Some of the Kentucky brand of harmony has slopped over into Tennessee. The Republican party in Tennessee is split into factions.

The question of expansion is not pending now. We have already expanded, and it is now only a question of retention or contraction.

If the "Unspeakable Turk" should fail to pay up, Uncle Sam will "take ledge. They show where child labor Mite Society of the Lutheran church a poke" at him that will make him say "ouch" and speak up quick.

Few would dispute the necessity: for asking questions regarding race. All arguments regarding the future of any particular race in this country, like the Indian, the negro, or the Chinaman, must hinge upon the returns in the census. With the Indians, moreover, it is of the highest importance to learn what success the policy of the Government has met with in establishing them apart from their tribes and reservations, and whether such Indians are in-
