

A Great Name

is a guarantee of superior worth

There are many brands of baking powders, but "Royal Baking Powder" is recognized at once as the brand of great name, the powder of highest favor and reputation. Everyone has absolute confidence in the food where Royal is used.

Pure and healthful food is a matter of vital importance to every individual.

Royal Baking Powder assures the finest and most wholesome food.

There are many imitation baking powders, made from alum, mostly sold cheap. Avoid them, as they make the food unwholesome.

BRYAN A TYRANT.

General Grosvenor on the Current Political Issues.

DEMOCRATS PULLED DOWN THE FLAG

Ohio Will Stand With the President at the Coming Election.

Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor, member of congress and one of the president's most intimate friends, says a special dispatch, was asked how he viewed the outlook in Ohio, and what he considered would be the majority for McKinley.

"I believe," answered Gen. Grosvenor, "that the majority for McKinley in Ohio will be very large, larger than it was four years ago, and I have reasons based upon observation and knowledge which justify that opinion."

"How do you think the congressional delegation will stand, and what will be the complexion of the house?"
"I think the congressional delegation will stand 16 Republicans to five Democrats, and probably it will be 17 Republicans to four Democrats. I have no reason to doubt that the house will be Republican."

IMPERIALISM A FRAUD.
"I believe that the diplomacy of the president and the state department in reference to the whole Chinese matter is one of the brightest chapters of American diplomacy or of the diplomacy of any civilized nation during modern years. It was so appreciated and talked about in Europe, in London, in Paris, in The Hague, in Brussels and everywhere on the continent."

"I would be willing to concede that Bryan had a better chance than McKinley to carry the states of Montana and Nevada, but I would not like to concede the electoral vote of either one of them without a contest. I do yield to Bryan the electoral vote in all the states in which the 'consent of the governed' is disregarded and manhood suffrage abolished by law.

"So far as my observation goes, I think that the people of this country receive the issue of imperialism as an infernal humbug and fraud and barefaced piece of slysterism. I do not believe that there is an intelligent man in the United States, unbiased by political prejudice or unaffected by past disappointments, who seriously believes that the United States is in danger of drifting away from the great landmarks of liberty, justice and equality which have always been the watchwords of the Republican party. I have seen no signs that the old fabric of liberty is crumbling."

THE SILVER ISSUE.
"The Germans are not disaffected, as far as has come under my observation. They believe in honesty, and therefore did not vote for Bryan and 50-cent dollars."

"The free silver issue, in general terms, is a fraud of the most conspicuous character. It is hid in the rubbish room of the Democratic party, ready to be brought out if the people can be cheated by ghosts and bogies into electing Bryan president. Its re-enactment in the Kansas City platform disgusted thousands of Democrats in Ohio.

"The Democratic party stands as a party of opposition to all that has made this country great and glorious. There is nothing in its whole history that it is not ashamed of except its long-time persistent adherence to the policy of expansion, and now the party is trying to blot out that little remnant of glory."

CONGRESSMAN GROSVENOR.

BRYAN A POOH BAH.
"General, what do you think of Mr. Bryan in the light of a man who decries bosses as applied to others, and emphasizes his own dominance in his party at stated intervals?"

"Mr. Bryan," answered Gen. Grosvenor, "is not a boss. He is a despot. He is a Pooh Bah. He is a high cockalorum. The sultan of Turkey is a mild mannered constitutional governor compared with Bryan. It would be flattery to call him a boss; he is a czar, a tyrant. He has no appreciation for anybody but himself; would not give a cent for the judgment of a whole national convention; rather have his own judgment than the judgment of his entire party."

"The sentiment of the people of my state favors constitutional and wise expansion. My views coincide with those of my constituents. The general question is not involved in the present issue. We did not seek for expansion; it came to us without our agency, and it is not a question now of indorsing what is past so much as it is the discharge of duty in the present."

PROSPERITY IS THE ISSUE.
"I think the president's course has been such as to commend itself to all right thinking people. I think he is the most popular man who was ever in the presidential chair. There is less division of opinion among Republicans than there was in regard to the second term of Abraham Lincoln, and he will receive thousands of votes from quiet men who have studied his character and admire him and who make no noise in political processions or political conventions."

