

BEAVERTOWN.

Cherries are scarce and huckleberries reported plentiful.

John A. Kearns, of Adamsburg, was visiting over Sunday with his parents.

Wilson Gross and Jonathan Kiser, of Campontown, were here last week buying cattle.

Wm. Swonger has just recovered from the grip and is now nursing a couple of Job's pets.

B. F. Rine, our bustling merchant, was in Philadelphia last week on business and taking in the convention.

P. Kearns wants a good reliable man to sell work on the road. A good position for the right men to handle.

Mrs. David Coleman, who has been suffering with heart trouble for several years, died Saturday, leaving a husband and a large family of children to mourn the loss.

John Fessler, an aged man of Rand, Union Co., was here visiting Charles Specht and wife and says it is the first time he has been to Beavertown and the third time in the county, having been born and raised in Union county.

W. H. Specht contemplates turning his planing mill into a furniture factory exclusively and will devote his time entirely to the manufacture of furniture for wholesale trade. He has not been able to fill his orders for tables and sinks all summer, being several hundred tables behind which he will not be able to furnish.

We understand there was a party here looking up a building to start a stocking factory and proposes to locate here if the citizens give him any encouragement at all. He would be satisfied if the citizens would secure a building and pay the first year's rent, till he gets started. This no doubt could be done if someone takes interest enough to look after it.

MEISERVILLE.

(Too late for last week.)

Miss Kate Fisher, of Freeburg, is in our town at present.

William Gamby made a trip to Middleburg one day last week.

George Meiser made a business trip to Fremont Sunday evening.

Jonathan Meiser, of Aline, is recovering from a spell of sickness.

Prof. H. E. Keiser is at home again from Lebanon Valley College.

David Haas and wife, of Oriental, were the welcome guests of James Will Sunday.

"Flicker Kerstetter, the great confectioner of Pallas, was seen on our streets this week.

Jerome Kerstetter, our fine landlord, is doing a great business. He says everybody is welcome.

Henry S., next time you catch a napper take him at the other end. The end you got is dangerous.

Henry Meiser built a new house, the work of which was done by Emanuel P. Shaffer and Lewis Goodling.

The bachelors of the western vicinity of Meiserville will hold their reunion in August. At least that is the talk.

G. W. Portzline, one of our old batchers, and Hiram Gamby made a flying trip to Pallas Sunday to see "Flicker's" new store.

George W. Hall, our young merchant of Meiserville, made a trip to Freeburg. Mr. Hall is a fine young man and strictly honest in all his dealings.

Arlington Fisher, who is employed at Williamsport, spent Sunday among friends at this place. Arrie is one of the best boys to be found in the county.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Gertrude Portzline was out with her son William to take a drive in the buggy. She is eighty-three years old, but her mind still as bright as ever.

TROXELVILLE.

Everybody in this part of the county looking for rain.

The first huckleberries were brought to town Saturday evening.

John Wiand and wife were visiting A. W. Gill's over Sunday.

Isaac Swartz, wife and little son were sitting at Reuben Wagner's Sunday.

If I had to fish two nights for one fish I wouldn't eat very many fish. How is it with you, Oliver and Wesley?

The farmers are about through working their corn. Some commenced making their hay, which is an unusually dry crop.

D. C. Hackenburg is now alone in the shanty which Gill and Hackenburg put up this spring. Daniel says eight callers are always welcome excepting Wednesday night. The bed is taken up by himself and wife, he brings her husband a fresh supply of food. This is very inconvenient, but poor man, and a family loving father such as Dan, is willing to do almost anything which is honorable to provide for his loved ones at home.

Frank Troxel, wife and five children, had all been down with typhoid fever, all pulled through under the skillful direction of Dr. E. M. Miller. These people are all up and have their house thoroughly cleaned. The wife, who had been worn out by attending to the others, is very slow in regaining strength, but she had no occasion to take her shoes off for four weeks, during which time she was caring for her children as most any woman could do, but she was finally attacked, and now her countenance shows the effect. With all the trouble which they had and the financial loss they all feel happy that God has been gracious unto them and spared them all.

PALLAS NEWS.

Farmers are busy making hay.

The raspberry crop is very plentiful this year.

Henry Arnold lost a valuable colt Sunday afternoon.

Newton Bailey is engaged roofing a barn on Chestnut Ridge.

Saturday evening the rain spoiled the festival and it will be held later at Pallas.

Dr. Samuel Schreiber of Northumberland spent Sunday on his old home at Pallas.

Our valuable county paper, the Post, is an ever welcome visitor at our post office and we fall to see why any one could possibly begrudge the small sum of one dollar in exchange for a paper of such intrinsic value. To do without it simply means to be in ignorance of what goes on around us. We also notice that that splendid little paper, the Farm Journal, is as full of good things as an egg is full of meat, and believe that it pays every farmer to read it.

The entertainment at Grubb's church Sunday evening brought a full house. Among the audience we noticed parties from Freeburg, Kantz, Red Bank, Fremont, Mt. Pleasant Mills, Shadle, Aline, Oriental, Meiserville, McKees Falls, Hoffer, Port Trevorton, Independence, Dundore and Verdilla. The church was tastefully decorated and an interesting programme was rendered to the satisfaction of all present. Rev. Corell was present and gave a farewell talk.

SELINSGROVE.

James Row spent Sunday with his family.

Rev. M. L. Snyder arrived in town Saturday evening.

Miss Emma Sigmond, of Ohio, is visiting friends in this place.

Harry Hummel, wife and child, of Northumberland, spent Sunday in town.

Prof. B. M. Wagenseller returned home to spend his vacation with his parents.

