General Chaffee's Last Dispatch Indicates Closeness to Capital.

THE CASUALTIES AT YANGTSUN.

The Heaviest Losses Sustained by The American Troops-Fourteenth Infantry Lost Nine Killed and Sixty-two Wounded.

Washington, Aug. 14.-The American commander in China, in a dispatch of three words, received at the war department late yesterday afternoon, sar a thrill of exultation and expectan throughout official quarters by nouncing his arrival at Ho Si Wu, 836 s from Pekin, last Thur /.

It was deemed hardly likely that the march to Pekin could have been made since last Thursday. At the rate of progress, six miles a day, made from Yangtsun to Ho Si Wu, about 24 miles would have been covered in the last has just been made of the death Sun-four days, and up to yesterday this day at the Magnetian State heart and the death Sun-forces nine miles from Pekin. Viewed these player. The day and was born from any standpoint, the advance to in Frague, May 13, 1867 Ho Si Wu was of the utmost import- had made cheeence, not only strategically, but also in the great todenshiest or handon in in showing that communication from 1872 he sained the world's champlen-Chinese hardes had not been sufficient ship, and held it until 1881, when he to prevent the stendy forward move- was defeated by Emanuel Lunker ment, and in the influence it would ex- Since then he seemed to be on the deert upon the Chinese government.

Although it is not stated what force has arrived, the war department accepts it to mean that this is the international force which first took Pettsang and then Yangtsun, It has gone steadily forward along the left bank of the Poi river, keeping on the main road, which skirts the river bank. At Yangtsun the milway crosses the river, and branches off to the west. Now the forces have left the rallway far in the rear, and are depending upon the highway and the river. Ho Si Wu is a place of considerable size, and the largest town between Tien Tsin and Ching Chia Wan. The latter place and Tung Chow are the two cities of considerable size in the line of advance after leaving Ho Si Wu. It is surrounded by orchards and gardens and is not a place likely to have afforded opportunity for strong defence. It is the highest point on the Pel river where the river water is depended on, as the native wells are the source of supply on the balance of the route to

Shortly after this dispatch arrived, another mesage from Gen. Chaffee, far more lengthy, gave the melancholy result of the fight at Yangtsun. The casualty list was given in detail, with the additional information that the dead had been buried at Yangtsun and that the wounded had been sent back to the hospital at Tien Tsin. The reply of the United States government to China's overtures of peace shows that a firm and final position has been taken. A specific statement of what the United States expects as a condition precedent to a cessation of hostilities, is that a body of the relief force be permitted to "enter Pekin un-molested" and escort the ministers back to Tien Tsin. Exchanges between the various powers have been going on constantly, and as a result the officials have the satisfaction of knowing that the position of the United States had the approval and support of all the GENTLEMEN: -Our family realize so much from the use of GRAIN-O that I feel I must say a word to induce others to use it. I used them all, but GRAIN O I have found superior to any, for the reason that it is solid grain. Yours forhealth, C. F. Myers.

SWINDLERS.

There are some people who think the only kind of swindler is the lightning rod swindler and that they live far away. Why, bless your toes, we have them here just as bad and some a little worse. The following will give the reader an idea of some of their methods:

Mr. A. works one day for a farmer; the next day he goes to a store to see the shoes, etc.; he tells the dealer they are the best and cheapest he ever saw and as it is looking for rain, he would take a pair along and that he would pay for them the next day as he had a lot of money to get from the farmer for whom he was working. The dealer gives him the shoes; he is gone, and he never came back. Three years later the dealer asks him for the money, and he politely says that as soon as hair grows in the palm of his hand, he could pull them out. They never came out.

Mr. B. forgot his pocket book, but will pay for what he gets, the next day, but he never came back.

Mr. C. comes around with a forged order on some well-to-do farmer.

Now then who could blame the business men for organizing, putting the names of these swindlers on a black list and exchange these lists and positively refuse to sell to one of them before they are square on the books of all the other members of the organization? I am not speaking of those, who try to pay and cannot, but of those who could, but will not. HONOR.

The Post could add a few names to the black list and probably will ere long.—Editor Post.]
