

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY

PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

PORT TREVERTON.

P. F. Arnold, Harvey Lenig and Geo. Rine and wife, of Milton, spent last week in town.

Miss Mame Boyer, after spending several months with her aunt, Mrs. Ochsenford, at Allentown, has returned to town to enjoy quiet home life.

Lewis and Florence Lenhart, of Harrisburg, visited relatives in town the past two weeks.

Mrs. M. Herrold, of Harrisburg, is visiting her many friends.

Mrs. David Herrold and son, of Shamokin Dam, are visiting under the parental roof.

J. I. Charles, the noted bridge builder, has returned home for the winter.

Miss Minnie Bobb and mother were in town the past week to attend the funeral of the latter's mother, Mrs. Levi Woodling.

S. P. Steffen has gone to Shamokin to work in a wholesale house.

B. F. Neitz made a trip to Sunbury Sunday.

Christopher Fox was seriously ill, but is convalescing.

Frank Houser accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Brubaker, went to Shamokin Dam last week.

James Lenig, who is employed at Milton, spent Sunday with his family.

Miss Alvadia Lenig visited in Selingsgrove during the past week.

Prof. Bowersox and wife, of the county seat, were in town Friday night.

W. P. Noll and family moved to Steelton Thursday last.

H. S. Bogar, a student of Bucknell, Lewisburg, is spending his vacation at home.

Mrs. Uriah Kelley, of Williamsport, spent several days with relatives.

Misses Edith Kelly and Ella Wendt, of Sunbury, spent the past week with friends.

A. W. Ancker was in town Sunday receiving congratulations on the bass-sole—"Asleep in the Deep"—that he sang Christmas night.

Miss Mary Royer, of Milton, is visiting her grandparents, Emanuel Neitz and wife.

Mrs. O. K. Neitz, of Sunbury, and children are visiting her sister, Mrs. S. P. Steffen.

Harry Knights, one of our town's promising young men, is taking in the sights of Philadelphia this week.

Mr. Painter and wife, of Indiana, are visiting the latter's brother and sister at this place.

Jno. Spoke, after enjoying two weeks' visit with his daughter at Washington, D. C., has returned home.

The district consisting of Union and Chapman townships held their joint institute in the U. B. church at this place Friday night and Saturday. The evening session was opened by music which was followed by an oration by T. G. Herrold, who was followed by remarks from Prof. Bowersox and several of the other teachers. The school again favored the audience with a hymn and then recitations were rendered by Misses Florence Lenhart, Isora Bingham, Jennie Charles and Nellie Shaffer. Different subjects concerning school work were discussed by the teachers after which the evening session closed by singing.

GOOSE FEAST.—The twelfth annual supper of the S. of V. Camp No. 150, Port Trevorton, Pa., was enjoyed at the National Hotel, Saturday evening, Dec. 22, 1900. The dining room was most beautifully decorated for the occasion and the table was set in great style. The supper consisted of many of the delicacies of the season. All who were present enjoyed the supper, especially Snyder who kept one of the waiters busy passing potato chips. Those present were James Wise, George Wolf, Isaac Kember and wife, of Dundore, Daniel Wolf and wife, Adam Reif and wife, of Silver Run, J. G. Snyder and wife, William Shrawder and wife, John Charles and wife, H. F. Charles, wife and daughter, Jennie, William Arnold and wife, O. G. Rice and wife, Mrs. Frank Blazdell and Messrs. Fox and Frouz, of Port Trevorton.

Charles Freeborn of Mahanoy, spent Sunday in town.

C. H. Keller who is employed at Selingsgrove, spent Sunday at home.

J. G. Snyder and family spent Sunday with his parents at Selingsgrove.

Miss Minnie Moyer, of Independence, was a welcome visitor at the Port Trevorton hotel over Sunday.

Mr. Speece, of Speeceville, was among the Saturday night callers in our town.

G. Irvin Reichenbach, of Shamokin, called on his daughters, Sunday.

Miss Della Sholly of Eclipse, visited her parents during the past week.

Miss Isora Arnold and mother have gone to Washington D. C. to visit the latter's three sons who reside there.

Hiram Fox of Sunbury, is visiting his sick father, Christopher Fox.

Mrs. Edwin Wolf, of Shamokin, visited her parents, Henry Stepp and wife, Sunday.

Rev. Buck and wife of Shamokin, who are noted for their musical talent, have been taking a very active part in the protracted meeting which is in progress in the Evangelical church.

C. W. Knights and M. H. Herrold transacted business at the county seat last week.

George Houser made a business trip to Shamokin Dam, Saturday.

Mrs. S. Herrold and sons after having spent the past two weeks with relatives at Lykens and vicinity returned home, Saturday.

McCLURE.

Hon. A. W. Potter, of Selingsgrove, was in town Saturday looking after political affairs.

