

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY
 PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

DUNDORE.

Two enemies to one friend is about the right dose to make a man successful.

D. W. Mears, M. D., of Scranton and his sister, Sallie Gojne, of Ashland called on their sister, Eliza Mears.

D. G. Witmer, who has been an invalid for the last three years, was examined by Dr. Mears, who studied medicine in this country and Germany.

Rev. H. T. Searle delivered three exceedingly edifying sermons to his congregations last Sunday.

John Houtz of Freeburg passed through town.

Our Supervisor is busy repairing our roads.

Fred Kerstetter sold a cow to Henry Bower.

Christ Bitner bought a valuable hog from a party in Lancaster Co.

Squire Sechrist got a new kind of seed corn from a party in Ohio.

A few boats with ties have gone up the Penna. Canal.

James C. Sbafer of Port Trevorton was in town.

The bridge between Port Trevorton and Herndon was built in 1854 and was taken down in 1871. The bridge bill is passed and the Governor has signed it and the grand jury of Northumberland Co., was unanimous for a bridge and so will be our grand jury.

Capt. J. D. Kise of Phila., did some business in town.

O. N. Kaltriter of Fremont called on our merchant and former employer.

Ascension Day has always a large crowd at the aqueduct. This year the day was perfect and the enjoyments unsurpassed.

D. W. Kamble and wife of Watontown spent last Sabbath with his other and many friends at this place.

Estella Shambach of Port Trevorton rode through town on her wheel bound for the aqueduct picnic.

Caterpillars are in the midst of prosperity, most of their stock has gone up in smoke.

SCHNEE

Some of our young people were to be at the aqueduct last Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Heppner of Shamokin and her daughters, Nettie and Mary, were visiting friends in our town.

Rev. C. C. Miller preached in the John church last Sunday forenoon.

W. A. Schnee was to Meiserville last Tuesday.

J. B. Rothermel went to Harrisburg last Thursday.

David Hoover and wife were to Middleburg to visit friends at that place on Ascension day.

John Schnee is on the sick list.

Miss Arbella Kaltriter of Sunbury passed through town last week.

Wm. Brown, the music teacher of Freeburg, was in town last Saturday.

W. A. Schnee was to Selinsgrove last Monday.

UNION TOWNSHIP.

John D. Marks of Sunbury spent Sunday at home.

Harry Aucker and John Stahl of New Columbia were at home on Ascension day.

Mrs. W. E. Aucker is spending a few days with friends at Mt. Pleasant Mills.

R. S. Aucker of Shamokin transacts business here last week.

The harvesting machinery agents are working on full time now.

They say there was a regular hullabaloo at the aqueduct on Ascension Day. Among the many attractions were two refreshment stands the Kantz cornet band, an Edison phonograph operated by a party from Sunbury. Selinsgrove furnished the following to enliven the day: Two plug hat scientific fortune tellers, one dice game man, some extra fast drivers, and a few unruly boys that had to be slapped. More than $100 changed hands among the many hundred people there.

WEST BEAVER.

The few days rain we had last week prevented some of our farmers from finishing planting corn.

Laboring men are in demand here. Work is plenty. Send a few tramps, but they must have their harness on also ball and chain, so when it is time to go to work, they are here. No others need apply.

George Showers still has to plow his oats and corn ground on the farm he rented this spring.

Howard Treaster had a horse and all his hogs die this spring. He is a poor man and can ill afford the loss.

James Banner and family, Abe Wagner and wife, Daniel Swanger and family, all of Millin Co., spent Sunday last with friends here.

James Steely spent Sunday with his mother. He had been employed in Millin Co. for the past few weeks wielding the paint brush.

Mason Knapp and wife were the guests of Mrs. Aaron Moyer Sunday.

Miss Viola Steely is employed at Burnham as a domestic in a private family.

H. W. Knepp and Fred Gundrum has the contract for delivering to McClure the bark peeled on the Hassinger tract.

James Hughes of Newton Hamilton, formerly of McClure, is not expected to live on account of that dreaded disease, cancer.

S. H. Phillips bought a full blooded short horn cow from Geo. Wagner last week. Sam says he is now prepared to furnish ice cream to all his neighbors and friends free of charge.

Our road tax was levied last week, so we can soon look for our supervisors to commence repairing the roads, which is much needed.

Jim Nerhood had been putting up some out buildings for Mrs. Sarah Steely last week which adds great improvements to her home.

Mrs. Aaron Moyer and her assistant, Mrs. Jenkins, painted their house last week. It made a grand improvement to the property.

Enoch Baker stopped a while last Sunday with some of his Lowell friends. He was on the way to visit his brother, Oliver, who has been quite low for the past week with what they call carpenter's consumption.

GLOBE MILLS

Miss Maria Gilbert of Sunbury spent Sunday with her parents, John Gilbert and family.