"The reasons why prosperity is the dominant issue of the campaign are very simply told. The Democratic party destroyed the country by its presence and its action. The Republican party, by the fulfillment of its pledges, restored confidence and prosperity, and the only issue that is worth consideration is the issue of whether we will go back and experiment again with the virus that poisoned the laboring and commercial and financial conditions of the country or whether we will stand by what we have."

"As to trusts, the only party in the United States congress that ever did anything to overthrow trusts was the Republican party. The Democratic party has made noise enough to have frightened all the coyotes of the early prairie days on this question and have not lifted a finger to do anything. They are insincere in their outcry, as everybody knows who has read their record. Whatever good may come of legislation, which, in my judgment cannot be very great, will have to come from the Republican party."

DEMOCRATS OVERTHROW A REPUBLIC.
"Ohio is prosperous in common with the other states of the Union, and for the same reason."

"The Democratic doctrine of 'government by consent of the governed,' and all that, is mere verbiage and vox et praeterea nihil. The Democratic party is not living up to its doctrine, if it had any. In four of the states of the Union it has deliberately and professedly, by law, declared that a large minority, and indeed, in two or three states the majority shall have no voice in the government of the state whatever. They pulled down the American flag in Hawaii and put a king, or rather a black queen, on the throne and overthrew a republic, and now they are howling fiercely about the consent of the governed. It is a party of wonderful inconsistencies."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for our circulars, free.

BROSIOUS BROS.,

REALLY THE MOST RELIABLE CLOTHING HOUSE IN SUNBURY.

Mrs. Justwed—I gave that tramp a couple of the biscuits I cooked this morning.

Mr. Justwed—Then we must turn loose the dog to-night. The fellow will surely come back and try to burn the barn.—Judge.

Optional.
"Do you have to ask your wife for money?" flattered the little man with the hunted look in his eyes.
"Not on your life!" replied the large, brusque man. "But rather than go without I sometimes do!"—Detroit Journal.

He Would Not Agree.
"The reason I can't get along with my wife is that she wants to submit all our differences to arbitration."
"To arbitration?"
"Yes. She always wants to refer disputes to her mother."—Brooklyn Life.

Same Weakness.
Visitor—Why are you here, my man?
Convict—Same reason you are, mum. I'm a poor, sloppy, morbid, neurotic, half-baked degenerate.—Judge.

A Hard Job.
"I don't see how you ever managed to cut that boarding house turkey," said the fork to the knife.
"It was a rather tough job," replied the knife, "but I managed to keep my temper."—Harlem Life.

A Lingerist.
Romello—Mr. Trotter is a fine linguist.
Her Father—Yes. I noticed that he lingered last night very late.—Harlem Life.

Modern.
Jaggles—What did he mean by up-to-date sausages?
Waggles—Horseless frankfurters.—Town Topics.

Excellent Farm for Sale.

Wishing to quit farming, I am offering at private sale a most excellent farm containing 107 acres of rich farming land, 87 acres of which is clear and in a good state of cultivation. The balance is timber. On the land is a good large bank barn, excellent dwelling house, good size, all kinds of outbuildings in good repair, good cane molasses factory, good never-failing water near the house and in the fields for the stock, excellent apple orchard, abundance of peaches, cherries, pears, and all kinds of small fruit, such as black and red raspberries, grapes, currants, plums, etc.

The property is located convenient to church, store and postoffice along the public road and is a very prominent farm. We raise excellent grain and grass; have good fences and a fine location for a fish dam within sight of the house. The soil is good, deep and rich, no stones to bother with, no ditching necessary, no slate and we have an easy road to the river. We will also sell 20 acres which will make a small farm for some one who does not care for much land.

This farm was twice sold for $5,000 and is now offered at the very low rate of $2800. If it were not for the fact that I wish to discontinue farming, the farm would not be offered at so low a figure. A clear title can be given.
