WEDDING BELLS

Sunday forenoon, Oct. 21, 1900, one of the most notable weddings of the season took place at Port Treverton, the contracting parties being Victor E. Bogar and Miss Dollie Swineford. The ceremony was performed by J. Kohler Peck at Mohantongo.

The groom is the promising young son of Jeremiah Bogar and a brother of our most enterprising business man, John D. Bogar.

The bride is the handsome young daughter of Amandus Swineford, of the National Hotel.

The father of the bride was so elated over the choice of his daughter for a future companion that he had a sumptuous repast prepared and invited all the relatives of the contracting parties to partake of it.

Attorney Geo. Long Dead. George Long, Esq., of Selingsgrove, one of the young attorneys of the Snyder County bar, died at Selingsgrove Sunday, Oct. 21st, of typhoid fever, leaving a wife and two small children.

For a number of years he taught school in this county, read law with Charles Hower and was admitted to the bar. He won a reputation as a pension attorney and not long ago was elected justice of the peace. The funeral took place Wednesday morning.

A LIE NAILED

To the Voters of Snyder County. The report circulated through Snyder County that I have entered into a political trade in my interest is absolutely false. I am no political horse trader, but a straight Republican and will stand or fall with the whole ticket, from McKinley, Mahon, Dr. Smith and the rest in Snyder, and the Republican candidates in Union and Northumber-land counties.

While the pulpit may look for all sorts of falsehoods and nonsensical stories during campaign season, yet I cannot believe that any one will swallow anything so unlikely as this most recent fabrication. Nevertheless, I herewith make denial, and call upon all my friends in all the counties of the district to rebuke the falsehood by stand-ing by and voting for every candidate on the Republican ticket.

Yours for Republicanism and prosper-ity. BENJ. K. FOCHT, Lewisburg, Pa., Oct. 22, 1900.

The Companion for the Rest of 1900.

Every issue of the "Youth's Compan-ion" for the nine week of November and December will be enlarged, and the Holiday Numbers will be double the usual size, with richly decorated covers. From now until the end of the year the "Companion" will be crowded with articles and stories sufficiently varied to please every taste in both old and young—men and women, boys and girls.

Among the contributions announced for early issues are "How I Acted the Missionary," by Sir Henry Stanley; "With the Pretoria Guard," by Rider Haggard; "A Historic Game of Foot-ball," by Walter Camp; "Horse Sense," by Frank R. Stockton; "Pulpit Elo-quence," by Dean Farrar; "Days of Long Ago," by Ian Maclaren; and "A Baritone Among Famous People," by Victor Mauret; in addition to which there will be serial and short stories by Margaret Deland, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward, Bliss Perry, Charles W. Chesnut and other writers of deligh-ful fiction.

Those who subscribe now for 1901 will receive the "Companion" for the remaining weeks of 1900 free from the time subscription, in addition to the "Puritan Girl" Calendar for 1901, lithographed in 12 colors from exquisite designs painted expressly for the "Companion."

Illustrated Announcement of the volume 1901 will be sent free to any ad-dress, with sample copies of the paper.

JOHN THOMAS KILLED.

A Citizen of Penn Township instantly Killed near Lewisburg.

Lewisburg Journal. John Thomas, an itinerant musician whose home was among the mountains about three miles from Vicksburg, was almost instantly killed on the Reading road about two miles above Lewisburg, on Tuesday morning, by being struck by the engine hauling the passenger train leaving Lewisburg at 8:50.

Thomas eked out a precarious exist-ence by traveling over this and adjoining counties with an autoharp, accept-ing the offerings from those who were disposed to help him along. He was in Lewisburg on Monday night and Tues-day morning he headed for other climes, taking a route along the tracks of the Reading.

Above Lewisburg he sat down on the rail, and apparently fell asleep. He took no notice of the whistle of the locomotive and the engineer could not bring the train to a stop. The man was struck by the pilot and his body was thrown fifty feet, landing close aside of the track. The train was stopped as quickly as possible, but Thomas was dead when picked up. His skull was broken open laying bare the brains. His shoulder was broken, and he had other bruises. The body was brought to Lewisburg and taken to the under-taking establishment of Hower & Son. An inquest was held and a verdict was rendered accordingly. No blame was attached to the train's crew.

