Thursday, August 9, 1900.

Judging from the parting shot given by Editor Lombard in last week's issue of the Snyder County Tribune, in his obituary notice to the Virgin Grand-daughter of the late Gov. Simon Snyder, there will not be a warm reception in Heaven between Joseph and the Virgin Mary.

The nuncupative will of Henry M. Rianhard, mention of which was made in the Post last week, was the first of the kind that was put on record in Snyder county since 1873. That form of testament is especially adapted to the uncertainties of the life of a soldier or sailor.

It is very unfortunate that the United States should furnish the assassin of King Humbert, of Italy. Of course there is some consolation in the fact that the fiend was born and bred in Italy. That band of anarchists at Patterson, N. J., should be driven out of the country. How can a naturalized American citizen become an anarchist?

The Democrats in this senatorial district seem to think they have already won the prize of a representative in the upper branch of the State Legislature since it seems to be a foregone conclusion that Hon. Simon P. Wolverton will accept the nomination. Up to this time the ex-Congressman has not run up against any opposition. He certainly controls, in an admirable way, the leaders of democracy, but before he goes to the State Senate the people will have a voice in the matter.

Now the newspapers are springing a new class of jokes on Admiral Dewey and his wife. Mrs. Dewey is represented as having tired of dolls and is preparing for something more life-like. The Admiral is devoted to children and his only son is away from home engaged in business in New York. No wonder he sits on the piazza and smiles with the prospect of a new boarder at the Dewey mansion.

Now comes the report that Snyder county is to have an independent Republican candidate for the legislature this fall. The report thus far does not seem to be well authenticated. The mere rumor of there being a candidate without knowing, or at least without giving, his name is not giving the public very much confidence in its authenticity. It makes but little difference whether the report is true or false, the result will be the same. The people have decided to give Dr. A. M. Smith, of Adamsburg, a second term in the lower house and they will do it, no matter how many candidates are trotted out.

The news from China from time to time is showing the world what a hot-bed of ignorance exists in the celestial empire. Heaped upon ignorance is the calumny entertained for foreigners and other nations. The "Boxers," a secret society, numbering 4,000,000 members, are trained in military science and have undertaken to drive out or "kill the foreign devils." The imperial government, it is thought, fearing so powerful an organization, has sided in with them and even set the Imperial troops to besieging the foreign legations. This state of affairs is making more complex the internal complications which concerns almost the entire world.

Mary Snyder's Courtship

Monday's Philadelphia Press says: "It is stated by the Chambersburg Public Opinion that President James Buchanan once wooed but failed to win Miss Anna C. Coleman, who died a few days ago at Selingsgrove. Miss Coleman was the daughter of Robert Coleman, of Lancaster, and Mr. Buchanan's disappointment is said to have occurred in 1819."

The Press has matters pretty well confused; what the Chambersburg Public Opinion really said is as follows:

"The statement in some of the newspapers that it is a well known fact that President Buchanan wooed but failed to win Miss Mary Kittera Snyder, daughter of John Snyder, a member of the Twenty-seventh Congress, and grand-daughter of Governor Simon Snyder, is misleading. The lady whom Mr. Buchanan wooed but failed to win was Miss Anna C. Coleman, daughter of Robert Coleman, of Lancaster. The disappointment, which is historical, occurred in 1819, Miss Snyder died at Selingsgrove only a few days ago. If she had been Buchanan's sweetheart she must have been almost a centenarian."

It need not annoy our esteemed contemporary about Miss Snyder being a centenarian. She was so old that she refused to tell her age even when she knew she must die.

"Malcolm Kirk."

With next week's issue of the Post we will conclude the publication of that most interesting religious story of Chas. M. Sheldon, "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong." This is the third of Rev. Sheldon's serial stories which we have published. There is no author living in America to-day whose writings are as widely read as those of Rev. Sheldon. His story, "In His Steps," published in the Post from August, 1899 to January, 1900, has been translated into fourteen different dialects. There was never a story published in Snyder county that has attracted so many people, both old and young, as the stories, "In His Steps," "Robert Hardy's Seven Days," and "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong."

So strong has been the commendations of the Sheldon stories published and already requests are coming in from all parts of the county for more of Rev. Sheldon's stories, that, although very expensive, we cannot ignore the requests. In compliance with this popular demand, we have bought at a very high price another of Rev. Sheldon's stories. It is entitled "Malcolm Kirk," or overcoming the world. In our contract for this popular story, like before, we have bought it with the definite condition that the use of the copyright be sold in Snyder county only to the Middleburgh Post. No other Snyder county newspaper dare publish it.

The plot in the story is well conceived and ably handled by a master pen, while there is predominant throughout the story the exalting principles of manhood and womanhood that elevate and ennoble mankind. Watch for the opening chapters of "Malcolm Kirk."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. C. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Excellent Farm for Sale.

Wishing to quit farming, I am offering at private sale a most excellent farm containing 107 acres of rich farm land, 87 acres of which is clear and in a good state of cultivation. The balance is timber. On the land is a good large bank barn, excellent dwelling house, good size, all kinds of outbuildings in good repair, good cane molasses factory, good never-failing water near the house and in the fields for the stock, excellent apple orchard, abundance of peaches, cherries, pears, and all kinds of small fruit, such as black and red raspberries, grapes, currants, plums, etc.

The property is located convenient to church, store and postoffice along the public road and is a very prominent farm. We raise excellent grain and grass; have good fences and a fine location for a fish dam within sight of the house. The soil is good, deep and rich, no stones to bother with, no ditching necessary, no slate and we have an easy road to the river. We will also sell 20 acres which will make a small farm for some one who does not care for much land.

This farm was twice sold for $5,000 and is now offered at the very low rate of $2800. If it were not for the fact that I wish to discontinue farming, the farm would not be offered at so low a figure. A clear title can be given.

MRS. M. A. BAILEY,
