The appreciation shown for the two splendid flower pictures given free to readers of the great Philadelphia Sunday "Press" this year has led the publisher to provide a third great picture which will be given free with every copy of next Sunday's "Press" (June 3.)

This picture, which is quite as attractive as the famous "Yard of Roses" and "Easter Lilies" pictures, is called "A Basket of Blossoms." It is by the famous Paul De Longpre, and is one of his best works. It is 20 by 28 inches in size and is also noteworthy as being the first example of a new method of color painting, which is quite as wonderful as the picture itself.

The Falling Leaves Give Warning of Winter. So the falling of the hair tells of the approach of age and declining power. No matter how barren the tree nor how leafless it may seem, you confidently expect leaves again. And why? Because there is life at the roots.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will arouse it into healthy activity. The hair ceases to come out; it begins to grow; and the glory of your youth is restored to you. We have a book on the Hair and its Diseases. It is free.
