

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY
 PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

SELINGSGROVE.

PORT TREVERTON

DUNDORE.

WEST BEAVER.

Home grown strawberries of fine quality are being sold on our streets almost daily.

A game of base ball between the Cuban X Giants and S. U. team was played on Thursday last. Score 13 to 8 in favor of the Giants. That club is composed of colored men from Harrisburg and are a very strong team.

Harry Weis and Wilfred. Focht are home from University of Penna.

Mrs. J. B. Shoup of Fitzgerald, Georgia, who has spent the last three months with her mother and friends, returned to her home one day last week.

Commencement at S. U. promises to be a very fine entertainment and many visitors are expected that week.

Editor Schoch of Lewisburg was a visitor in our town one day last week.

H. D. Schure, wife and daughter are attending the commencement at State College to witness the graduation of their son, Wm.

Mrs. J. Annie Kistner went to Loysville to take the son of Mrs. Jones to the Orphans School located there.

Miss Lizzie Miller went on a trip with her father last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Gensler, who spent about ten days in Phila., had the visit cut short on account of the death of Mrs. Amelia Boyer as the Rev. was her pastor and preached the funeral sermon.

Mrs. Wm. S. Ulrich of Senary Hill, Pa., is visiting her parents, H. L. Phillips and wife.

Miss Neeta Hummel was the happy recipient of a handsome pony and trap.

Mrs. Dr. Spangler, who was visiting at Schuykill Haven for three or four weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Smith entertained a Mrs. Fry of Halle, Lycoming Co., Thursday last.

Forest Holmes, who is employed telegraphing in York State, is at home with his parents for a few days.

Miss Clara Fetzer and Mrs. Myers of Butler Co., sister and aunt of Mrs. E. M. Hummel, are being entertained by the latter.

Miss Minnie Gortner is at home from her studies at Cornell having finished her course.

The alarm of fire was sounded Saturday night about 10 o'clock when it was discovered that the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Sam'l. Fisher at the upper end of town was on fire, as soon as the fire department could get there they put water on and soon had it out, although it had burned quite awhile before word reached the company.

UNION TOWNSHIP.

Reuben Brown of Steelton spent few days of last week here.

William Reigle came home from Antioche where he had been working.

Mrs. E. S. Stahl is visiting among friends at Milton.

F. E. Aucker, who is working in a steam saw mill at Shade Mountain spent Sunday at home.

A. L. Strawser and W. W. Sholly made a business trip to Sunbury last week.

Squire Sechrist transacted business before Squire Pidge last Saturday.

J. F. Borkey is shipping strawberries by the bushel, these berries could demand a fair price, as they are extra fine.

J. B. Stauffer lost a valuable horse last week.

C. O. Gaugler of Selingsgrove was in town Saturday.

The Witmer's United Evangelical Sunday School will hold their annual Children's Day exercises on Sunday evening June 23.

Why the Drowned Man Don't speak, Edward, even if this God say you'll be young enough to bury five years from now.

Oh, I don't care for myself, but how long you'll be young.

Merlin Francis was to Selingsgrove last week.

Frank Keller of Selingsgrove was in town Sunday.

Nelson Shaffer of Steelton spent Sunday with his parents, Sowara Shaffer and wife.

Miss Isora Arnold and sister Mrs. K. P. Bingham are visiting their sister, Mrs. J. O. Spotts at Milton this week.

Mrs. Ed. Mitterling has gone to Lewisburg where she will board with her husband at the Baker House.

Samuel Arnold returned home after spending several months with his brother.

Banks Reichenbach and lady friend of Shamokin were the honored guests of the former's sisters Saturday.

F. P. Houser transacted business at Sunbury Friday.

Master Ralph Foltz visited his grandfather, Henry Foltz, at Seven Stars.

Mr. Shure of Sunbury spent Sunday in town.

Geo. Rine and wife of Kantz were in town last week.

Charles Herrold of Chapman enjoyed a drive to town one night last week.

Edwin Schrawder of Shamokin was in town last week.

Wm. Schrawder, who was employed at Selingsgrove has resigned his position there and accepted another at Lewisburg. He called on his wife Friday before leaving for Lewisburg.

Mrs. Wilson Haupt after spending some time in the South has returned to her home in Selingsgrove and Saturday called on relatives in town.

Miss Jennie Charles is visiting relatives at Selingsgrove, Middleburg and Sunbury.

Mrs. L. F. Charles, son and daughter are spending a week at Sunbury.

Jas. Neitz is again clerking for C. W. Knights.

Quite a number of our town folks attended the Bogar-Smith law suit at Selingsgrove Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Boyer attended the funeral of Mrs. Boyer at Selingsgrove Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Seiler of McKees passed through town Tuesday.

