Mrs. Miller, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Dorn, on West Market street.

O. R. McCool went over to Mifflintown Sunday to see his best girl and returned Monday.

Mrs. J. E. Bower, Esq., delivered the memorial address at Swengle on Wednesday morning of last week and also spoke briefly at Hartleton.

Mrs. Custer of Penn township has been visiting Prof. F. C. Bowersox and wife at this place.

A child of Frank Gaugler of Selmsgrove is visiting his grandfather, Aaron Renninger, at this place.

C. S. Steininger of High, Union County, Pa., and wife spent Sunday with his parents.

A. E. Soles, the tonsorial artist of the bank building, spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in Lewis-town.

Merchant James E. Magee and wife, of Kreamer, called on Dr. J. W. Orwig and wife Sunday afternoon.

A festival will be held at Smith Grove Saturday evening, June 9th, for the benefit of the Smithgrove church.

The soda fountain at the drug store is a beauty and it is attracting a great many people during these warm days.

G. Nelson App and mother of Monroe township and J. F. Walter and wife of Kreamer were at Barbara Yoder's last Friday night.

There will be a festival at Hummel's church 3 miles northeast of Middleburg, on Saturday evening, June 16th, for the benefit of the church. All are invited.

Rev. Frederick Bower delighted his many friends by preaching a most acceptable sermon Sunday evening in the Lutheran church, substituting Pastor McLain, who has not been well.

In the county statistics published last week we gave 157 voters and 121 persons subject to military duty in West Beaver township. The figures should have been 264 and 151 respectively.

Thomas Jordan of Adams township came to town Friday with a load of mining ties drawn by the awkward combination of a mule and a little bull. The team attracted considerable attention and a photograph was taken of the team and the driver in front of the Central Hotel by W. N. Eagle.

The Father Is Near.

A wee little child in its dreaming one night
Was startled by some awful ogre of fright,
And called for its father, who quickly arose
And hastened to quiet the little one's woes.
Ah, well! and how often we cry in the dark,
Tho' God in His love is so near to us! Hark!
God is here in the world as your father and mine,
Ever watching and ready for love words divine.

Read the Arnold closing out shoe sale to-day.

Geo. W. Hassinger and wife began house-keeping in Mrs. Emanuel Schoch's house last week.

Samuel F. Deibert of Catawissa, formerly the photographer, of this place, spent Memorial Day here.

Joseph Woods of Lewistown, one of Mifflin county's attorneys, was at our county seat Thursday morning.

M. Z. Steininger of this place, has been recommended to be the next district president of the P. O. S. of A. of Snyder County.

Mrs. Paul Billhardt is visiting her brother, Charles Frain, in Akron, Ohio, and looking after the welfare of his sick wife.

Harry Seebold of Sunbury is staying at the Washington House and is reading medicine with Dr. A. J. Herman of this place.

Geo. W. Burns of State College and John Eitenberger of Harrisburg were spending a few weeks with Joseph Bowersox and family.

A large load of persons of Kreamer and one from Paxtonville attended the Christian Endeavor Rally in the Chapel last Friday evening.

F. E. Bower, Esq., delivered the memorial address at Swengle on Wednesday morning of last week and also spoke briefly at Hartleton.

Henry Boyer, a veteran of the late war, dropped over dead at Centerville on Memorial Day. He was buried Friday. The funeral was attended by the G. A. R. of this place. Deceased was 72 years of age.

Eugene Snyder of Akron, Ohio, formerly of Port Trevorton, was at the county seat last Friday. Eugene has made his mark in the Buckeye State. He is at the head of the mechanical department of some large manufacturing plant.

Charles Riegle of Union County was lodged in the county jail here last Wednesday on the charge of stealing a horse from Mrs. Amos Engle near Lochiel, Union County. It appears the horse he stole was a very good horse which he traded on a very poor horse and it is presumed he got considerable "boot" money. As the crime was committed in Union county the prisoner was taken to Union county Thursday.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from Chas. S. Botteiger of Cowan, Pa., to attend the graduating exercises of Gettysburg College, June 13. Mr. Botteiger was one of the youngest pupils in the Cowan Grammar school ten years ago when the writer taught there. The writer then predicted that this young man would make his mark. He has scored his first victory and we feel sure of hearing more concerning him in the future.

The memorial exercises on May 30th passed off very pleasantly. Prof. A. A. Killian delivered a very acceptable memorial address in the cemetery at this place. The town put on a holiday appearance after the exercises. The lads and lasses were out in all the latest regalia. Quite a large number of people were entertained by a band concert after which Mr. Arndt and his three sons, who are brickmakers at the brick yard, won many friends by singing familiar songs in the square. Others wended their way to the weighing social and filled up on ice cream and cakes and then got weighed.