Ira C. Schoch and daughter, Ethel, were to Bryn Mawr attending commencement.

Chas. Von, of Lafayette College, spent several days with the family of Ira C. Schoch.

Miles Potter, wife and son Joe, of Middleburg, were entertained by J. A. Lombard and family Sunday.

Miss Marie Zellers, of Lock Haven, who spent several weeks among her friends, returned to her home Tuesday last week.

Senator Hummel, wife and daughter Anita, left Monday for New York, where they will sail Wednesday for a trip to the continent taking in the Paris Exposition.

Miss Marie Snyder was brought from Manheim, where she was taken sick, so that her grandfather, Dr. B. F. Wagenseller, could the better treat her case. Her mother accompanied her here.

Quite an excitement was raised in town Friday afternoon when a three wheeled automobile passed through the town. It stopped a short time at Hilbish's grocery store. A great many viewed the machine.

The Children's day exercises Sunday evening last in Trinity Lutheran church passed off very well. The decorations were handsome. The primary school had nearly all the exercises and they acquitted themselves well. The audience room was crowded.

GLOBE MILLS.

Mrs. L. E. Pawling and Mrs. Michael Pawling, of Selinsgrove, visited B. F. Walter and wife.

Jefferson Hummel and family, of Milton, spent Sunday with Mrs. H's parents, Levi Erdley and wife.

C. A. Meiser's horses ran away and were caught by John Duck, of Middleburg, Duck being informed by phone, mounted his wheel and met them in B. W. Yoder's woods. The one horse was seriously injured.

Friday we received the sad intelligence that Barbara Yoder was dead. She and her family had lived here a number of years and during that time she made for herself a host of friends who mourn the loss and extend their most heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved children.

The young folks of Globe Mills had a social gathering Saturday evening and through the carelessness of driving or a desire to "show off," like some of them did, a buggy was smashed near the bridge and three others were damaged. John Herman hurt his hand and a few of the ladies were terribly frightened.

Among those from a distance who attended the funerals were: S. H. Reich and son, Calvin Reich and wife, all of Kapp's Station; Simon Mull and son, of Northumberland; Amos Gemberling and wife, of Salem; Robert Hummel and wife, of near Middleburg; George Hummel and wife, of Port Royal, Benjamin and Chas. Keninger, of Mifflin county and Mrs. Marie Pawling, of Middleburg.

HUMMEL'S WHARF.

The farmers of this place are busy making hay.

John Bower of Mifflinburg visited friends in this place Sunday.

Daniel Sussman and wife visited Mrs. Jarrett near Kratzerville.

Mrs. Frank Hettrick entertained friends from Montandon over Sunday.

Dr. Newt. Nipple and wife of Ohio are visiting Thomas Hettrick's at present.

Miss Katie Kessler of Sunbury spent Sunday with her grandparents, James Kessler's.

Mrs. Daniel Seesholtz of Sunbury spent a few days last week with friends in this place.

Miss May E. Schoch is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Troutman, near Newport.

Peter Klingler and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Miller, in Selinsgrove.

Misses Bertha Buliek and Minnie and Katie Trutt took in the festival and children's day at Salem.

Frank Hackenburg of near Troxelville, who is working for Frank Erdley, had the misfortune of breaking his left arm while trying to ride a bicycle.

Mr. Shambach of Port Trevorton passed through this place one day last week, gathering up coupons for the Post's prize chapel organ for the church at Penn's Creek.

CENTREVILLE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fessler is visiting friends at Selinsgrove.

Ephraim Walter was at the county seat one day last week.

Jas. Crossgrove was home from Reedsville over Sunday.

Thos. Kleckner and wife of Milton visited his mother Sunday.

W. A. Napp and S. H. Stroub attended the horse sale at Vicksburg Saturday.

C. F. Berger and hands, who are working at Laurelton, were home over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Dauberman and daughter Mamie visited John Hartman and family Sunday.

M. A. Bateman and family of Selinsgrove were the guests of Squire Shinkel Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. G. W. Shery returned home from Lewistown last Friday, having spent several months there.

Mrs. J. E. Shinkel and daughter, Aline, are visiting at Selinsgrove, the guests of M. A. Bateman and family.

Mrs. Dr. D. R. Rothrock and daughter, Helen, of Milton, were the guests of Mrs. Susan Walter several days last week.

J. C. Schoch and Prof. Billhardt of Middleburg were in town Saturday evening and Aaron Crossgrove Sunday evening.

J. H. Hartman is erecting a new barn on his lot occupied by S. C. Dondore and W. H. Hartman one on his lot at the west end of Market St.

NEITZ VALLEY.

Some of our people made hay last week.

Some Berks county people are visiting in this valley.

Some of our people visited Polly Swartz Sunday a week.

John Hoover intends to finish sawing shingles for Joseph Walborn.

Lewis Heimbach's mower was the first grass clipper in our neighborhood.

G. A. Shaffer reports a fair crop of strawberries and we are pleased to hear it.

CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cholera, Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. LYNCH, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by all Druggists.

FIFTY YEARS OLD

Why let your neighbors know it? And why give them a chance to guess you are even five or ten years more? Better give them good reasons for guessing the other way. It is very easy; for nothing tells of age so quickly as gray hair.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is a youth-renewer. It hides the age under a luxuriant growth of hair the color of youth. It never fails to restore color to gray hair. It will stop the hair from coming out also. It feeds the hair bulbs. Thin hair becomes thick hair, and short hair becomes long hair. It cleanses the scalp; removes all dandruff, and prevents its formation. We have a book on the Hair which we will gladly send you. If you do not obtain all the benefits expected from the use of the Vigor, write the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which may be easily removed. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.
