IMPERIALISM

This is declared by Mr. Bryan and other Democratic leaders to be the "paramount issue." In other words, it the best and most important reason ous administration this country has ever known should be turned out, and The pall bearers were Benj. Stettler, why they who have no record but as Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Heiser wish Samuel Sampsel, S. S. Maurer and politicians should be placed in control of the stupendous interests of this country. The term "Imperialism," as used by Mr. Bryan in application to the present administration, has reference to the uses to which the military power of the government has been put during President McKinley's administration. What are those uses?

In 1898 war was declared against Spain by unanimous vote of the conmost genial and accommodating gress of the United States; and remember by "congress" is meant both Democratic and Republican representatives in the house and in the senate. The Republican administration did not, of course, and could not declare war; but under the constitution, which yest, the power to declare war in congr the duty of making war, whe clared, is imposed on the pr and his cabinet, and he must of mandate of congress. All the knows the success with which the publican administration carried through the war which drove Spain from the American continent.

Mr. Bryan came forward then as a patriot and asked for and was appoint-ed colonel of a regiment, ready to take his full share of the responsibility in this first step toward what he now misnames "Imperialism." We say first Let us look at the second and step. chief step and his part therein, for it is the basis on which his cry of "Imperialism" must rest, if it has any basis at all.

When the Spanish war was brought to its brilliant conclusion it was the same almost unanimous congress, Democrats and Republicans, who instructed for the terms of peace with Spain and which ratified all the peace conditions, including the taking over of the Philippine islands; and again, under the consitution, the president of the United States had no recourse but to can people and dishonors the men who carry out the terms of this peace Congress has never recalled treaty that instruction to the president, and he has no alternative but to proceed with his duty, until congress declares for some other line of action. Where did Mr. Bryan stand at the time this treaty of peace was being considered by congress? He made a special trip to Washington and did all in his power to have the treaty ratified. If it was right then it must be right now; and it is right now, and no man knows this better than Mr. Bryan. Let Mr. Bryan answer why he is so greatly moved by the alleged wrongs of the colored race in the Philippines, 7,000 miles away, yet dare not raise his voice in defense of millions of color-d American citizens here at home in the southern states, who are refused their rights of cleizenship? Thus it appears that it is the congress of the United States, Democrats and Republicans and notably Mr. Bryan as far as it was in his power, who are responsible for this thing he now calls "Imperialism," and not President McKinley, and not his cabinet, except as they did their duty under the constitution, which they had sworn to perform. In brief, the "paramount issue" is spurious and is no reason at all. It means false politics, even as an-other Democratic "issue," "free silves," means false money; and Mr. Bryan knows that both are spurious.

bank, has no escape but to accept the 40 cent dollar for his pay.

This is but one of the iniquitout workings of free coinage, a new form of robbery which Mr. Bryan proposed to legalize.

TRUSTS

The important point to remember that all existing trusts are the creation of state governments, not in any case of the federal government. Democracy's time honored claim is, and always has been, state sovereignty-the right of each state to enact such laws as # wills, as within its own borders, without any interference from the federal government, and it is an open question whether the federal government can forbid any state the right to give spal existence to corporate bodies known as trusts. There was one combination which the federal government was able to reach, because it came under the head of "Interstate Commerce," namely, that of the railway commutes. That combination has been destroyed under federal legislation, given effect to by the decisions of the United States supreme court, that same high court of justice in the land which Mr. Bryan declares must be discontinued.

Trusts as now met with have come into existence during the last six or eight years, and in every case by state creation. Did the Democratic government of Mr. Cleveland do anything to control them? The most active agitation against trusts has been during the last two years. During these two years the Republican government has been occupied with many great national and international questions. Neverthei during the last session of congress the Republicans endeavored to pairs a constitutional amendment to make possible federal legislation for the tiation of trusts, and that effort w dittfeated by the Democratic. Th 8 truth beyond contradiction, an victs the Democracy of the groe inconsistency, if not of a worse off-111141

As the matter stands today 1007 ties have promised legislation on this subject. The pledge of the Republican party is backed by the attempt mode in the last congress, as already stuted. The pledge of the Democracy is branded by their action in defeating the effort so made. This "issue 17 MIL 18 against the Republican administration, is another makeshift, outery co ved in untruth and signifying only the dire necessities of a party without conscience and hungry for the spoils of office.

These three are the chief "issues" on which Democracy is demanding the control of the government. Indeed, bey are the only reasons (?) they prewhy an administration which has linking man knows that Mr. Etc. t taik about a desire on the part Bryan. of President McKinley to become a "dictator" and "emperor" is the stupidest nonsense. Politicians said this of the martyred president, Abraham Lincoln, when, after the war, he had 400,000 men at his command, for there always have been and always will be politicians who will villify the most righteous.

Today, with a population of 78,000,-000, there is in existence a United States army of about 80,000 men, chiefly volunteers on a limited term of service-men of a stock not made for military despotisms. Such talk is an in-sult to the intelligence of the Amerlutter it.

FREE SILVER

Let it be remembered that the correct term is "free coinage of silver." There can be no such thing as "free silver.

Mr. Bryan forced the "free silver" 16 to 1 plank of 1896 on the Kanica City convention.

In all his campaigning speeches he remains shent on this question, except occasionally, where he is forced to speak out. One of his most recent utterances on the subject was in Septemher last. He then said on this question: "I stand today where I stood in 1896." We all know where that is \rightarrow
