The shoe factory has orders now for $3500 worth of shoes. It appears as though our initial industry is moving on in the commercial world. Five of the lasters walked out of the factory in the midst of the rush and the managers seem to have come to the conclusion that it is better not to depend upon the home lasters.

The Winfield correspondent of the New Berlin Reporter last week says: "B. W. Yoder, one of Middleburg's enterprising young men, passed through our town Saturday en route to Blue Hill, where he transacted business relative to getting a mistress to manage a telephone which he contemplates putting in his house in the near future. He returned on Sunday. We cannot vouch as to his success."

Lucy Bowersox. Mrs. David Bowersox died at the home of her son, James, in this borough Monday morning, aged 73 years, 7 months and 28 days. The cause of death was dropsy of the heart. She was a highly respected Christian lady and is survived by a husband, six sons and two daughters. Funeral takes place Thursday at 12 o'clock. Interment at Centerville.

Not a Political Meeting. During the Presidential Campaign Supt. Bowersox made a great many political speeches and he became so accustomed to opening his speeches with "My Fellow citizens" that when he made an address at the dedication of the Smithgrove church, he addressed the congregation with "My Fellow Citizens."

A Happy Event

One of the social events of the season was the marriage at high noon Thursday, November 15, of Miss Laura Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, to Dr. Keiter of Elizabethville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Shambaeh, Pastor of the United Evangelical church of Middleburg. In the parlor of the bride's parents which was tastefully decorated with Chrysanthemums.

The bride received some very beautiful and valuable presents. Among those present, we recall the following:

Elizabethville, Miss Agnes Bonawitz, Albert Smith, editor of the Elizabethville Echo, Williamstown, Miss Keiter, Harrisburg, Mrs. McElhenny, Johnsonburg, Pa., Clement Smith, Middleburg, Frank Reigle, wife and daughter, E. C. Graybill and wife Herman Hassinger and wife, Mrs. Joseph Clelan, Mrs. Jacob Gilbert and son, Francis, Miss Gertrude Dunkelberger, Miss Claire Graybill, and Mrs. Rev. Shambaeh. After the couple was pronounced husband and wife, the hearty congratulations and best wishes of their friends were showered upon them. The guests were then ushered into the dining room to partake of the tempting repast set before them which was prepared by ladies skilled in the art of preparing feasts for such occasions. At 4:30, Dr. and Mrs. Keiter took their departure for Elizabethville, which will be their future home.

A GUEST.

The Iri R. Hicks 1901 Almanac

Whatever may be said of the scientific causes upon which the Rev. Iri R. Hicks bases his yearly forecasts of storm and weather, it is a remarkable fact that specific warnings of every great storm, flood, cold wave and drought, have been plainly printed in his now famous Almanac for many years. The latest startling proof of this fact was the destruction of Galveston, Texas, on the very day named by Prof. Hicks in his 1900 Almanac, as one of disaster by storm along the Gulf coasts. The 1901 Almanac, by far the finest, most complete and beautiful yet published, is now ready. This remarkable book of near two hundred pages, splendidly illustrated with charts and half-tone engravings, goes as a premium to every subscriber who pays one dollar a year for Prof. Hicks' journal, WORD AND WORKS. The Almanac alone is sent prepaid for only 25c. Order from WORD AND WORKS Publishing Company, 2201 Loanst Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Smith-Keiter Wedding

Elizabethville Echo: Yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jasp. P. Smith, at Middleburg, Pa., occurred the marriage of their daughter Laura, to Dr. Clinton F. Keiter, both of this place.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joshua Schambaeh, pastor of the Evangelical church, Middleburg, in the presence of only the immediate families and a few invited friends. Miss Claire Graybill, of Middleburg, played the wedding march, and Miss Mildred Smith was flower girl. After the congratulations a wedding dinner was served. The presents were numerous and handsome.

The couple will make their home at Elizabethville and will commence housekeeping in the near future.

Next week is Teachers' Institute.

A Brilliant Reception

Lewistown Sentinel.

The generous hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Greene was enjoyed by a congenial assemblage of guests at their spacious and elegant home on Third street on Thursday evening, the occasion being a reception given upon the return of their son Edward M. Greene and his bride from their eastern wedding trip. There was a large attendance of Lewistown people and a number of friends from Philadelphia, Huntingdon county, Middleburg and other places. The social entertainment of the occasion was enhanced with choice music, and the refreshments, served by a Philadelphia caterer, were of unsurpassed excellence. In all it was the most brilliant social event Lewistown has known for years and again established Mr. and Mrs. Greene and their daughters as entertainers par excellence.