The West Beaver district Sunday school convention was held in the St. Matthew church Saturday, Jan. 5, 1901.

The Evangelical congregation are having their church papered by the boss paper hanger, W. J. Treaster.

Last Saturday William Hoffman and Amelia Wagner were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. We wish them a happy journey on the ocean of life.

Mrs. Keller, of Altoona, spent Sunday with Mrs. Rothrock.

The death angel has again visited our town and taken from our midst Miss Mertie Dreese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dreese. The deceased was an estimable young lady and her death has cast a shadowy gloom over our town. Her remains were interred in the McClure cemetery, Friday afternoon, Rev. Ott officiating.

We hope the time is not far away when our merchants and confectioner will pass the same resolutions in regard to selling cigarettes as one of our neighboring towns—Troxelville.

GLOBE MILLS

Born on Thursday to Amon Klase and wife, a son.

Mrs. S. O. Ulrich is on the sick list.

Mrs. Charles Stuck, made a business trip to Sunbury, Monday.

Mrs. Joel Bubba, of Lewistown, visited her brother, Antes Ulrich over Sunday.

Daniel Yerger and wife, of New Berlin, and Lizzie Landis, of Kreamer, spent Sunday with Amon Yerger and wife.

William Schroyer, of Chillesquana, spent Christmas with his family.

Miss Anna Riech, of Selingsgrove, spent Christmas with her parents George Riech and family.

Charles Stuck, of Cammal, spent this week with his wife and family.

Cloyd Wagner spent Xmas with his grandma at Adamsburg.

William Smith and lady friend, of McVeytown, spent Monday with his parents, J. A. Smith and family.

Josiah Maurer and wife, of Kreamer drove through our streets Sunday.

PALLAS NEWS.

George Straub, of Kreamer, was seen in our midst, Tuesday.

Perry Beaver, wife and son of Oriental, enjoyed a Christmas roast at Mrs. Bailey's Tuesday.

Mrs. Jacob Reichenbach was buried at Grubb's cemetery, Wednesday, aged 84 years, Rev. Gilbert officiated. Miss Katie Lenig has returned home to stay.

Sunday, Wilson Shaffer, only son of John Shaffer, was interred at Grubb's cemetery, aged 8 years and 6 months, Rev. Miller preached the funeral sermon.

HOPFER

D. G. Garman is very ill at present with brain fever.

The school directors of Chapman township met in Arnold's school house, Saturday and paid the teachers for their fourth month's service.

Miss Lena Gilbert, who was visiting at Wm. Bohner's returned home again Wednesday.

Thomas Herrold, teacher of the Locust Grove school, gave a grand spelling bee Friday evening.

Henry Hummel was employed by David Portzline last week.

The protracted meeting in the U. B. church at McKees is making good progress at present.

W. L. Hummel lost a valuable horse Wednesday.

Albert Meiser lost one of the best horses in the lower end of the county. He had purchased the horse of Mr. Richter at Selingsgrove.

SALEM.

Misses Della and Verna Moyer and Mrs. H. G. Snabel, were to Sunbury last week.

Oscar Kaltriter and Frank Jarrett, attended a Christmas entertainment at Fremont, Monday evening.

Burton Boyer, of Michigan and mother Mrs. Samuel Boyer of Selingsgrove, were the guests of J. W. Row and family, Thursday.

Samuel Hassinger, of Danville visited J. M. Aurand, Thursday.

C. L. Kessler and Geo. Gemberling visited in Millintown, last week.

W. J. Boyer and wife, entertained H. H. Schoch, wife and children of Selingsgrove, Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Snabel, and Misses Ida Miller and Edith Witmer at dinner, Christmas.

John Musser, wife and daughter, of Shamokin, are visiting the family of Ezra Meiser.

The Christmas entertainment was a decided success, every part was beautifully rendered. One of the most inspiring was a motion song by nine young ladies, who deserve especial praise for their graceful performance. The church was tastefully decorated, and a large crowd assembled to witness the exercises.

L. G. Smith and wife, of Blaine, W. Va., are visiting the latter's parents, J. L. Snyder and wife.

Mrs. Henry Engle is entertaining her mother and sister of Moutour county.

Thea. Row, wife and daughters Annie and Edna, J. E. Magee and wife of Kreamer, and Miss Esther Boyer took dinner at G. M. Witmer's, Friday.

C. H. Woodruff returned to Philadelphia to resume his studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

Geo. M. Witmer and L. L. Luck were to the state capital on New Year and took in the organization Legislature.

Prof. F. C. Fisher was to Kreamer Sunday evening.

SWINEFORD

Mr. Wolfand wife, of Lewisburg, spent Sunday at James Dietrich's.

Mrs. Charles Rathfon spent a few days among friends at Paxtonville.

James Diemer and wife, spent Christmas at Kreamer.

