

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY

PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

SHREINER.

(Crowded out last week.)

The revival meeting at this place is progressing very nicely.

Jerry Bowen and wife were visitors of John Cochran Sunday.

Miss Lydia Hummel will leave this place Tuesday for Sunbury.

Robert Leshar is going to put an addition to his cellar so he has room for his potato crop.

The revival meeting was largely attended on Sunday evening. Rev. Shambach could not be there, so Rev. Jarret filled the pulpit and preached a very commendable sermon.

Rev. Jarret preached a sermon at Shreiner's Evangelical church Saturday evening.

Robert Leshar, the potato farmer, aged 83 years, was picking potatoes and sat on the ground half an hour at a time to rest.

Farmer Long has commenced to plough for the fall seeding and is going to commence to cut his corn before the squirrels carry it all away.

MIDDLESWARTH.

(Crowded out last week.)

Some of our farmers have finished husking corn.

TROXELVILLE.

The people are all well at this writing, the first since April.

Our mail was flooded with papers urging the people to vote for all sorts of candidates. Even Hon. B. K. Focht was raked. I don't see how else we could vote. A Democratic State Senator would help us to a Democratic United States Senator.

On Sunday last Rev. G. W. Fritch, of Susquehanna University, preached a full-fledged German sermon in the Lutheran church of Troxelville. Our old German people were very much pleased and pronounced it an excellent sermon. It seemed to fire up the sparks of flame to a blazing flame of Christian life.

Prof. E. F. Dunlavy, a great reader and impersonator, will give an elocutionary entertainment in the St. Luke's Lutheran church of Troxelville, Saturday evening, November 17th. This will be something new and everybody ought to come and hear this man. He comes highly recommended by Byron W. King and others. Young men and young girls as well as old people ought not to miss him. It cannot be compared with these little shows that come around here. This is good for your children to see and hear.

Prof. Bowersox and family, of Middleburgh, spent Saturday night with Nathan Shambach and family. Mr. Bowersox delivered an address at the Republican mass meeting Saturday evening.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by the Middleburgh Drug Co.

UNION TOWNSHIP.

Enoch Aucker will soon start housekeeping with his young wife.

Mrs. Chas. Spangler, of Bethlehem, spent last week among friends here.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, 170 years old, has always been subject to cough, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the cough symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded cough is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by the Middleburgh Drug Co.
