IF the people of Snyder county wish to assist laws of that State? in preserving historical data, they should look through their attics and garrets, and if they have any old newspapers of Snyder or adjoining counties, they should send them to the librarian of the Snyder County Historical Society at this place. All articles of historical value are preserved in their room in the court house.

TILLMAN in a temper. - Atlanta Constitution. But is Capt. Ben really shaken by the tempests of anger that seem to shake him? He is excellent at tearing a passion to tatters. He has a gift for white-hot language and the gift has been oultivated diligently during his long and lively experiences on the Palmetto stump. But not even a comic stage father or uncle can be so irascible and so continually irate as the Pitchfork pretends to be. We maintain that he is as mild as milk and that his outbursts and fits are only a voluntary and stimulated wrath.

CAVALRY horses are not being given away nowdays. Bids were opened at Omaha the other day for 400 horses for the newly organized Fourteenth Cavalry at Fort Leavenworth. The bids ranged from $139 to $150 a horse, a pretty stiff price, but what was the Quartermaster's Department to do? The cavalry must have good horses country newspaper is merely a business enter and good horses come high. automobiles. The impulsive persons who have had tears to shed over the decline and fall of the horses were decidedly premature.

THE murder of Thomas McHenry, at Rebersburg, on the morning of the 3rd of February, promises to go unavenged, says the Bloomsburg Daily. No arrests have been made and there is not likely to be. The murder was one of those rural crimes which puzzles detectives because of the seeming lack of a motive on the part of any known person. Detectives of the murderer seems extremely unlikely, because at the time of the commission of the crime all of the inhabitants of that sparsely populated district were in bed. The chance of any one being on the road and recognizing the figure was reduced to almost noth-THE POST is in receipt of a copy of the "Scotch ing. The Country Editor.

URING the recent meeting of the Illinois Press Association in Chicago the Tribune of that city indulged in a highly eulogistic editorial on the country editor. Some of those complimented are inclined to think the editor of the Tribune was moved by a selfish influence in his editorial, but this is to be doubted. The Tribuue has at last begun to recognize to its full the influence of the country editor. In all the improvements of the last century none were greater than those of the country press. The improvements were not alone in the mechanical department of the paper, but were much greater in the influence which the country paper has upon national, state, county and city affairs. The country editor of to-day is a man who must be reckoned with in all the various relations of life. He is sober, influential citizen and has a standing in business and politics second to none in his coun- contact with his cheek. ty. The reason of all this is that the modern will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from onefourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.
