

No other aid so great to the housewife, no other agent so useful and certain in making delicious, pure and wholesome foods, has ever been devised.

There are imitation baking powders, sold cheap, by many grocers. They are made from alum, a poisonous drug, which renders the food injurious to health.

Witmer, wife and daughter, Edith, took a drive to Freeburg Sunday. Thomas Eddy and wife of near Salem church, Union county, visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Henry Kuster. R. M. Coleman seems very pleasant since he is nominated for Jury Commissioner on the Democratic ticket. It was a good nomination.

TROXELVILLE.

The rain Saturday has been very welcome. John Smith of Central Pennsylvania College was home over Sunday. Apples will be plentiful if the people will not let the caterpillars eat them. J. C. Rumer was to Watsonstown and Milton on a five days' visit last week. The Jacks Mountain Lumber Co. has commenced peeling bark and some of our people obtained work. The farmers are through planting corn and have now received the rain for which they were looking. Naomi Benfer, Jas. Benfer's older daughter, is very sick with inflammatory rheumatism at the heart. She is not expected to live. Prudie E. Middlewarth, who is employed at Buffalo X Roads, was at home last week. She says she likes the place well and her employer ought certainly to be satisfied because she is a hard-working and a respectable young girl. Have you read "Robert Hardy's Seven Days?" If not hunt your papers and read it. "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong" should be read by everybody. If you are not a subscriber to the Post, subscribe for it. These writings of Chas. M. Sheldon alone are worth more than the cost of the Post for one year. Frank Troxel, of whom I spoke several weeks ago as being on the sick list, is just able to be out again, but his wife and three of his children are in bed now with a very much dreaded and contagious disease—typhoid fever. They are at the mercy of strangers for help and there are only a few who are not afraid. A nurse was procured last week in the person of Grant Heimback of Beavertown who is caring well for them. We wish them a speedy recovery.

ADAMSBURG.

Wilson Moyer of Riverside spent Sunday with his parents, Lewis Moyer and wife. J. A. Moyer and G. A. Botdorf were at Trevorton last week attending to lumber business.

DUNDORE.

Diet cures more than the doctor. Susquehanna river coal is plentiful. J. F. Wagner's field is admired by all. Drive your business, or it will drive you. The telephone is coming slowly but surely. Potatoes are plentiful and the price is low. We had a refreshing rain Saturday and Sunday. Ammon Witmer is getting ready to build an ice house. M. R. Hoot works for Mr. Klingler near Selinsgrove. Norton Hendrix is getting ready to put a new roof on his house. Elias Troup hitched a horse in a sled and drove to the store Saturday. Our supervisor has erected a new bridge at N. T. Dundore's ware house. The prospects are for less than an average crop of cherries, peaches and apples. Our farmers have finished corn planting and the rain Saturday was a pleasing surprise. Eli Campbell employed near Freeburg visited his parents and was seen on our streets. Isaac Campbell and family moved to Northumberland where he is employed in the iron works. Caterpillars are an unusual crop this spring, some are burning them, but others shoot them with old muskets. Ed. Rambo and Norton Hendrix were getting logs ready for the mill that is sawing lumber for N. T. Dundore. Potato bugs impatiently wait for breakfast, but one square meal of paragon, such as our merchant sells, is sure death. Our young people helped to swell the crowd at the Sunday school convention at Port Trevorton last Saturday evening and found the exercises most pleasing. Catharine Witmer's funeral was a largely attended, interment at the Witmer United Evangelical church cemetery, funeral conducted by Revs. Fortner, Brillhart and Boyer. Blessed which die in the Lord, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.

WEST BEAVER.

Born to John I. Erb and wife—a three pound boy. Wm. Hook spent Sunday with his father-in-law, Levi Treaster. The mumps have taken hold of some of our young folks at this end. By all appearance the potato bugs will be as the caterpillars—plentiful. George Wagner and family of McClure spent Sunday with some of their friends at Gravel Hill. Emanuel Peter expected to start a force of hands last week at bark peeling but the weather prevented it. Our supervisors think they can put our roads in good shape this year at less cost than last year. They laid one mill less tax. Isaac Gross's barn was struck by lightning last Friday afternoon and burned to the ground. The live stock was all saved with the exception of one heifer. The heavy rain we had last week did considerable damage to the corn and oats fields by way of washes. Some of our farmers think they will have to replant some of their corn fields. Charles Long's horse ran off on his way to McClure last week and bruised himself considerably. James Steely and Frank Peter also had a runaway last week on their way home from Lewistown. The horse frightened at some cattle, broke the shafts, Steely was jerked out of the buggy and dragged on the hard ground for a short distance, but sustained no injury. The horse and buggy belonged to Mr. Brant in Bannerville. Grace H. Moyer spent the week in Selinsgrove. Hon. Henry Brown is attending the U. S. District Court, Pittsburg, as a juror.
