

HOFFER

Jno. Hill was under the parental roof over Sunday. H. E. Bohner's were visitors at this place Sunday. Jas. Kratzer left for Nanticoke where he is employed. The rain last week was highly appreciated by all. Harry Gelnett's of Port Royal are visiting parents at present. Mrs. Jno. Newman of Herndon was the guest of her mother last week. Miss Della Fisher was the guest of G. W. Shreiber a few days last week. We noticed Arlington Fisher of Freeburg pass through here Monday. Thomas Newman and wife made a business trip to Liverpool Monday. Mrs. Milton Shaffer is sojourning among friends at Glen Union and Northumberland. Mr. Howell's of Fremont last week visited their daughter-in-law, who is slowly recovering from a spell of sickness. There will be a festival here on the evening of the 4th of July. String band music and a soup eating contest will be part of the evening's entertainment. Dr. McClure and wife spent one day last week with W. B. Rine's. They were on their way to Berryburg where he intends to practice medicine again. We wish him success. We find him to be a good fellow and a first class doctor.

KANTZ

D. R. Fisher wears a smile. It's a girl. J. F. Dock goes to Kratzerville quite frequently. Geo. W. Paige and Peter Holtzapfle were to Fremont Sunday. Some of our leading business men were to Philadelphia this week. Levi Herrold and C. A. Shemorry were to Selinsgrove Saturday evening. Wm. and Jacob Shemorry were visiting their brother, Adam Shemorry Sunday. F. E. Holtzapfle has sent his order for a new thrasher. He is going to please his patrons. Howard Arbogast and his lady friend, Laura Romig, were visitors at H. W. Romig's Sunday. George I. Kilne and Clarence Gearhart were to Lewistown attending the funeral of the latter's twin sister. Abner Bressler had an accident Saturday caused by the runaway of J. F. Romig's horse. The man was bruised considerably. Dedication of Hoover's Faith U. E. church took place Sunday. Rev. Brillhart and Presiding Elder Rev. Reamer officiated. Services were held in the forenoon, afternoon and evening. The church is free from debt. The cost of the church is estimated at $1,000 and will present a fine appearance when fully completed. Holy communion was partaken Sunday evening, after which the church was dedicated.

ADAMSBURG

Harry Dreese, of Phila., is visiting his parents. Banks Dreese, of Watsonstown, moved to this place. Mr. Oldt and wife, of New Berlin, visited Hetty Smith. Miss Stella Romig visited Middleburg friends recently. Chas. Gross, of Cleveland, O., called on friends at this place. Mr. Lebkueher and wife, of Milton, spent Sunday with W. F. Sechrist. Mrs. Elmer Snyder, of Selinsgrove visited her sister, Mrs. W. O. Klose. F. J. Dreese, who spent a few months in Cleveland, Ohio, has returned home. While loading a wagon last week Lewis Helfrich fell and broke his shoulder. Mrs. C. E. Keller and children are spending the week with friends in Middleburg. Ammon Aumond, Jerry Knepp and S. F. Aumond and wife spent the week in Phila. Chas. Getz purchased Harley and Bashore's house and lot. Consideration $200. Ernest Zimmermann, of Susquehanna University, is spending his vacation with his parents. Quite a number of our people attended children's day exercises in Beaver-town Sunday evening. M. L. Wagonseller, the popular salesman, of Philadelphia, made his regular trip through this section. Luther is always a welcome visitor with his numerous friends.

GLOBE MILLS

Antes Ulrich made a business trip to Salem Friday. Thursday evening Mrs. Andrew Hummel had a stroke of paralysis. Charles Herbst is visiting his children in Lewistown this week. Foster Riegle and wife of Beaver Springs spent Sunday with Mrs. R's mother, Mary M. Wagner. Samuel Hassinger and family of near Danville visited Mrs. H's brothers, H. A., Clayton and John C. Hummel of this place. Frank Snyder, the traveling basket maker, and family of York, are camping at this place for a few weeks. Frank is an expert basket maker and is well known through this part of the country.

SHADEL

Sheriff Row was seen on our streets last week. The rain last week has refreshed the crops nicely. H. A. Elbright sold one of his match horses last week. Ice-cream festivals and picnics will be held in the near future. Jonathan Meiser, who is sick with rheumatism, is slowly recovering. B. T. Reichenbach and wife were the guests of his mother-in-law Sunday. Children's day services were held in the St. John's church at Fremont Sunday evening. George Cluck is going to Lancaster county this week to work in harvest and haymaking. Miss Alice Reichenbach came home from Selin's Grove, where she had been for four weeks. Mrs. Jonathan Reichenbach is still on the sick list. She has been sick now for about twelve weeks. Farmers have commenced to cut hay already, but the hay crop is very short and harvest will soon be on the program. The census enumerator is busy canvassing the township. This will give one of the best censuses that has been taken yet. H. G. Hornberger and Albert Meiser are having some hemlock bark peeled on the timber tract which they purchased from G. B. Rauch. There seems to be a greater demand for hemlock bark than there has been for years.