Little Dorothy the two-year-old daughter of Dr. H. S. Krebs and wife died of pneumonia Saturday morning. The funeral took place from their late residence Thursday interment at Witmer's U. Evan. cemetery at Dundore.

The Children's Day exercises held in the U. Evan. church Sunday evening were highly appreciated by our citizens as well as by the people who came from a distance. The house was filled to its utmost capacity.

Prof. Aucker of Sunbury was in town and had charge of the musical part of the entertainment. He not only instructed the choir but also rendered a bass solo which was very effective.

WHITMER.

Jacob Kerstetter took his old boats to Buffalo on Saturday.

Della Fisher visited her grandmother last week.

Carrie Wolf visited Dr. Krebs and family Sunday evening.

Hiram Gaugler the noted farmer and trucker is busy cleaning his onions.

Chas. Krebs was in town Saturday night.

Wilson Bingham is employed on the N. C. R. R. at Fisher's Ferry.

Jacob Gaugler was to Kantz Saturday.

Joe Walborn and wife paid a visit to H. S. Gaugler and family.

Offer the Case.

De Funt (fond of conundrums)—What is the difference between a dignified man and a stupid one?

De Blunt—None at all.—N. Y. Weekly.

He who thinks most feels the noblest, acts the best.

The friends of the Port Trevorton bridge were defeated but not dismayed, so they took a new start at once; shake hands with Shamokin Dam and now we will have two bridges to bring prosperity to our county.

Mrs. Dr. Sheets of Northumberland, Mame Boyer, Minnie E. Eyer and Sara Eyer of Selingsgrove were the guests of Maria W. Dundore Thursday.

Good advertising is a tonic that drives away all the ills of a run down trade.

Our Overseers of the Poor are firm in their convictions and are doing wonders for our tax payers.

Farmers should keep the grass out of their corn fields; cultivation is said to be a sure remedy.

Maria W. Dundore has spring chickens that weigh 3 lbs. each.

Edwin Moyer reports the Freeburg Academy in a flourishing condition.

D. G. Witmer's funeral obsequies were conducted by Rev. Shambach of Middleburg in the german language.

Henry Gaugler and wife of Elizabethville stopped in town on their return from Witmer's funeral.

H. C. Hoover made a business trip to the county seat.

R. W. Witmer of Herndon was seen on our streets.

David Witmer who spent a few weeks in town, returned to his home at Salem to hive some restless bees.

No strawberries offered yet on our streets.

The caterpillars have done their work and are now watching the potato bugs to see what they accomplish.

E. F. Schrawder of Shamokin who clerked a number of years for our merchant has gone into business under very favorable circumstances at Phillipsburg.

Mary Schrawder of Port Trevorton passed through town and called on Maria W. Dundore.

SALEM.

Mrs. Wm. J. Boyer, I. B. Row and wife, Mrs. J. W. Row and daughter, Lillie, attended the funeral of their aunt Mrs. Frank Boyer at Danville Thursday.

F. M. Kern left Wednesday for Chicago.

W. H. Phillips and wife of Aaronsburg visited Geo. M. Witmer's Monday.

C. H. Woodruff after spending a few days with his mother, left Sunday for London, England to be gone several months.

Miss Estella Romig of S. U. was the pleasing guest of C. W. Dinius and family over Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. Musser and daughter, Stella, of Shamokin are visiting at the home of Ezra Meiser.

J. O. Bilger and wife entertained the former's parents of Chillisquitque over Sunday.

Misses Annie Maize and Jennie Seebold of New Berlin called on some of their friends at this place Sunday.

Ira Luck and wife of Pottsgrove spent several days at the home of Mrs. Mary Luck.

Rev. H. G. Snable and wife were to Paxtonville Sunday.

Prof. J. I. Woodruff delivered a very interesting and impressive sermon at this place Sunday morning.

On Sunday the family of G. M. Witmer entertained the Misses Mertz of Northumberland and James D. and Amon Moyer of Freeburg.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, Cashier of the First National Bank of Winter set, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by the Middleburg Drug S

Mrs. Peary Hassinger and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Jenkins.

Mrs. Geo. Hanbrick of Lewis-town was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Henry Treaster Sunday.

The funeral of Millard Wagner was well attended. Buried at the Baker church, Rev. Granly officiated.

The neighbors of Mrs. W. Y. McLaughlin gave her a surprise party last Wednesday evening, it being her 54th birthday. The presents were plenty and useful; ice cream flowed in all parts of the house, for which she returns many thanks.

Howard Wagner of Belleville was here attending the funeral of his half brother, Millard.

John Galvin and family of Yeagertown spent a few days here.

Miss Mollie Steely has been staying with Mrs. L. C. Wagner for the past week.

