HUMMEL'S WHARF. Andrew Trutt and wife are on the sick list. Brian Teats, who has been on the sick list, was able to teach school again last week. It is reported that there will be a wedding in this place in the near future. John Schoch and wife made a trip to Sunbury Thursday. Mrs. Amanda Noll, of Sunbury, spent Sunday with her son, Arthur Noll and wife. Miss Ella Bower, of Selinsgrove, spent a week with her parents in this place. Wm. Moyer is working on a saw mill for Jacob Tharp near Fisher's school house. John L. Bower attended the inauguration at Washington, D. C., on the 4th inst. and returned home well pleased with the trip. Levi Dressler, Henry Bower and Edward Fisher of this place and David Slear of Granger's Hollow attended the horse sale at Freeburg Thursday. A child of Levi Dressler is very ill with pneumonia. The heavy thundershower Sunday night caused the ice to leave Penn's creek Monday morning, which did some damage to the bridge. Saturday between four and seven o'clock p. m. a burglar entered the residence of Peter Bailey, and succeeded in getting about one hundred and ten dollars and a bank book. It is supposed the burglar entered the house while Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were at the barn doing up the chores. After ransacking the house up stairs, he carried a small desk containing the money down stairs into the parlor. While eating supper, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey several times heard a noise, but thought it was a neighbor and paid no attention to it. At about seven o'clock a neighbor lady being there, and Mrs. Bailey wishing to go into the parlor, found the parlor door propped shut with the sewing machine, and a window hoisted. Upon investigation it was found that the latch at the desk, which was locked, was unscrewed, and the money and book were gone. The burglar made his escape through the window.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of DUNDORE. Get the oats in early. A clear conscience is a good pillow. H. L. Neitz of Sunbury was in town and called on his many friends. He is in the employ of the P. R. R. and has considerable property accumulated by thrift and economy. The ice on the Susquehanna has taken its departure. H. C. Hoover and wife passed through town on their way to Port Trevorton. Ira Hoover of Hall's Island was in town. Abel Metzger of Eclipse was seen on our streets. Ed. Shaffer of Sunbury was in town offering goods in his line and stayed with his parents at Port Trevorton over night. D. J. Keen was in town selling straw hats on the coldest morning we had this winter. Freed Bros. were in town selling shoes. Sadie Rambo went to Sunbury to wait on Geo. Neitz's wife who is on the sick list. J. F. Wagner is getting ready to make brooms. Simon I. Snyder was in town. Our debating club is attracting some attention on account of their masterpieces of American eloquence. Mary Campbell called on Maria W. Dundore. Eli Campbell made a business trip to Selinsgrove for our merchant. John Krebs of Verdilla was in town and had a talk with the Overseer of the Poor. J. H. Rehner and wife were in town and called on their daughter and family. C. Rinehart of Chapman passed through town on his way to Selinsgrove. George Glase was laid to rest last Saturday at the United Evangelical cemetery.

TROXELVILLE. Wm. Snyder put a new range stove up for I. C. Swartz Tuesday. Edward Shindel was a visitor at R. F. Smith's one night last week. Jno Middleworth left for the Buckeye state one day last week where he intends to spend the summer. R. F. Smith says it costs a good deal more since he has a little girl two weeks old to support. J. Shawver and family, who had been visiting here, returned to their southern home in West Virginia. Saturday evening, Sunday forenoon, afternoon and evening the Mission Band of S. U. will hold services in the St. Luke's church at Troxelville. This band is non-sectarian and comes highly recommended. Everybody is invited to come and hear what they have to say on the subject, "Foreign Missions."

ZION HILL. Wm. Wenrich is still numbered among the sick. Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Courtney, a son. Jasper Hackenberg from near Middleworth was visiting at Roswell Moyer's Sunday. Henry Stahl was to Mifflinburg one day last week. Elias Long went to Mifflinburg to visit his son. There was singing school at Zion church which some of our young people joined. Charles Moyer got a position to travel for a cigar company of Philadelphia. Mr. Moyer is a very enterprising young business man and we wish him good success. W. F. Bilger the traveling salesman of Milton was visiting Jesse Hackenberg's over Sunday.