WEST BEAVER

Jacob Erb is slowly improving and is able to do light work about the farm. Mason Knepp and wife spent Sunday last visiting friends in Beaver township. Mrs. Abe Wagner fell from a cherry tree last week and received some severe bruises. Jacob Gross and family, of Banner-ville, were the guests of L. A. Jenkins last Sunday. Emanuel Wagner and son spent part of last week in Milroy, Mifflin county, visiting friends. Our farmers are busy now making hay. Some expect to cut rye by the last of the week. S. H. Phillips was the first man here to present his neighbor with a mess of new potatoes this season. James Brannon and family, of Mifflin county, spent Sunday last with some of their Snyder county friends. J. M. Baker, of Beaver Springs, made a business call on Squire Steely last Saturday morning. The Squire being on the sick list, business had to be postponed to some future date. W. H. Knepp and Emanuel Peter, of Crossgrove, have been awarded the contract for putting up a monument on the battlefield at Stony Lonesome, below the parsonage. James Long does the work. The young man from Lewistown who spent Saturday evening and Sunday as a guest of U. F. Herlster, of Lowell, was called on by a few of our young ladies, but was spirited away and landed at J. J. Nearhood's. He was caged up while the family went to church. J. P. Fisher, U. F. Herlster, James Peter, wife and daughter, C. W. Fisher and wife, L. B. Treaster, Wm. Hook, Miss Jane Nerhood and brother, William Maurer, J. P. Baker, Miss Laura Baker, Avilda Romig, Nettie Goss, Lydia Snook, W. Koch, your scribe and wife paid Squire Steely a visit last Sunday. All wished him a speedy recovery from his late sickness. The Squire returns many thanks to his neighbor, Mrs. W. Y. McLaughlin for her kindness in presenting him with a few dainties for a sick man's appetite.

PORT TREVERTON

Geo. Troutman went to Williams-town to butcher. Dr. Krebs made a trip to Philadelphia last Friday. B. F. Arnold and family moved to Milton Wednesday. Eugene Markley of Aline called at A. H. Troutman's Saturday. Mrs. M. P. Arnold, who has been at Milton for a few days, returned home Monday. Mrs. O. K. Neitz and daughter of Sunbury are visiting the former's sister in town. P. G. Shambaugh, who had been working at Speeceville, returned home Saturday. Andrew Herrold and Miss Mary Shambaugh of Shamokin spent Sunday with relatives in town. Clarence Lenig, who had been working at Sunbury, returned home Thursday of last week. A. W. Aucker and Ed. Mitterling of Sunbury were visiting their better halves Sunday. Capt. Keller and family, E. F. Neitz and Frank Swineford, who had been to Milton, returned home Saturday. Henry Halpern of Philadelphia, after spending several enjoyable and profitable weeks in town, returned home. A. B. Moyer and T. G. Herrold, the leading politicians of Chapman, gave one of their Bryanite brothers a call Sunday. Misses Lera and Lena Bingham, Maud Charles and E. F. Neitz attended the children's day exercises at Herndon Sunday evening. Miss Estella Troutman, who graduated at C. P. C., New Berlin, is at home. Mrs. Dr. Nipple of Sunbury is visiting her sick mother. A. M. Stroh and Misses Jennie Charles and Toledo Houtz were elected by the Y. P. C. U. Society of our town to attend the convention at Avon, Pa.

PALLAS NEWS

Farmers are busy plowing their buck-wheat land. The festival at Pallas was partly spoiled by rainy weather. Rev. Shannon and son, Alvin, of Wilkesboro and Rev. Francis of Port Trevertion were the guests of Mrs. Bailey this week. Levi Ramer sold one of his young colts to Mr. Overholzer of Oriental for $40. The next day he bought William Hockenbroch's colt for $50. Wheat will be a fair crop, oats looks promising, corn is real good, but peaches will not be very plentiful, although enough for home use can be expected. A good many of our young people attended children's day exercise at Fremont Sunday evening. The same will be held at Grubb's church Sunday evening, June 24th.

INDEPENDENCE

John Shaffer spent Sunday at home. Some of our boatmen left Monday morning for Nanticoke. I. Meader and family of Millersburg visited in this place last Sunday. Mrs. Hartline of Weighscales spent a pleasant Sunday with Mrs. Martz at this place. J. O. Martz will have a free chicken corn soup Friday night. All are welcome to come. Mrs. Houser has been on the sick list for the last few days. We hope she will soon recover. The Riverside Club will hold a festival at the Independence Hotel Saturday night, June 23. All are invited.

UNION TWP.

Daniel Wolf and wife, of Shamokin, were visiting here over Sunday. J. E. Schrawder and wife were calling on friends at Liverpool last week. Dr. R. S. Gaugler, of Dayton, Ohio, mingled among his old friends here on Sunday. W. W. Sholly had a well drilled at his barn. The work was done by the Hoover Bros. Rev. J. G. Martin, of New Columbia, came down on his wheel Sunday to see his many friends. Geo. M. Houser and wife spent last Sunday with Merchant S. J. Stroub at Hummel's Wharf. The hay crop will be a short one this year and still it is high—a little difficult to understand. H. H. Sechrist with his jambo strawberries has no trouble in selling them, as they simply sell themselves. Mrs. Jacob B. Stauffer died Monday morning at three o'clock and was interred Monday morning in the Menno-nite cemetery.

ALINE

H. A. Feltz and wife were seen on our road Sunday on their way to his brother, Peter. The public sale of P. M. Hime was well attended Saturday last and things brought fair prices. Now is the time to make the hay. Some have commenced. The hay and grain crop is rather short this year on account of the dry weather, but we had a good rain this week. Andrew Kerstetter can finish sawing the coming week on H. A. Elbright's tract. He will then take his engine to H. G. Hornberger's shingle tract below Wilson Ferry's.
