

CENTREVILLE.

The editor of the Post was in town today afternoon. C. M. Showers was to Millburg Monday morning. G. A. Stine and family of New Berlin visited Geo. Stine Sunday. C. E. Sampson visited friends at Beavertown over Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Kanawel were to Millburg Monday afternoon. Oscar Solomon and family of New Berlin visited friends Sunday. Calvin Bollig and Chas. Smith visited friends near Kremer Sunday. Dr. G. C. Mohn and family of Laurelton visited relatives on Sunday. A. J. Crossgrove and H. R. Riegle of Middleburg were in town Sunday afternoon. Ammon Miller and family of Union county were the guests of Mrs. Lizzie Miller. Foster Riegle and wife of Beaver Springs were guests at the Centreville House over Sunday. S. F. Sheary took in the convention at Harrisburg and visited friends at Lewisburg last week. Miss Emeline Newins, who had been at home several days last week, returned to Sunbury Saturday.

MIDDLECREEK

A few farmers have commenced to plant corn. Destructive mountain fires are raging in this vicinity. The cherry and some peach trees are in full bloom. Mr. Amspacker of Raul's Mills was visiting Mr. Markle's. E. B. Steinger and family were the guests of Calvin Snook's Sunday. Miss Emma Heimbach was staying with C. O. Greenhoe's last week. Mrs. Charles Getz and children were visiting Wm. Riegle's a few days. Dr. J. O. Wagner enlarged his peach orchard by adding a lot of trees. P. H. Knepp had his wagon shed remodeled by Smith & Co. of Adamsburg. Allen Heimbach and family and Will Kreamer were the guests of Ed. Heimbach's Sunday. Calvin Maurer and John Oldt, Jr., who are working at Yeagertown, were home over Sunday. A. A. Ush is now offering to the public a large stock of spring and summer goods at very reasonable prices. Our mill is doing a thriving business as loads of wheat are brought as far as Centreville to be exchanged for flour.

UNION TWP.

Philp Schaffer hurt one of his eyes Saturday. Watchmaker Ramer of Selinsgrove spent Sunday at home. Rev. W. A. Haas held communion services at Keiser's Sunday. John Foltz and wife were visiting in Juniata county over Sunday. Solomon Scholl and wife were visiting among friends at Paxinos last week. Daniel Stahl began work Monday morning as a hand on J. S. Aueker's saw mill. It is not very satisfactory to run a line if both parties claim the same lot upon which a house stands. Snyder county will get this year from the State the small sum of $19,521.63 for our school appropriation. Miss Lottie Spangler left Monday morning for Edwardsdale where she expects to stay a few weeks with her sister. S. B. Brubaker came home last week after working at Harrisburg one month. He says he don't like the way they fry potatoes down there. We are glad for the law which provides to have the loose stones removed from the public road once a month. You won't find many now that weigh more than fifty pounds lying loose on the roads.

MARRIED.

May 1, by Geo. M. Shindel, Clerk of O. C., Arthur F. Noll of Hummels Wharf to Jennie May Beaver of Oriental, Juniata Co, Pa.

RICHFIELD.

O. R. Basom, who was working in Thompsonstown, visited his parents at this place. A number of our people Sunday attended the funeral of David Ghire at East Salem, Juniata Co. Ellis Berry, Austin Trivets, John Brier and Thomas Aueker of this community went to Cambria Co. in search of employment.

BEAVERTOWN.

Rev. John Freed is the guest of Alfred Smith. Simon Specht and wife were in Lewistown recently. Charles Bingham and Emma Specht were on the sick list. Charles Carpenter and Libbie Greenhoe are visiting their parents. Malvin Dreese is in from the west visiting friends and relatives. Ammon Musser returned from a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Hugh Heimbach of Lewisburg is working in J. P. Kearns' carriage shop. John Wetzel and J. S. Kern attended the Republican convention at Harrisburg. The Junior Christian Endeavor Society held a social in the Lutheran church Tuesday night of this week.

KREAMER.

Philip Roush and Wm. Freyman drove to New Berlin last Friday. Ammon Gearhart and wife visited his parents at Freeburg Sunday. Miss Izora Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thompson Hilbish of Selinsgrove. Geo. Gordon, who is working at Mauch Chunk, was home Sunday visiting his family. Philip Roush purchased two lots of Thompson Hilbish located at the upper end of the town. Miss Bessie Felcher of Williamsport is at present enjoying the hospitality of her relatives of this place. Ellsworth Aurand received employment in the car shops at Logan and is working there at present. Mrs. Jacob Hummel and Mrs. J. J. Mitchell visited the family of Adam Gordon's near Fremont Saturday. Sunday Frank Mitchell and Miss Jennie Bollinger were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. That the newly wedded couple may have a happy time down the stream of life is the earnest desire of your chronicler.

HUMMEL'S WHARF.

Miss Katie Seesholtz is spending some time in Sunbury. John Schoch took a trip to Liverpool and Newport last week. John Seesholtz and Norton Bower took a trip to Sunbury Sunday. Daniel Sassaman and family visited John Bailey's at Fisher's school house Sunday. Peter Bailey and wife and Mrs. Amanda Noll attended church at Shreiner Sunday. Misses May Schoch and Minnie Trutt took a bicycle trip to Sunbury Saturday afternoon.

WEST BEAVER.

Trout season is here, so are the mountain fires. Frank Baker and family spent Sunday with Jacob Erb. D. M. Rittenhouse of Lewistown paid Snyder county a business call last week. Johnny Wagner had his house and barn painted last week by Steely and Showers. Andy O'Donal was compelled to kill one of his teams of horses last week, on account of sickness. Jacob Erb is still confined to the house, with very little improvement for the past few days. P. W. Treaster and son, Charley, of Warrior's Mark, Huntingdon county, spent a few days here visiting friends. Mrs. Cormack started for her home at Pittsburg last Saturday. She had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Haines, for the past week. S. H. Phillips is adding more improvements to his home by putting up new wire fences and sowing a plot of ground with Bromo grass, it being a new thing. W. H. Knepp and Mrs. W. Y. McLaughlin have been at times suffering with a severe pain through their bodies for the past week. They think it is rheumatism. The fire at the mountain destroyed a lot of fence for Cal. Ush. The fire was started from Jack Baker's stove mill. If attended to in time with a few buckets of water, the loss could have been prevented.
