

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Makes hot breakfast-breads wholesome—no yeast germs, no alum. Makes cake, biscuit and pastry of superior fineness, flavor and delicacy. Makes food that will keep moist and sweet. Is most economical, because it is the purest and greatest in leavening strength. In the easy, expeditious preparation of the finer cakes and pastries, Royal is indispensable.

Care must be taken to avoid baking powders made from alum. Such powders are sold cheap, because they cost but a few cents per pound. Not only will they spoil the cake, but alum is a corrosive acid, which taken in food means injury to health.

"We must gain congressmen in Pennsylvania," declared Senator Hanna emphatically, "and we must do everything possible to help the party organization in the state get out the full vote."

Chairman Hanna assigned former Congressman John S. Wise, of Virginia, one of the strongest orators on the list at the national committee headquarters, and Col. Fairless, another gifted orator from Virginia, to accompany Col. Quay's party on the tour of Pennsylvania.

Other speakers will be assigned to meetings to be held in the several contested congressional districts in this state.

INSURGENTS WITHOUT HOPE.

While the insurgent Republicans of the Martin-Flinn combination are preparing to make one last rally to round up their forces before the election there is every reason to believe that they are very much disheartened and fear that they will make a sorry showing at the election. Martin has practically given up hope of doing anything for the insurgent movement in this city. He cannot defeat a single Republican candidate for the legislature, either with a straight Democratic candidate or in a fusion deal with one Democrat and one Republican.

This fact is known to his fellow insurgents in the state. While they will keep up a beating of the tom-toms, because there is nothing else for them to do, those who know the true situation realize that there is nothing for them to expect out of the present campaign.

The repeated announcements that John Wanamaker is to take the stump for the fusion ticket are hailed with delight by the stalwart Republican leaders. They want him to go into every county where there is a fusion combine on the legislature. They feel that his speeches will have about the same effect as they had in the campaigns against the election of Governor Stone and against the election of Col. James E. Barnett, of the Tenth regiment, for state treasurer. Wanamaker is not popular in this city, and it is not likely that it will be any more so in the state than heretofore.

Disappointed and disgruntled millionaires have discovered that the Republicans of the Keystone state do not recognize money as the sole qualification for party leadership nor for official honors.

Mr. Wanamaker has been conspicuously lacking in party services, except when he has an ax of his own to grind, and his attempts to disrupt the Republican organization of this state have thus far signally failed of their purpose.

The presence of Col. Guffey here last week with the Martin-Flinn outfit drew attention to the crafty game this Democratic politician is playing.

He has made all sorts of deals with the insurgents for the defeat of Republican candidates for the legislature, and at the same time he is taking advantage of the dissensions which he has thus nourished in the Republican organization to help elect Democrats to congress. He is working for all he is worth for the election of McAleer, a Democrat, to congress from this city, and he has the active support of the David Martin organization, or at least so much of it as Martin can control.

Tired

that's all. No energy, no vim, no vigor, no ambition. The head aches, thoughts are confused, memory fails. Life becomes a round of work but half accomplished, of eating that does not nourish, of sleep that fails to refresh and of resting that never rests. That's the beginning of nervous prostration.

"I was very nervous and so tired and exhausted that I could not do my work. One dose of Dr. Miles' Nervine quieted my nerves and drove away the lassitude. Seven bottles did wonders in restoring my health."
Mrs. M. E. Lacy, Fortville, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

strengthens the worn-out nerves, refreshes the tired brain and restores health. Sold by druggists on guarantee. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE CHOIR CELESTIAL.

One of the Greatest Musical Compositions Free to All.

There is always a demand for a great sacred song. "The Palms," "The Holy City" and others have been sung by thousands. Next Sunday, September 21, "The Philadelphia Press" will give free to its readers Arthur Trevelyan's magnificent "Choir Celestial," one of the most beautiful songs ever written. This supplement is in regular sheet music size, ready to be placed on the music rack. It has a superbly ornamental frontispiece in six colors, which is beautiful enough to frame. Frankly, this is the finest piece of sheet music, both as to appearance and quality of the composition, ever given away to the public and it is yours, absolutely free, with next Sunday's "Press." It will be well to order next Sunday's "Press" in advance.

Martin, however, finds that he cannot command many of his former followers, who say they propose to go along with the Republican organization and help elect Henry Burk, the Republican nominee for congress against McAleer.

