

True Economy

The difference of cost between a good and a poor baking powder would not amount for a family's supply to one dollar a year. The poor powder would cost many times this in doctors' bills.

Royal Baking Powder may cost a little more per can, but it insures perfect, wholesome food. In fact, it is more economical in the end, because it goes further in leavening and never spoils the food.

Royal Baking Powder used always in making the biscuit and cake saves both health and money.

You cannot, if you value good health, afford to use cheap, low-grade, alum baking powders. They are apt to spoil the food; they do endanger the health. All physicians will tell you that alum in food is poisonous.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube gets inflamed it has a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH CURE. Send for circulars free.

THE OPENING GUN!

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN FORMALLY OPENED TUESDAY EVENING

Middleburgh Thronged With Old Snyder's
Sturdy Yeomanry

Prominent Political Personages Present

Town Taken by Storm to Digest the Logic of Eloquent and Able Orators

Tuesday was Republican day and the evening was Republican night. The voters of all shades of political faith turned out to hear the star orators of the campaign and to hear the issues fairly and squarely discussed. The four years of prosperity we are now enjoying is not to be turned down lightly for the gratification of Democratic office seekers. The idle workmen and motionless wheels of four years ago are not forgotten. The pangs of the hungry, the soup houses of the idle and the Cleveland patches still recall the dread horrors of Democratic misrule.

The Republican Standing Committee met in the court house at two o'clock and decided to hold a series of public meetings throughout the county. The places selected for meetings are McClure, Beavertown, Pennsereck, Richfield, Fremont, Freeburg, McKees Falls, Port Trevorton, Selinsgrove and Shamokin Dam. The dates for these meetings have not been selected. They will be decided by the chairman and the candidates. The committee made favorable reports from all parts of the county and they decided to make an active pushing campaign all over the county.

The public meeting was called to order in the evening, and A. W. Potter, Esq., of Selinsgrove, was elected President. The following were elected Vice Presidents:

Adams—J. M. Middleburgh, A. H. Swartz.

Beaver—Hon. S. A. Wetzel, Nathan Freese.

Beaver W.—Isaac Middleburgh, Wm. Heeter.

Centre—Peter Hartman, James M. Bingaman.

Chapman—W. A. Kerstetter, J. Kohler Peck.

Franklin—Irwin Graybill, Elias Minlum.

Jackson—B. F. Herman, Y. H. Wagner.

Monroe—Geo. S. Leffler, Benj. Hummel.

Middleburgh—Hon. G. A. Schoch, F. C. Bowersox.

Penn.—L. L. Luck, Hon. Chas. Miller.

Perry—Geo. F. Brosius, Isaac Spotts.

Perry W.—Daniel Maneval, John Whitely.

Spring—Jas. N. Keller, I. I. Manbeck.

Selinsgrove—W. E. Houseworth, Geo. C. Wagenseiler.

Union—Jeremiah Bogar, N. T. Dundore.

Washington—Jerry Charles, Dr. E. W. Tool.

The following secretaries were elected: Geo. W. Wagenseiler, A. M. Aurd, H. B. Moyer, P. Scott Ritter and Geo. M. Lombard.

It was discovered that in order to put all the people in a position to hear and understand, an overflow meeting was held. The Middleburgh Band played for the court house meeting and the Adamsburg Band for the Washington House meeting. Hon. B. K. Focht, Senator Landis and Congressman Mahon addressed the court house meeting and Mahon, Focht and Lombard the meeting on the square.

The speeches were animated, logical and impressive and the audiences enthusiastic for the whole Republican ticket. The meetings were a grand success and the brilliant opening of the campaign presages a series of most successful meetings throughout the county.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by the Middleburgh Drug Store.

REEDER HONORED STALWARTS PLEASED

Governor Stone's Appointment of the Northampton County Leader
Generally Commended.