A. G. Bashoar of the Franklin Milling Company spent some time in Juniata County last week.

Go to A. E. Soles for a smooth easy shave or up-to-date hair cut and head cleaned with a refreshing shampoo or dandruff removed with his tonic, clean towel to each patron in bank building one door east of Post Office; satisfaction guaranteed.

Mrs. Geo. W. Wagenseiler and Mrs. Julia Dieninger, of this place, went to Lewisburg to hear Dr. John Paton, the renowned missionary to the Hottentots, preach. As a result of Dr. Paton's efforts, 18,000 cannibals were converted.

W. H. Eidem, optician and jeweler of New Berlin, will be at G. C. Gutelius' store room Wednesday of each week for the purpose of testing eyes and repairing all kinds of jewelry. Mr. Eidem is a graduate of the Philadelphia Optical College and all work entrusted to him will receive his most careful attention. 5-30-2m.

The summer term of the Freeburg Musical College will open July 16, 1900. The school is conducted by H. B. Moyer. It is one of the best musical colleges in Central Pennsylvania and it has given so many young people in this section a musical education that the institution is a household word over a large proportion of the state. 6-7-2t.

The beautiful souvenir, "Paris and the Exposition Illustrated," described in the advertising columns, should be in every household. The 320 views embraced in the twenty parts graphically portray every feature worth seeing; and, no matter whether you go or stay at home, the work will be invaluable, as it can be secured at a trifling expense.

The Snyder County Historical Society wishes to acknowledge the receipt of 20 old copies of the Freeburg "News" published in 1885 and 1886, from John H. Knepp, Middlecreek, Pa. Persons having old copies of county newspapers, should not destroy them, but send them in to the Snyder County Historical Society.

G. A. Shaffer of Freeburg came over to the county seat on Memorial Day with a nice large list of new subscribers for the Post. Mr. Shaffer is anxious to get the Post's prize Chapel Organ for the Ebenezer church in Washington township. Mr. Shaffer has discovered that he can get votes more rapidly by working for premium coupons.

How the Contest Stands.

The organ contest is creating quite an interest among the members and friends of churches who are striving for the beautiful Chapel Organ. The Post will give away to the church, Sunday school or public school in Snyder County that gets the largest number of votes. The Organ is on exhibition at F. S. Riegle's music room adjoining the Washington House, and a great many persons dropped in to see the handsome instrument. They all agree that it is a very beautiful organ and a soft toned instrument. Beginning with this week, we will announce the result each week. Votes will be counted at 5 P. M. every Tuesday. The first count show the result as follows:

Ebenezer U. B. church, Washington township:
Premium coupons,	692
Newspaper coupons,	227 919
U. Evan. church, Penns Creek, Pa.
Newspaper coupon,	510
U. B. church, Fremont, Pa.
Premium coupons,	59
Newspaper coupons,	11 61
Trinity church, McKees Hill Falls,
Newspaper coupons,	25
Total,	1515

As there are premium coupons out yet and newspaper coupons the above standing may be changed at any time.

IN COMBINATION WITH THE POST.

We give below some clubbing combinations with the Post. The rates quoted are very low.

The Farm Journal, monthly, for almost five years and the Middleburg Post one year, paid in advance, $1.00

The Farm Journal is one of the best agricultural papers published. It contains from 25 to 30 pages, each month and treats of every subject of interest to the farmer, laborer and working man.

The New York Tri-Weekly Tribune and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.75.

The Tri-Weekly is published Monday, Wednesday and Friday, reaches a large proportion of subscribers on date of issue, and each edition is a thoroughly up-to-date daily family newspaper for busy people.

The New York Weekly Tribune and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.25

The Weekly Tribune is published on Thursday, and gives all important news of nation and world, the most reliable market reports, unexcelled agricultural department, reliable general information and choice and entertaining miscellany. It is the "people's paper" for the entire United States, a national family paper for farmers and villagers.

The New York Tri-Weekly World and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Tri-Weekly World comes three times a week, is filled with the latest news of the country and is well worth the price asked for it.

The Practical Farmer, one year, and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, $1.50. Both of the above papers and the Practical Farmer Year Book and Agricultural Almanac for 1900, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Practical Farmer is one of the best farm papers published, issued monthly, at $1.00 year. The year book contains 600 pages in which there is a fund of information that is useful to the farmer. The price of this book alone is 50 cents. You get the Post, the Practical Farmer and the year book for only $1.65