H. P. Beaver, of Burnham spent a few days with his family here.

Cut this out and take it to the Middleburg Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They also cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness and headache.

KREAMER.

Prof. Geo. E. Fisher and wife, of Selingsgrove, took supper with J. F. Walter's Wednesday.

Geo. Gordon, who has been working away from home, has returned to spend the winter with his family.

Misses Mabel Gutelius and Katherine Hock spent Christmas at Shamokin where the latter's parents reside.

James Row and family and S. A. App and wife, of Selingsgrove, spent Xmas with the family of J. F. Walter.

Frank Thomas, the enterprising dealer in stock of Sunbury, shipped a carload of cattle from this place last week.

A. B. Keck, the veteran auctioneer of Selingsgrove, had an auction at the hotel Saturday evening.

N. C. Gutelius gave a New Year's dinner to about forty relatives.

Harry Pontius, while cutting wood in his woods, was hit by a limb of a tree and received a nasty gash on the head. He is improving rapidly.

A. D. Kreamer sold his little Kentucky trotter to a sheriff of one of the neighboring counties.

Mrs. Thomas Dietrich and son, Ray, visited her sister, Mrs. C. D. Bolig at Winfield Sunday.

SUMMIT HOTEL

The boys had a belling for the new couple, Monday evening. Some of them got too much Shade Mountain dew.

A skating pond covering about an acre and consisting of very smooth ice is affording ample enjoyment for the young men of this vicinity.

Edgar Derr and bride visited his brother last week.

The great lumber king of Musser's Valley was here one day last week and brought his wagon to haul logs.

WEST BEAVER.

There have been no new promises made for 1901. I suppose they all think the old one will stand good for another year.

James Peter, U. F. Herberster and family, Viola Steely and Emanda Suook are now located at Frank's Forge, Blair county.

Mrs. W. Y. McLaughlin spent the past week in Mifflin county visiting some of her old acquaintances.

Adam Baumgardner died Wednesday of last week and was buried Saturday at the Baker's church. Another old soldier was laid to rest.

Jerry Knapp is having wood sawed for the purpose of running his cider mill next season, providing there will be something for which to run it.

Henry W. Knapp, blacksmith, moved from Burnham to his own house in Bannerville last week. It has been reported that he is unable to follow his trade on account of his health.

Thomae Herberster & Co. have been busy sawing wood the past few weeks, for parties who have had the good luck in getting a big supply.

Daniel H. Treaster has been engaged in the lumber business for the past month in Huntington county.

P. W. Treaster and family, of Burnham, Mifflin county, spent Christmas with his parents, L. B. Treaster and wife.

S. H. Phillips has been engaged in taking out timber for ax handles the past week to be used for the pioneers in the Boer army.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm. Wist & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Hall's family Pills are best.

For HOLIDAY PRESENTS—For EVERY DAY USE

The Lamp of Steady Habits

The New Rochester.

The lamp that doesn't flicker or smoke, or cause you to use bad language; the lamp that looks good when you get it and stays good; the lamp that you never willingly part with, once you have it; that's Old Lamps Made New.

We can fill every lamp you want. No matter whether you want a new lamp or stove, an old one repaired or refinished, a vase mounted for other make of lamp transformed into a New Rochester, we can do it. Let us send you literature on the subject.

THE ROCHESTER LAMP CO., 38 Park Place & 33 Barclay St., New York.

HAMILTON'S VIEW.

Born to Geo. Moll and wife, a son.

Mrs. Seesholtz is spending a few weeks in Lykens Valley.

Nathaniel Moyer and wife spent last week at Williamstown.

The farmers of this place are busy storing away ice for the summer use.

Miss Margaretta Fryling, of Sunbury, was the guest of Martha Schoch one day last week.

Miss Mary Stahl, of Verdilla, was the guest of Mrs. Samuel Stroub last week.

Samuel Bower and wife have gone to Hightspire to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Hoff.

Elmer Krumbine, wife and children, of Womelsdorf, spent part of last week at Peter Bailey's.

Miss Gertrude Irate and little nephew, of Sunbury, visited friends in this place Sunday.

John Keiser, wife and little son, of Milton, called on friends in this place Saturday evening.

Peter Klingler and wife gave a Christmas dinner to all their children and grandchildren. The day was spent very pleasantly.

Daniel Sassaman and family entertained his brother, Jonas, and wife, of Riverside, and Mrs. Hummel, of Shreiner's, Sunday.

Arthur Noll and wife spent last week at Shamokin and Gown City.

Henry Bower, James Young and Wm. Moyer spent Christmas at Selingsgrove.

ADAMSBURG.

Messrs Woodruff and Kessler, of Selingsgrove, visited our "burg" last Friday.

Miss Emma Breimier of Selingsgrove has been spending several weeks with Mrs. C. N. Klose.