REPUBLICANS ARE ACTIVE

President McKinley and National Chairman Hanna Are Co-operating
With the State Committee in the Campaign to Make Congressional Gains in Pennsylvania.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—From every county in the state come expressions of approval of the appointment of Gen. Frank Reeder as commissioner of banking by Governor Stone to succeed the late Col. Thomas J. Powers. Stalwart Republicans recognize this appointment as a timely recognition of a brave soldier, a staunch party man and a faithful and successful worker in the cause of Republicanism. Gen. Reeder's selection, of course, does not meet approval of the insurgents, whom he has been fighting since they entered upon their conspiracy against the regular Republican organization. He is naturally a fresh target for their vituperative abuse and slanderous editorial assaults. His record as a public spirited citizen of Pennsylvania cannot be detracted from by the malicious onslaughts of the yellow journals who are but part and parcel of the insurgent political machine.

Governor Stone has taken occasion to tell the public what he thinks of the subsidized newspapers that have been attacking everything Republican in this state for some years and he has shown that he is absolutely indifferent to their attacks.

Gen. Reeder is the recognized leader of Northampton county. He is a native of Easton, 55 years old, and at the outbreak of the war for the Union, at the age of 17, he enlisted in the Fifth Pennsylvania regiment, and when his term was ended he enlisted in the One Hundred and Seventy-fourth regiment, and was soon after made adjutant. In August, 1863, having recruited a company of cavalry, he took command and fought bravely until stricken down by a rifle ball.

At the battle of Nashville he displayed such prowess that he was brevetted major and lieutenant colonel at once. He was mustered out as colonel of his regiment in this city in June, 1865.

The new commissioner was graduated from Princeton and Albany Law school, and was for a time law partner of the late Chester A. Arthur.

In 1870 he returned to Easton and established a law firm with his brother, the late Judge Howard Reeder. He was department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1872, and in 1874 was appointed brigadier general of the National Guard. He was chairman of the Republican state committee in 1892, he was the party field marshal in the canvass which resulted in the election of Col. Barnett as state treasurer, and is at present at the head of the Republican organization in the state.

STALWARTS QUITE ACTIVE.

Great preparations are being made by the Republican leaders of this city to poll a large vote for McKinley and Roosevelt and the whole Republican ticket. The payment of over $30,000 by the Republican city campaign committee for poll tax, to qualify Republican voters for the coming election, is an evidence of what the party leaders are doing. This expenditure of cash means that 60,000 Republican voters are qualified, besides the thousands for whom receipts were procured within the last two years and whose receipts hold good until after the next election.

Meetings are being held in every ward and district almost nightly, and there are indications that this city will give one of the largest Republican majorities ever recorded. The insurgents are not contributing a single dollar to the campaign fund, but are in league with the local Democrats to help elect a fusion ticket which has on it the name of one Wanamaker Republican and one Democrat. This combination will be snowed under by many thousands of votes in November. The stalwarts are also working to elect a Republican congressman from the Third district, which is now represented by a Democrat, McAleer, who is backed by the insurgents. The regular Republican nominee is reasonably sure of being elected.

Local Republicans are interested in the plans of the Republican state committee for the closing days of the state campaign. There are busy scenes at the state headquarters, where Gen. Reeder and his staff frequently remain until after midnight dispatching correspondence and arranging for meetings and sending speakers out to the various counties.

MCKINLEY WILL HELP.

Senator Penrose has just returned from a visit to Canton, where he had a very satisfactory conference with President McKinley. He found the president somewhat alarmed about the situation as far as the election of a Republican house is concerned, and he assured Senator Penrose that Gen. Reeder and his colleagues in the Republican state committee will have the hearty co-operation of the members of his administration in the effort to carry the state by a large majority, and thus insure gains in the congressional delegation. Senator Penrose also had conferences with Chairman Hanna and the members of the executive committee of the Republican national committee. Senator Hanna has already gotten every bureau of the national committee in touch with the Republican state committee in this city. They have all concluded that it will be easier to make Republican gains in this state than where the Bryanites hope to win elections. In New York and Pennsylvania the Republican national leaders propose to make their most determined battles for the election of Republican congressmen. They will discourage fusion everywhere and call upon stalwart Republicans to vote for the full party ticket.
