While Admitting That He Was Responsible For the Invasion of Frankfort by Armed Men, He Denies Other Charges Against Him.

Georgetown, Ky., July 31.-Ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers took the stand in his own behalf yesterday, but did not complete his testimony on direct examination. Powers admitted that he organized the body of mountaineers who went to Frankfort on several occasions last winter, but declared this was done for influence with the state contest board and the legislature-not for the purpose of intimidation. The defendant entered a denial of the charges made against him by Culton, Golden, Noakes and other witnesses. He denied that Henry Youtsey had the keys to his office on the day of the assassination, but said there were two other keys to the office, one of which was in the possession of former Assistant Secretary of State W. J. Davidson, and another in possession of Ben Rowe, Governor Taylor's colored porter. Powers said neither of these keys were ever in his possession, and that he had his own key in his pocket in Louisville the day of the assassination. Davidson is supposed to be in the state of Washington and Rowe, the colored porter, is said to be at Anderson, Ind.

The defendant read to the jury receipts from various parties, which he said were for money paid by him for board for some of the mountain men brought by him to the state capital. He then told of the Barbourville conference at which Finley, Powers and others discussed the arrangements with John A. Black, who strongly opposed the movement. The witness said he assured Black that he and Finley would use their best endeavors to keep the crowd from degenerating into a mob, but denied that he told Black he was going to organize a mob. He said he had no recollection of having said in the presence of L. Culton that the legislature W. would be given 30 minutes to act, and if it did not do it in that time they would kill the Democratic legislators. Afterwards he said positively that no such remark was made, and added: "The men came, and nothing of the sort was done. We could have 'cleaned them up,' as Culton put it, if we had desired."

In regard to sending the men home from Frankfort the evening of Jan. 25, about which witness Noakes testifled last week and told of a breach between the witness and Governor Taylor, Powers said:

"I heard that they were going to send the men home and I opposed it, as the men had been up all the night before. I went to see Governor Taylor. He told me it had been decided to send them home, as their presence was having a bad effect. Some of the anti-Goebel Democrats in the legislature had strongly disapproved of bringing the men armed, and had threatened to desert Governor Taylor in the contest unless he sent the men home.

Witness said he did not have a conversation with John Powers and Golden in reference to Goebel being killed by "Tallow Dick" Combs. He did meet building and Youtsey asked him to let him into the office. Witness did not know why Youtsey wanted to get in there, but witness did not want him in there.

Lesson in the International Series for August 12, 1900-The Forgiving Spirit.

[Prepared by H. C. Lenington.] THE LESSON TEXT. (Matthew 18:21-35.) 21. Then came Peter to Him, and said Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? 22. Jesus said unto him, I say not unto thee. Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. 23. Therefore is the kingdom of Heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. 24. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

25. But forasmuch as he had not to pay his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

25. The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, which owed him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that tho owest. And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and berought him, saying Have patience with me, and 1 will pay thee all. 29. And he would not: but went and ises a Statement Soon.

Cumberland, Md., July 31 .-- George L. Wellington, the senior Republican United States senator from Maryland, has definitely announced his determination to oppose the re-election of President McKinley, but has not yet made up his mind in which manner he will do it. Senator Wellington has not been in full accord with his party, either in local or national affairs, for nearly two years. Prior to that time he was chairman of the Republican state central committee and was regarded as the close political and personal friend of former Governor Lloyd