For HOLIDAY PRESENTS—For EVERY DAY USE The Lamp of Steady Habits. The lamp that doesn't flare up or smoke, or cause you to use bad language; the lamp that looks good when you get it and stays good; the lamp that you never willingly part with, once you have it; that.

The New Rochester. Other lamps may be offered you as "just as good," they may be, in some respects, but for all around goodness, there's only one. The New Rochester. To make sure the lamp offered you is genuine, look for the name on it; every lamp has it. (300 Varieties.)

Old Lamps Made New. We can fill every lamp want. No matter whether you want a new lamp or stove, an old one repaired or refinished, a vase mounted, or other make of lamp transformed into a New Rochester, we can do it. Let us send you literature on the subject. We are SPECIALISTS in the treatment of diseases of Lamps. Consultation FREE.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned Commissioners will attend and sit at a Board of Revision of valuations in our office for the various districts on the within named days or as many days as are necessary for the purpose of finally determining whether any of the above valuations by the assessors or corrections by the Commissioners have been made below a just rate according to the intent and meaning of the act of July 28th, 1892, and to reduce, raise and equalize the same according to law. The Commissioners will attend and hear the districts of Adams, Beaver, Beaver West, Centre, Spring, Jackson, Monday, March 18th. Monroe, Penn, Selinsgrove, Union, Middlebrook and Chapman, Tuesday, March 19th. Perry, Perry West, Washington, Middleburg and Franklin, Wednesday, March 20th. GEO. F. MILLER, JOHN F. WETZEL, C. W. KNIGHTS, COMMISSIONERS.

WEST BEAVER. Some of our farmers are busy exchanging places of living for the next year. J. B. Shellenberger had been suffering with a sore throat for the past week. The friends and neighbors of Ed. Rothrock have set him up in house keeping again with a new house and all necessary household goods equal to the one destroyed by fire. Howard Peter and the doctor were called to Mifflin county to attend to the wants of the sick. Mr. Peters dumped the doctor out in a big snow drift. Our friend, the doctor, is a big man of 200 pounds avoirdupois. He left a fine impression in the beautiful snow. William Peter moved to the property of Anna Snook's last week. Mrs. Sarah Steely and family were the guests of your scribe Sunday.

L. B. Treaster's ice house was the last one to be filled at this end, and it was filled Friday. Nora Kahley was buried at McClure Saturday. Quite a lot of her many friends attended the funeral in a body to pay their respects to the deceased. Our streets are almost daily visited by a new tramp in all colors. Mrs. L. B. Treaster spent Sunday with some of her Lowell friends.

SCHNE. Mrs. Allen Valentine is still on the sick list. Miss Sarah Klock, of Allentown, Pa., is visiting parents and friends at this place. Mrs. Frank Spotts, who was visiting friends at Allentown for several months, came home last Tuesday. William P. Seifert, of this place, who was driving across the track and was run into by a train at Selinsgrove, was brought home Friday evening. P. A. Stuck was to Seven Points to attend the sale of Lentz.

Next Saturday evening, Mar. 16, the school of this place will hold their entertainment. Saturday or Sunday evening burglars gained admittance into the town school house and took for their plunder fountain pens and pencils, etc. Some boys had suspicion on the intruder and it found out, will cause their arrest. Henry Mengle is going to Ohio soon. Renoen Freed, of Philadelphia, visited friends in this vicinity last week. I. W. Longacre, our auctioneer, spent last Monday evening at this place. The Red Bank school will hold their entertainment Friday evening, March 22. W. H. Wendt and R. Weaver were to Richfield to bury a tract of timber land last Wednesday.

SHADEL. Irvin Botteiger moved his saw mill on W. W. Wittenmyer's timber tract which he purchased from Bottiger Brothers and will commence sawing lumber this week. Rev. Davis intends to build a new barn this summer. The sale of J. P. Naugle Tuesday was well attended and the articles sold brought fair prices. Clemmens and Auran purchased timber tracts from Augustus Stroup and Wm. Arbogast. It seems lumber is in demand, but if the people continue to buy timber and sell lumber like they have done these two years, timber will get scarce in our vicinity. Chas. Reichenbach and Samuel Hackenberg and sister, Vergie, were the guests of T. F. Reichenbach Sunday. Hsie Reichenbach, who was working at Lewis Fisher's in Freeburg came home to stay a few weeks.
