took possession of his new residence on "Toe Hill," one of the superbs of this town, and works for Ima Hoover on the island.

J. A. Moyer was the first this spring to beautify his home by using whitewash freely. He lives at "sweet hope," one of the superbs of this town.

trip to Selinsgrove Monday.

The Sunday school convention of the United Brethren Association will be held at this place May 18th, 19th and 20th. All are invited to attend.

R. M. Rothermel's confectionery store has been completed. He keeps a full line of the choicest candies. Give him a call.

The convention Sunday afternoon failed to accomplish much owing to the absence of Prof. Moyer.

Michael Brubaker and wife of Mahantongo spent Sunday with Wesley Flanders and family.
