United States Senator McComas, of Maryland, says a dispatch from Baltimore, has just returned from abroad. He called at the Republican state headquarters and after consultation with the party leaders seemed satisfied the Republicans would be successful this

He said the situation in Maryland was all that could be desired. He delared that Republican success in Maryland was assured.

In discussing his tour abroad, in connection with politics, Mr. McComas the pleasure of taking lunch with Lord Alverston, the master of the rolls and the probable successor to Lord Chief Justice Russell, several days ago in London. He said to me:

'Senator, what is imperialism? I ee that some of your papers are continually talking of imperialists and imperialism.

"I had to think for a minute or so, and then I said to him:

"'I can't tell you what an imperialist in our country is. I never saw one. I don't think there is a man in our country who is an imperialist by dispoition, utterance or aspiration. I think that with us the species is extinct." "The most ridiculous statement that I say that if Bryan is elected there will be a scant but inevitable majority of two Democrats in the senate and a very desided Democratic majorty in March, 1903. I should be very glad to believe that there would be a Republican majority in order to protect the country, but it is not so, and those who are are making this claim are misleading the people."

Arkansas' Democratic Majority. Little Rock, Sept. 4.—The entire Democratic ticket headed by Hon. Jeferson Davis, of Pope county, for govwnor, was elected in Arkansas yesterday. Early returns indicate that the vote will be lighter than was expected. H. L. Remmel, the Republican candidate for governor, made a good showing, and his increased vote over two years ago will probably reduce the usually large Democratic majority. LEAGUE MEN ARE ACTIVE

President J. Hampton Moore Issues His Final Call For the Great Gathering at Philadelphia on the 17th

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Sept. 4.-President J. Hampton Moore, of the State League of Republican clubs, has issued his final call for the state convention of the league, which will open in Philadelphia on the 17th inst, and continue the following day.

In his address to his fellow Repub-

Lockjaw, resulting from having all his licans President Moore says: death of Hugh Bradley, a brakeman, of Phoenixville.

In his address to his fellow licans President Moore says: "The Pennsylvania State L. Republican clubs, co-operation of the property o "The Pennsylvania State League of Republican clubs, co-operating with the national executive committee, will have the honor of firing the first gun for McKinley and Roosevelt at the convention to be held in Philadelphia Sept. 17 and 18.

"The occasion will be one of great interest, and will afford the Republican clubmen of the state a splendid opportunity of demonstrating their usefulness in a political campaign.

"At no time in its history has the PARIS, the most beautiful city in assistance of the strong fighting force the world, presents this year the of the State League been more welcome than in the great struggle which is now pending. There is need for the fire and enthusiasm of energetic leaguers in every city and hamlet of the state and nation. When the people are prosperous and contented they are apt to forget the dangers that beset them. They forget sometimes to 'lock the stable door until the horse is stolen.' In this campaign our matrial strength may prove our political weakness. Strange as it may seem, the greatest menace arises not alone from the confident feeling that the popularity of our candidates will carry the elections, but from the more significant and extraordinary sentiment that because the people are prosperous there should be none to want a change.

PROSPERITY EVERYWHERE. "The average American voter who gime are now employed; the great army of business and workingmen voters who demanded a change from retrogression to progress, and who, for four years, have been reaping the benefits of wise Republican legislation, are slow to believe that another and powerful army is marching steadily onward to overthrow the good that has been done and to selze the helm of governa. .... They are slow to believe that the candidates of the Republican party, who stand for all that has been prosperous and successful in our national development, and for all that has been valorous and heroic in our manhood, should be in danger of repudiation.

They have not yet come to realize that the restless army of Democracy, of Populism and of demoralization has stealthily advanced, gathering, here and there, the selfish and discontented, combining all for the grand attack in November upon the honor, integrity and prosperity of the country. They have not yet come to realize that the standard bearers of Republicanism stand violently assailed by the Boxer horde of the New World, with all its lack of reason and responsibility. FOR THE WHOLE TICKET.

"In this crisis the duty of the volunteer forces of the State League is plain. The men who man the polls should be up and doing. The people should be aroused to the importance of prompt and energetic action. They should b warned that defeat in the nation would be more disastrous to Pennsylvania than to any other state. They should be told of the necessity of carrying the state and electing our own standard bearers, E. B. Hardenbergh, auditor general, Robert H. Foerderer and Galusha A. Grow, congressmen-at-large, by tremendous majorities. They should be told of the warnings of both national and state chairmen against apathy fancled security and overconfidence; they should be told of the urgent efforts of the congressional committee at Washington to prevent the return of a majority of Democratic and Populistic members to hamper and harass a pros perity administration.
"They should be told that the leader of the opposition in this campaign has adopted a flank movement, which is pleasing to the anti-progressites of the east on the one side and to the silverites of the west on the other. They should be told he is fortifying his center by the organization of clubs-clubs on the hilltops, clubs in the valley, clubs everywhere-to catch the young and thoughtless voters and to undermine the Republican strongholds.

"These are among the reasons the Republican State League is welcomed into this contest. There is a fight to be fought which demands the energy and the enthusiasm of new recruits. It demands the organization of clubs in every county and township of the state. Old clubs are urged to help the new ones; to encourage young men in the work of organization and to stimulate efforts in untried localities. They are urged to see that Democracy and Populism shall not triumph through Republican default.

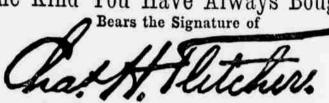

"Let the representation at the State League convention be large and convincing; let none be turned away who care to come. Every club qualifying for membership is entitled to three delegates and three alternates."

A special consideration to those who desire to attend the convention is the matter of transportation. A specia rate of one fare for the round trip from all points in Pennsylvania, good going from Sept. 15 to 17, returning, to Sept. 22, inclusive, has been secured. To ob-tain this reduced rate it will be neces-State League convention at the ticks office where purchase is made.