Musical Entertainment.

The Rogers-Grilley Co. will give a musical entertainment at the Court House at the Teachers' Institute, Wednesday, Nov. 27th. Read the following press comment:

The Rogers-Grilley Recital at the Opera House last night was an altogether delightful affair, and we doubt if there was one of the large audience present who was not charmed with the character of the entertainment. Ashland has seldom, if ever, been favored with two more delightful entertainers than Messrs. Rogers and Grilley, and they will be cheerfully welcomed again.—Ashland (Pa.) Evening Telegram.

W. I. Swoope.

Hon. W. I. Swoope will lecture at the Teachers' Institute Tuesday evening. Below we give a few testimonials:

Mr. W. I. Swoope is a remarkably brilliant and eloquent young man, and there are few speakers who are his equal.—THE ALLENTOWN (PA.) LEADER.

Mr. Swoope made an eloquent and witty address, and was applauded to the echo.—LEBANON (PA.) DAILY NEWS.

Calendars for 1901.

Those who wish to get out a nice calendar for 1901 should call at the Post printing office to see the magnificent line of most handsome calendars. No more beautiful calendars were ever exhibited in this county. Give your patrons a neat calendar; they will hang it in their homes and stand as an advertisement of your business during the whole year. Place your order early.

Personally Conducted Tours via Pennsylvania Railroad

SEASON OF 1900-1901

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces the following Personally-Conducted Tours for the season of 1900-1901:

California.—A thirty-five-day tour will leave New York, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburg February 14. The party will travel over the entire route by the "Golden Gate Special," the finest train that crosses the continent.

Florida.—Three tours to Jacksonville will leave New York and Philadelphia February 5 and 9, and March 5. The first two of these admit of a sojourn of two weeks in the "Flowerly State." Tickets for the third tour will be good to return by regular trains until May 31, 1901.

Tickets for the above tours will be sold from all principal points on the Pennsylvania Railroad. For detailed itineraries, giving rates and full information, address Thos. E. Watt, Passenger Agent Western District, Pittsburg; B. Courlander, Jr., Passenger Agent Baltimore; C. Studds, Passenger Agent Southeastern District, Washington; or Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia.

Snyder Losses

The figures on the census of Snyder county were given out Monday at Washington and they show a decrease of 347, as the following figures show:

Population,	1890	17,651
	1900	17,304
Loss,		347

Sunday was an ideal autumn day.

Teachers' Institute

The forty-third annual teachers institute will meet in the court room, Middleburg, Pa., at 11 o'clock a. m. The complete list of day instructors are the following:

Drs. C. W. Heisler, Theo. B. Noss, W. W. Dentrick; Geo. G. Groff, Hon. W. D. Groff, Hon. J. D. Stewart, Prof. Lee Francis Lybarger and E. F. Dunlavy.

Monday evening, November 26, 1900, Dr. C. W. Heisler will deliver his excellent lecture, entitled: "Uncle Sam and the Twentieth Century." Our people have learned to know that the Doctor is one of the most polished and eloquent lecturers in the state, hence an enjoyable and profitable time can be expected.

Tuesday evening, November 27, 1900, Hon. W. I. Swoope will deliver his famous lecture, "The Right to Kick." It has been my pleasure to hear Mr. Swoope on a number of occasions and to say that he always entertained is putting it very mildly.

Wednesday evening, November 28, Messrs. Rodgers & Grilley will delight our people with one of their unique entertainments. Our neighboring town, Millintown, must enjoy them else they would not appear before the Juniata Institute two weeks in succession.

Thursday evening, November 29, 1900, Dr. Thomas H. Dinmore, Jr., will deliver his delightful lecture, entitled: "A Wonderful Structure." I heard Dr. Dinmore deliver this lecture before the Dauphin County Teachers' Institute last winter and was so much delighted with it that I engaged him at once for our Institute.

Beirley's School Songs will be used in the Institute. Teachers who applied should not fail to bring books with them to Institute.

The Middleburg Orchestra will furnish music for the evening entertainments.

Directors' Day will be observed on Thanksgiving Day, November 29, p. m.

It is earnestly hoped that each board will at least send a good representation to the Institute on this occasion. On Monday evening the lecture will be free to the general public.

Tuesday evening the nominal sum of twenty-five cents per ticket will be charged, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, the regular price 35 cents for reserved seats and 25 cents for general admission ticket.

Season ticket orders can be procured at the Commissioners' Office for 75c.