The insurgents find that they will cut a small figure in this district, as not only will Mr. Burk be elected, but every Republican candidate for state representative, as well as the state senator, will be elected also. PATTISON FOR BRYAN AND FUSION.

Up in the Sibley district the insurgents are working with Emery, who is running on the Democratic ticket for congress, and former Governor Pattison, who has been stumping for Bryan in the doubtful states, has been sent up to Sibley's district to help the insurgents elect Emery to congress and defeat the Republican candidates for the legislature. Emery supported Pattison when he ran for governor, and Pattison is now returning the favor. Sibley, the regular Republican candidate for congress in this district, is going to win, and win by a large majority.

CAMPAIGN COMMENT.

Crisp and Timely Chat of the Presidential Canvass.

Bryanism on the Wane and McKinley and the Republican Party Looming Up as Certain Winners.

Things are coming our way.

A short day is better than a short dollar.—William McKinley.

The vote of next November will decide the length of the war in the Philippines.

Mr. Bryan's speech at the full dinner pail will not efface the memory of the workmen.

The Democratic party is consistent in that it is keeping up its record for inconsistency.

Wear the Flag.

Mr. Bryan will omit all allusions to the Tammany ice trust during his campaign tour of New York.

The drift of public sentiment is growing stronger every day in favor of the Republican party.

The Hon. George Fred Williams declines to permit some of the gold Democrats to return to the party.

Those who uphold law and order wear the Flag.

The Republican party is the party that performs. The Democratic party is the party that promises only.

Currency is now going west and south to move the crops. Never before did it have such a job of moving to perform.

Fly the Flag.

Senator Wellington goes away from home to do his campaigning. By this move he manages to escape some of the wrath of his constituents.

The difference between Bryanism and Democracy is the difference between politics in its worst sense and statesmanship in its historical significance.

Bryan despairs of the future of the country because the voters insist on permitting business to influence their politics, and yet he himself has grown wealthy by making politics his business.

It is safe to predict that free silver will never again find place in a Democratic platform, but it will take the party a long time to overcome the stigma of having adopted such a financial heresy.

Don't haul down the Flag.

Mr. Bryan fears that the full dinner pail may not last through the campaign. It is sure to do that, but it will be empty pretty soon after election, if, by any unexpected accident, he should be elected.

The settlement of the differences between the steel workers and their employers is a serious blow to the Democratic managers. A campaign which depends upon business depression is naturally fragile and sensitive.

Those who uphold law and order wear the Flag.

A multiplicity of paramount issues has not been productive of harmony in the Democratic household. Even those who desire to follow their leaders have had to "about face" so often that they cannot for the life of them tell whether they are coming or going.

After the November elections the gold Democrats will be in position to say "I told you so," and it will be their turn to dictate the conditions for restoration to membership for those who abandoned the worship of the true principles of Democracy for the privilege of dancing around the silver calf.

The Democratic papers print with ghoulish glee every piece of news calculated to show with more or less accuracy that the Filipinos are rising everywhere and killing the soldier boys of the United States. But they forget to add that the responsibility for it rests with some of the Democrats.

In 1895, under Democratic administration, our favorable trade balance was $75,568,200. During the last three years, under the Republican policy of expansion in the world's markets, our valuable trade balance has averaged more than $555,000,000 each year. This means more work for the mills and more work for American labor.

Be sure to read the new story, "Malcom Kirk," now appearing in the Post.

Excellent Farm for Sale.

Wishing to quit farming, I am offering at private sale a most excellent farm containing 107 acres of rich farming land, 87 acres of which is clear and in a good state of cultivation. The balance is timber. On the land is a good large bank barn, excellent dwelling house, good size, all kinds of outbuildings in good repair, good cane molasses factory, good never-falling water near the house and in the fields for the stock, excellent apple orchard, abundance of peaches, cherries, pears, and all kinds of small fruit, such as black and red raspberries, grapes, currants, plums, etc.

The property is located convenient to church, store and postoffice along the public road and is a very prominent farm. We raise excellent grain and grass; have good fences and a fine location for a fish dam within sight of the house. The soil is good, deep and rich, no stones to bother with, no ditching necessary, no slate and we have an easy road to the river. We will also sell 20 acres which will make a small farm for some one who does not care for much land.

This farm was twice sold for $5,000 and is now offered at the very low rate of $2800. If it were not for the fact that I wish to discontinue farming, the farm would not be offered at so low a figure. A clear title can be given.
