FATAL NEGLIGENCE

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Kansas Reformer Invades the State's Capitol.

Engineer Asleep on Duty and a Terrible Wreck Results.

BERATING GOVERNOR STANLEY.

FIVE MEN INSTANTLY KILLED.

The Crusader Rushes Into the Governor's Office and Calls Him a Law Breaker and a Perjurer—She Also Visits Attorney General and Sheriff.

Two Engines and Ten Loaded Cars Demolished—Engineer Whose Carelessness Caused the Disaster Was Wounded, But Will Recover.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 29.—Mrs. Carrie Nation yesterday invaded the office of Governor William E. Stanley, in his chambers in the capitol building, and for a solid hour arraigned the chief executive of the state for his failure to close the saloons of Kansas. Then in turn she visited the offices of Attorney General Goddard, County Attorney Nichols and Sheriff Porter and demanded of each that they close the saloons.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 29.—Five persons dead and one severely wounded, two engines and ten loaded cars wrecked is the result of the mistake of a train crew yesterday afternoon between Petroleum and Volcano Junction, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. It was the old story of the engineer being asleep at his post and mistaking the first section of a passing train for the second. Thinking both had passed he pulled his train into the main track and sped onward to what would seem to have necessarily been his death.

THE LESSON TEXT.

14. For the kingdom of Heaven is as a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants and delivered unto them his goods.

15. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16. Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17. And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19. After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20. And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliverest unto me five talents; behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things; I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22. He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliverest unto me two talents; behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things; I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24. Thereby he that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed;

25. And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth; lo, there thou hast it.

26. His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed;

27. Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received my own with usury.

28. Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29. For unto everyone that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance; but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30. And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

GOLDEN TEXT.—So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.—Romans 14:12.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The scene and setting of the lesson are unchanged. Jesus is (as in last Sunday's lesson) on the Mount of Olives, and the time is Tuesday afternoon of the week of the crucifixion. The lesson gives another aspect of the Kingdom of Heaven in the parable of the talents. The lesson analysis follows:

1. The Talents Bestowed.—Ver. 14, 15.
2. The Made of the Talents.—Ver. 16-18.
3. Rewards and Punishment.—Ver. 19, 20.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

This parable adds to that of last week by showing how we must use the time while waiting. The ten virgins had only to be ready. But Jesus here explains that we are not to idly sleep till He calls us, but that He has given us each certain trusts to see how much we can make for Him. As those talents were to be used and increased for the Master, so we have come to call all the gifts and powers of mind and body God has given us to use for Him, "talents." And just as those servants were to so turn the money in a business way that it should increase, so should we with everything that He has trusted us with.

"Servants" (ver. 14): "The slaves of those times were often skilled workmen, sometimes members of the learned professions. It was no uncommon thing for them to be employed as the parable describes. A talent of gold would be worth nearly $12,000 in our money. A talent of silver about $400. "Well done" (ver. 21) it was a word of approval at public games, etc., like our "Bravo." "Joy of the Lord" (ver. 21). The festival with which the return of the Master is celebrated. An invitation to sit down with the Master at His table was equal to the notice that freedom was given the slave. Exchange (ver. 27)—bankers. Usury—interest.

A few weeks ago (December 23), we studied "The Parable of the Pounds." It was similar to this, yet different in many respects. That was spoken a week before, as Jesus passed through Jericho; this on the Mount of Olives, as He sat with His disciples. There the pound was given to all alike, but the returns were very different. Here the gifts differ in amount, but the servants were equally faithful, each doing his best.

Sympathy with Childhood.

Those who have occasion to speak frankly concerning their own childhood experiences are often found to remark that the greatest blessing that came to them was the sympathy of a father or mother, or perhaps of an older brother or sister, with their tastes and ideals. There are few things so chilling to a generous young spirit as the sneer that follows the disclosure of his inner desire or purpose; and, on the other hand, the consciousness that he is understood and appreciated is the very elixir of life to the boy or girl before whom the world is just beginning to open. Children who grow up unduly reticent and self-contained, or who become morose and sour, probably have lacked genial sympathy in their earlier years.—Boston Watchman.

Gems of Truth.

There is no Christianity without self-giving.
"Father" is the key-word to all true prayer.
To-morrow will obey you more readily than yesterday.
Men say that they die as brutes because they want to live as beasts.
So many Christians are fighting for toys when God offers to give them a kingdom.
The man who coins his conscience into cash will never make a percentage large enough to buy it back.—Bam's Horn.

A Good Sleep.

Nothing adds more to vigor of body and cheerfulness of mind, or aids so well in chasing away the lines of worry and care from the weary brow, as good, sound, refreshing sleep. But when the gray matter of the brain has been robbed of its vitality and constructive strength by weak, worn-out and exhausted nerves, sleep gives way to restless tossing and long hours of feverish distress. Do you want a good sleep? You can get it if you go about it right.

"My nerves were so shattered after a severe attack of pneumonia that the least noise would make me feel like screaming at the top of my voice. I could not get a night's sleep, and would often awaken twelve or fifteen times before morning. One day I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nerve on trial, and before it was half gone I could go to sleep without an effort, and awake feeling rested and refreshed."

P. E. A. FLING, Hartshorne, I. T.

Dr. Miles' Nerve