Thomas was a soldier in the civil war and enlisted when he was only fifteen years old, and was drawing a pension. He was aged about 54 years and leaves a wife.

When you have no appetite, do you relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at the Middleburgh Drug Store.

MARRIED.

Oct. 18, at Beaver Springs, by Rev. I. P. Zimmerman, Warren L. Ulsh, of Middlecreek, to M. Grace Mattiern, of Beaver Springs.

Oct. 16, on Sugar Street, Middleburg, by Rev. Wm. H. Boyer, Charles E. Hummel and Miss Nettie Reich.

Senatorial Sitings.

From the Mt. Carmel News, Oct. 16.

Hon. Benjamin K. Focht, our candi-date for State Senator, is making an impressive and winning canvass for election. Mr. Focht has spent three terms in the lower house at Harrisburg and is entirely familiar with the work of both branches. He is by nature and by education admirably fitted for the place; his ripe experience in this line of work will make him a valuable legis-lator and his manifest learning to the common people's interest will make him a very popular candidate in these trying times.

Mr. Focht has always been popular among the working men in his own county and his fame is spreading to the other counties in the district.

Brown a Prohibitionist in 1898.

From the Millinburg Telegraph. Brown duped and cheated the people once under the title, "Prohibition." He won't do it again, not even under the title, "Honest Ballot." Stealing that sort of livery will not save him. All honorable and honest men will put their stamp of disapproval upon his tactics on November 6th. He can't be trusted, deserves to be beaten and will get it good in the shape of a sound dubbing on election day.

A New remedy for biliousness is now on sale at the Middleburgh Drug Store.

It is called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the at-tack if given as soon as the first in-dication of the disease appears. Price, 25 cents per box. Samples free.

Mail Carrying Bids Wanted.

Bids for carrying mails on the fol-lowing star routes in Snyder county are being advertised for by the post-of-fice department for the coming four years, commencing July 1, 1901. In this list the former contract price is given, with the price at which it was sublet:

Table with columns: Contract, Sub-Contract, Route Name, Price. Includes routes like Hannersville to McClure, Middleville to Beaver Springs, etc.

Bids must be submitted to the post-of-fice department at Washington before Dec. 4, 1900.

No bid will be considered unless the bidder resides on or contiguous to the route on which the service is to be performed, or agrees to so reside, and gives his personal supervision to the performance of the service.

Bidders are requested to use the printed proposals furnished by the depart-ment.

Bidders should state in their propos-als the service bid for strictly accord-ing to the advertisement, regardless of any changes made in the present ser-vice.

The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and address of the bidder (that is his usual postoffice address) and the name of each member of a firm, where a company bids, should be dis-tinctly stated.

Every proposal must be accompanied by a bond with two or more sureties approved by a postmaster, and in cases where the amount of the bond exceeds ($5,000,) by a postmaster of the first, second or third class.

In addition to carrying the mails to the various postoffices on the star routes the carrier on each route (except where otherwise specifically stated) will be also required to deliver mail into all boxes that may be erected along the route, under the following conditions:

Any person living on or near any star route herein described, and not within the corporate limits of any town or within 50 rods of any post-of-fice, who desires his mail deposited in a box on the line of the route by the carrier on said route may provide and erect a suitable box on the roadside, located in such manner as to be reached as conveniently as practicable by the carrier, and such person shall file with the postmaster at the post-office to which his mail is addressed (which shall be one of the two postoffices on the route on either side of and next to the box) a request in writing for the delivery of mail to the carrier on the route for deposit in said box, at the risk of address.

The postmaster at such postoffice re-ceiving such request or order shall de-liver the mail for such box to the car-rier, who shall deposit it therein with-out charge to the addressee.

The mail carriers must be able to write the English language and be of sufficient intelligence to properly han-dle and deposit the mail for boxes al-long the routes.

All blanks and particulars may be obtained by writing to the Second As-sistant Postmaster General, Washing-ton, D. C.

When you cannot sleep for cough-ing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by the Middleburgh Drug Store.

We are executing some of the finest job printing that has ever been seen in Central Pennsylvania.

"For three days and nights I suf-fered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centreville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no pur-pose. I sent for a bottle of Cham-berlain's Colic, Cholera and Diar-rhoea Remedy and three doses re-lieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by the Middleburgh Drug Store.
