THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson in the International Series for February 17, 1901 - The Lord's Supper.

THE LESSON TEXT. (Matthew 25:17-30.)

17. Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto Him. Where wilt thou that we prepare for Thee to eat the passover?

18. And He said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him. The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover. 20. Now when the even was come, He sat down with the twelve.

21. And as they did eat, He said, Verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall be-

And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto Him, Lord, is it 1?

23. And he answered and said. He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24. The Son of Man goeth as it is written of Him; but wee unto the man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It had been good for that man if he had not been born. 3. Then Judas, which betrayed Him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him. Thou hast said.

26. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat;

this is my body.

27. And He took the cup, and gave thanks. and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all 28. For this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

28. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30. And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the Mount of Olives. GOLDEN TEXT.—This do in remem-brance of me.—Luke 22:19.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. On Wednesday of the crucifixion week Jesus was in retirement. Thursday evening the passover supper was partaken of by Jesus and His disciples in an upper room in Jerusalem. It is supposed by some that this upper room was in the home of Mary, the mother of Mark. It was in "an upper room" of this house where the Holy Spirit was poured out on Pentecost. The lesson covers the following points:

1. Preparation for the Passover.-Ver. The Approaching Betrayal.—Ver. 20-25.
 Institution of the Lord's Supper.—Ver.

After Jesus had ended His talk with His disciples on the Mount of Olives they went on to Bethany and remained there quietly on Wednesday and part of Thursday. Meanwhile Judas went to the chief priests and elders and planned with them to betray Jesus nto their hands.

On Thursday evening was the feast of the Passover, for which a great multitude of Jews had come to Jerusalem from all parts of the world. It was held in the spring of each year, about the middle of our April, in memory of that night 1,500 years before, when God had delivered their forefathers from slavery in Egypt. Read in Exod. 12 of the Lord's command to kill a lamb and sprinkle the blood on the door, and how the destroying angel passed over the homes of all who obeyed that command. So they were saved through the blood of the lamb.

The Passover supper was not only in memory of the past, but to remind them of the future, of the time when one should come who would deliver greater dangerdeath. Read in Mark 14:13-16 of the strange manner in which two of the disciples found a room where they made the supper rendy. Our lesson tells us how Jesus showed Judas that He knew what he had done; and John 13:30 says that the traitor went out into the dark night, leaving Jesus and the 11 faithful ones alone.

Hundreds of thousands of lambs had been slain that the Passover supper wight be kept. Now Jesus, Himself the true Lamb of God, was to die the very next morning, that thus God for His sake might pass over our sins. There would then be no more need for the Passover supper, for its meaning would be fulfilled. But people forget so easily that, strange as it may seem something was needed to keep in memory that wonderful event-the Lamb slain for us. So Jesus appointed a new memory supper to take the place of nance of the Lord's Supper.

The death, the burial, and the resurrection by which we pass from the old life to the new, is pictured in baptism. This is the great confession of faith, by which we enter His church. Then the great truths of salvation through the death of Christ and the new life are set forth in the communion.

Good Fortune of Ill Fortune.

It is idle to try to enjoy trouble, but it is rational to withhold judgment as to whether trouble be really the design of an experience that seems grievous. better for herself and for us children It has happened a thousand times that some apparent misfortune has given birth to a vast blessing, thus in the issue proving itself actual good fortune. Paul, for instance, tells in the Philippians that the apparent calamty of his imprisonment has resulted in immense success and joy-"So that my "In the winter of 1898 and 1899 I bonds became manifest in Christ was taken down with a severe attack of what is called La Grippe" says F. guard, and to all the rest." wards; it has its reward in loving.

Flatulency, sourness, and taste, loss of appetite, a sense of weig at or fullness after eating, together with uneasiness, impatience, irritability of temper, nervousness, anxiety, lost energy, depression of spirits, sick headache, bad dreams and sleeplessness, come from weak and debilitated nerves. That kind of nerves have to be braced up, strengthened, invigorated and helped if you would have a sound stomach, a keen appetite and a cheerful mind.

"Every little noise would startle me and set my nerves to trembling from head to foot. I got very little sleep at night and I could scarcely eat the lightest food without having awful pains in my stomach. I took no end of medicine, but nothing helped me, and when I began with Dr. Miles' Nervine I had no faith in it. It helped me right away, and when I had taken seven bottles I was cured."