Mrs. Amanda Wagner has been quite poorly for the past few weeks her recovery is not looked for.

James Steely spent Sunday at home he has been employed in Mifflin County the past few weeks at painting.

Jacob Erb says he is improving since his visit to Hickory Corners, and expects to make another visit this week.

W. H. Knepp took in the sights at the county seat last week. He claims if the right kind of people lived in the town it would most certainly improve. For an example call at Crossgrove.

F. C. S. Peter was home over Sunday visiting his parents.

Black Hair

"I have used your Hair Vigor for five years and am greatly pleased with it. It certainly restores the original color to gray hair. It keeps my hair soft."—Mrs. Helen Kilkenny, New Portland, Me.

Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair for fifty years, and it never fails to do this work, either.

You can rely upon it for stopping your hair from falling, for keeping your scalp clean, and for making your hair grow.

50¢ a bottle. All druggists.

PALLAS NEWS.

Some farmers are making hay.

Mrs. Sarah Schreiber and daughter, Carrie, of Northumberland paid a pleasant visit to their old home last Saturday.

Harvey Straub paid a visit to his parental home and friends Sunday. Mr. Straub has a good position at Shamokin.

A grand festival will be held at Grubb's church Saturday June 15th. The Meiserville cornet band will furnish music. A large crowd is expected.

Call at Middleburg's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are an elegant physic. They also improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

The Rush for franchises Over. Harrisburg, June 11.—The rush for railroad franchises is over. The officials of the state department announced last night that charters have already been granted to 92 railway companies under the Focht and Emery rapid transit bills. The combined capitalization of these companies is $12,000,000 and the total amount of bonus received by the state from them is $42,146.78.

The Rough Riders' Reunion. Colorado Springs, June 11.—The Rough Riders have decided to hold their annual reunion in this city during the quarto-centennial celebration, Aug. 3, 4 and 5. It is expected that Vice President Roosevelt will attend the reunion.

REFRIGERATORS - REFRIGERATORS

Numbered assortment to satisfy most any taste. We have secured the agency for the celebrated BALDWIN DRY AIR BOX It is the original "scientifically built" refrigerator. Their points of superiority over all other boxes, making it the best and cheapest refrigerator on the market.

Everything can be removed, making it easy to clean. Patent "Lip Cup" preventing any warm air from reaching the ice compartment. Every one is guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Prices range from $8 to $17.90 with or without water tank. Screen Doors, Window Screens, Lawn Mowers, Garden Tools, Water Coolers.

W. H. HEIM, Sunbury, Pa.

ALWAYS DO YOUR THINKING Before Your Buying

Some Silver-Tongued Talker

may try to make you believe the "moon is green cheese," and it does not matter much whether it is or not, but when you come to

BUYING FARM TOOLS

Don't trust him too far. Do some thinking before you buy.

I WOULD LIKE TO SHOW YOU THE OSBORNE LINE

YOU CAN YOURSELF SEE THE SUPERIOR POINTS

Reno H. Walter, MIDDLEBURGH PENN.,

WANTED

25 PERSONS to buy a bed-room suite, consisting of seven pieces for $15.50

We do not deliver these suits out of town for this PRICE. This offer is to hold good until the present stock is exhausted. Others will quote you the same grade of suite from $20 to $23.

Our complete line of bed-room suites are extraordinary value. Prices deeply cut and worth your while to consider.

Very respectfully,
W. A. SHIPMAN, SUNBURY, PA.

439 Market St. Undertaking a Specialty.

A Sensational SALE

Freedman's Bargain Season.

Owing to the Spring season on hand we offer you WONDERFUL BARGAINS in the beautiful line of Negligee Shirts, beautiful Shirt Waists up-to-date. The very latest styles in Gents' Furnishing Goods at a great reduction in prices as follows:

MEN'S SUITS.

Everything in proportion we are compelled to reduce, because we made our purchase too heavy for this season. By purchasing ten dollars worth of goods, we will pay half fare.

$16.00 Suits cut down to $13.00
 14.00 Suits cut down to 11.00
 12.00 Suits cut down to 9.90
 10.00 Suits cut down to 7.89
 8.00 Suits cut down to 5.00

WOLF FREEDMAN, 314 E. Market St. (Loeb's Old Stand) SUNBURY, PA.

Try four full quarts of Hayner's Seven-Year-Old Rye, express prepaid, for $8.20. For particulars, see announcements of The Hayner Distilling Co., Dayton, Ohio, which appears elsewhere in this issue.

LEARN TELEGRAPHY For Railroad and Commercial Service. Typewriting Course Free. Laying Plans Guaranteed. Catalogue Free. Pike Telegraph School, Lebanon, Pa. 5-22