Miss Carrie Clark of Northumberland is spending a week with her parents.

Mrs. A. W. Snyder and Miss Isora Ulrich spent Thursday with S. O. Ulrich and wife.

N. P. Hare and wife of Middleburg spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Gordon Leshler and wife of Blue Hill spent Sunday with B. F. Walter and wife.

B. W. Yoder and Melvin Bubb of Middleburg were seen on our streets Sunday.

S. O. Ulrich spent a few days in Philadelphia last week.

Pearl Smith of Beavertown is visiting at B. F. Row's.

Mrs. Irvin Bitting and son, spent Friday with James Shuman and wife at Swineford.

Miss Verna Stuck spent Friday with the Misses Mary and Hazel Stetler.

SALEM.

Mrs. Rebecca Wenrich of Ohio is visiting her sister, Mrs. Catherine Uplinger.

John Row of Northumberland spent Sunday with his mother.

The Salem Sunday School will hold a festival Saturday evening June 8.

A. Kreeger of Middleburg was a caller on Monday morning.

Thomas Erdley and family of Lewisburg visited relatives at this place over Sunday.

Miss Ethel Moyer is spending several weeks at Sunbury visiting her aunt Mrs. W. C. Teats.

Mrs. L. G. Smith and daughter, Hazel are visiting in Centerville.

SELINS GROVE.

Hon. G. A. Schoch of your place and also "Ye publisher of the Post" were in town Friday last.

W. M. Schoure, who is a Senior at State College was home over Sunday.

Mrs. H. Alleman, on whom an operation for appendicitis was performed by Drs. B. F. and F. J. Wagenseller which was successful, is yet in a critical condition as they cannot tell how she may rally. Her children, Harry P. and Mary were called home on account of her serious illness as the delay of a few hours would have been fatal to her.

Mr. Richter of Reading, the father of J. A. Richter, a student, here spent Thursday night with his son and family.

Wallace Baker of the bicycle emporium is sporting a motor bicycle for which he is agent as well as other bicycles.

The convention of the Missionary society is a thing of the past, we understand that the ladies (some seventy) were very much pleased with our town and the entertainment received at the hands of our citizens.

The Reformed Classis is in session in the Reformed church. They seem to be enjoying themselves in our midst, they filled the various pulpits Sunday.

Mrs. Mecker of Reynoldsville is being entertained by J. H. Ush and wife.

A. G. Rohback and wife of Mifflinburg spent Sunday with his brother, Major Rohback, and family.

A game of base ball was played on the University ground Saturday afternoon between C. P. College team and the University team. Score 15-0 in favor of the University.

Mrs. Harvey E. Miller and Mrs. Dr. Spangler have taken a trip to Phila. and Schuylkill Haven.

E. W. Snyder has placed a fine stone walk around his residence.

Mrs. J. S. Miller, who was unfortunate enough to run a needle in the middle of her hand about ten days ago had it located and removed by Dr. B. F. Wagenseller Saturday.

Mrs. Nora Shields of Phila., is the welcome guest of of her parents John Mark and wife.

N. I. Catherman spent Sunday with his parents.

PALLAS NEWS.

David Ramer and his brother-in-law of Duncanon spent Sunday with his sister at William Hockembrocks.

Evangelists Seithamer and Mitman of Williamsport passed through our neighborhood enroute to Kantz. They propose to hold a revival bush-meeting near here before long. Due notice will be given under this heading as soon as the date and place is fixed.

Last Friday morning Mrs. James Inch was suddenly stricken with apoplexy which caused her instant death. Interment at Grubbs cemetery, Monday morning at 11 A. M. Rev. Miller officiated.

Rev. Miller preached in Grub's church Sunday. Next service held in four weeks from last Sunday.

Weak?

"I suffered terribly and was extremely weak for 12 years. The doctors said my blood was all turning to water. At last I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was soon feeling all right again."

Mrs. J. W. Fiala, Hadlyme, Ct.

No matter how long you have been ill, nor how poorly you may be today, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine you can take for purifying and enriching the blood. Don't doubt it, put your whole trust in it, throw away everything else.

Small bottle, All druggists.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and you will be satisfied.

J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

PORT TREVORTON

The show which was held in town Wednesday night of last week was well attended.

Geo. Strawser and wife of Selinsgrove were the guests of John Hoover and family Friday.

Mrs. Dr. Nipple of Sunbury visited her aged mother, Mrs. Eve Houser, last week.

C. W. Stroth was on the retired list last week.

Sheets Kelly transacted business at Sunbury Wednesday.

Merchant Stroub wife and son, of Herndon passed through town Thursday on their way home from the former's parents at Independence.

Jerre Bogar and wife, who now reside at Shamokin Dam paid the former's parents a visit Thursday.

Lloyd Speece of Speeceville spent some time last week very pleasantly in town with his French cousin who then accompanied him to Sunbury.

