Robert—Yes, sir.
Parson Goodman—And what is the goal, Robert?

Robert—Two posts with a wire stretched between them, sir.—Judge.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver, you may know that his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Middleburg's drug store.