H. I. Romig made a business trip to Sunbury, Monday.

Watch night was observed by the Lutheran Y. P. S. C. E. on New Year's eve. The services were attended by a large and appreciative audience.

Elsie, a young daughter of J. W. Snook, is sick with scarlet fever.

Master Joe and Miss Bessie Klose spent a few days in Selingsgrove.

Elva Smith is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

A. W. Aurand and J. W. Snook and families were entertained by Lewistown friends last week.

A Bankrupt Judge's Liabilities.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 8.—In the United States district court yesterday Judge Peter P. Smith, of the Pennsylvania superior court, filed his schedule of assets and liabilities in the case in bankruptcy, filed against him. He owes $49,565, and his assets are $15,600, the assets consisting entirely of mortgages. Attached to the schedule is a certificate by a notary public that the bankrupt is took weak and infirm to sign the schedules, but that they are signed by his daughter at his request and in the presence of the notary. That he is a sick man is shown by the fact that he owes $623 for medicine and the service of physicians.

Accidentally Shot His Sister.

Bethlehem, Pa., Jan. 8.—Harry Delp, the 13-year-old son of Frank Delp, a wealthy farmer of Lower Saucon, yesterday accidentally shot and fatally wounded his 10-year-old sister Cecelia. Harry, while his parents were absent at market, found his father's loaded revolver, and while his sister was looking into the barrel it was discharged. The bullet entered the left side of the little girl's forehead. The lad bandaged the wound as best he could and hurried with his sister to the hospital here. The doctors say she cannot recover.

Railroad Boiler-makers on Strike.

Susquehanna, Pa., Jan. 8.—About 150 employes in the boiler department of the Erie Railroad company's extensive locomotive shops at this place went out on strike yesterday. For some weeks there has been dissatisfaction among the men employed on account of the introduction of the piece work system in the shops, and it is alleged that laborers have been doing the work of regular boiler-makers or apprentices. The local boiler-makers' union unsuccessfully attempted to have their grievances righted and the strike is the result.

SHAMOKIN DAM.

Ray Maliek, of Shamokin, who was visiting at A. R. Shippe's, returned home Saturday.

Wm. Purdy Snyder and Martin Stahl were visitors at Freiburg Saturday.

We are pleased to note that Frank Sauter, who has been very ill at home, is slowly improving. We hope he will soon be among his many friends.

Judge McClure was seen on our streets one day last week.

Edwin Biechart and wife, of Pallas, were visitors at Rev. G. W. Borden's Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Metzger, wife and son, George, of McKees Falls, were visitors at Wm. Snyder's several days last week.

Martin Stahl was a visitor to Sunbury Saturday of last week.

Morris Coryell, who is working at the silk mill at Williamsport, was a visitor in our place over Christmas.

Mrs. Kautz, of Washington, D. C., was a visitor to her sister, Mrs. Willet Arbogast and family.

Martin Slear and wife, of this place, had a very narrow escape one day last week. He brought some oats from Isaac Benfer's and on the road home, the horses became frightened. Both occupants fell from the wagon. Mr. Slear was very badly cut about the face. Mrs. Slear was slightly injured.

Mr. Giftand wife, of Paxtonville, were seen on our streets Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Snyder made a business trip to Shamokin, Wednesday.

The Hottenstein brothers are improving their carpenter shop by putting a new roof on it.

M. S. Wendt and wife were visiting Harrison Price at Paxinos over Sunday.

Miss Florence Hermer and brother, Allen, were seen on our streets one day last week.

Mrs. Wm. Snyder of this place had a New Year's dinner for some of her friends. Those present were as follows: Revs. Dimm and Fortney, of Selingsgrove, Rev. G. W. Borden and wife, Mrs. Geo. Wilk, J. H. Rhoads and wife, Mrs. G. H. Hane, Misses Y. June and Anna Fiss, Jonas Tevler and wife of this place, Mrs. Hannah Noll, of Hummel's Wharf, Mrs. D. Mitchell, of Berwick, Mrs. Knuck of Sunbury, Mrs. McKinney and wife of Sunbury, and Mrs. G. W. B. Monroe of Berwick.

S. H. Kirkpatrick and wife, of Sunbury, were visiting with relatives at this place.

Miss Amy Anderson of Sunbury, was a visitor to Conrad Dutry and family.

MIDDLESWARTH.

Mrs. Isaac Bickel is on the sick list.

Alvin, son of Job Hartman, who had a severe attack of scarlet fever, is slowly improving.

James Bingham left for the western counties where he will seek employment.

The Institute held in Herman's school house Friday night was well attended.

Jeremiah Bowersox bought a young horse in Mifflin Co., last week.

Miss Mary Herman visited her grand parents in Troxelville over Sunday.

Our school reports will give a low percentage of attendance this month as many children are stricken with scarletina.

There is quite a talk in this vicinity as to president judge.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of