As usual our town was well represented at Aqueduct hollow Ascension Day. The day was brighter than it had been for years as not a cloud overshadowed the sky. Two Sunday Schools of that vicinity served refreshments to accommodate the large crowds which had gathered from Snyder, Northumberland, and Juniata counties. There were many happy meetings but just as many sad partings.

Mrs. J. D. Bogar is visiting at South Bethlehem.

Miss Jennie Schrawder spent Thursday with friends at Sunbury.

Master Russell Knights who spent about a month at Sunbury returned home.

Geo. Herrold and wife of Chapman called on the latter's father, Israel Charles, Thursday evening.

Miss Clara Bingaman went to Phila. Sunday.

Jacob Snyder wife and son of Shamokin Dam paid their many relatives a visit last week.

Miss Jennie Charles attended to business at Hickory Corners last week.

Edwin Mitterling of Lewisburg spent Sunday with his wife.

Mrs. Edwin Mitterling is visiting friends at Selinsgrove this week.

Daniel Snyder and wife of Selinsgrove are staying with their son Jerre this week.

James N. Houser was to Selinsgrove Friday.

John Schlegel and wife of Eclipse were in town Monday evening.

Stephen Neitz who was doing masonry work at Sunbury the past week has returned home.

Misses Carrie and Lottie Reichenbach are spending the week with relatives at Paradise.

The United Brethren and United Evangelical Sunday Schools will hold their Children's Day exercises Sunday evening June 2nd and 9th respectively.

Mrs. A. S. Herrold and son, John, enjoyed a visit to Shamokin last week. They returned home accompanied by the husband and father.

Mrs. Jackson Bickle of Independence called on her father, Levi Woodling, last week.

J. C. Neitz who is working at Duncanon spent Sunday with his family. His son, James, resigned his position as clerk in C. W. Knight's store and accompanied his father to the above named place where he has secured employment. S. P. Steffen will fill the vacancy in the store.

Wilson Haupt of Selinsgrove called on his mother-in-law, Susan Stroth, Saturday.

SWINEFORD.

Mrs. Lewis Amig of Selinsgrove visited among friends here last week.

Mrs. Annie Rogers is visiting her husband at Harrisburg.

Philip Amig and wife spent Monday at Freeburg.

Mrs. Cryus Rathton visited her brother at Kreamer last week.

Herbert Smith, who spent several days in Phila returned home.

BUILDERS' HARDWARE

It is an absolutely necessity if you intend to build. You will need many things on which I can save you money.

MY STOCK IS ALWAYS LARGE AND COMPLETE INCLUDING A COMPLETE LINE OF

Reading Hardware Companies'
CELEBRATED LOCKS and INSIDE TRIMMINGS.

Send me your specifications, and I will gladly quote you the price.

ALL GOODS GUARANTEED AS REPRESENTED.

ESTABLISHED IN 1870 W. H. Heim. the Maj. L. Heim Stand.
SUNBURY, PENNA.

ALWAYS DO YOUR THINKING

Before Your Buying

Some Silver-Tongued Talker

may try to make you believe the "moon is green cheese," and it does not matter much whether it is or not, but when you come to

BUYING FARM TOOLS

Don't trust him too far.
 Do some thinking before you buy.

I WOULD LIKE TO SHOW YOU

THE OSBORNE LINE

YOU CAN YOURSELF SEE THE SUPERIOR POINTS

Reno H. Walter,
MIDDLEBURGH, PENNA.

WANTED

25 PERSONS to buy a bed-room suite, consisting of seven pieces for $18.50

We do not deliver these suits out of town for this PRICE.

This offer is to hold good until the present stock is exhausted.

Others will quote you the same grade of suite from $20 to $25.

Our complete line of bed-room suites are extraordinary value. Prices deeply cut and worth your while to consider.

Very respectfully,

W. A. SHIPMAN,
SUNBURY, PA.

439 Market St.
 Undertaking a Specialty.

HUMMEL'S WEAR.

J. H. Railey, who had been on the sick-list, is slowly improving.

Adam Insch and wife attended the funeral of his grand mother, at Grubb's church Monday.

The Sunday School is in a flourishing condition.

We congratulate Brian Teats upon the receiving of a permanent certificate.

Norton Bower, wife, and little daughter spent Sunday with friends in Northumberland.

Misses Katie Trutt and Anna Kreider of Sunbury were visitors at Samuel Trutt's Sunday.

Arthur Noll has received employment in the ax factory at Lewistown and expects to move that place.

How's This?

We offer one hundred dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure by F. J. CHENEY & CO.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. CHENEY for the last 15 years and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transaction and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

WENDE TRUAX, wholesale druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Sold by Druggists, price 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

DR. FENNER'S

Blood & Liver

NERVE TONIC.