IN COMBINATION WITH THE POST.

We give below some clubbing combinations with the POST. The rates quoted are very low.

The New York Tri-Weekly Tribune and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.75.

The Tri-Weekly is published Monday, Wednesday and Friday, reaches a large proportion of subscribers on date of publication, and each edition is a thoroughly up-to-date daily family newspaper for busy people.

The New York Weekly Tribune and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.25.

The Weekly Tribune is published on Thursday, and gives all important news of nation and world, the most reliable market reports, unexcelled agricultural department, reliable general information and choice and entertaining miscellany. It is the "people's paper" for the entire United States, a national family paper for farmers and city dwellers.

The New York Tri-Weekly World and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Tri-Weekly World comes three times a week, is filled with the latest news of the country and is well worth the price asked for it.

The Practical Farmer, one year, and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, $1.50. Both of the above papers and the Practical Farmer Year Book and Agricultural Almanac for 1900, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Practical Farmer, one of the best farm papers published, issued weekly, at $1.00 year. The year book contains 600 pages in which there is a fund of information that is useful to the farmer. The price of this book alone is 95 cents, and the Year Book for only $1.65.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson in the International Series for June 23, 1901—A New Heaven and a New Earth.

(Prepared by H. C. Loring.)
THE LESSON TEXT.
(Revelation 21:1-4, 23-27.)

1. And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.

5. And He that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And He said unto me, Write for these words are true and faithful.

6. And He said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be My son.

8. And I saw no temple therein; for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

9. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it; for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

10. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it; and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it.

11. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day; for there shall be no night there.

12. And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.

13. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

GOLDEN TEXT.—He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God and he shall be my son.—Rev. 21:7.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.
This is the culmination of all Scriptural teaching, and it is perhaps the clearest vision of Heaven given anywhere in all the Bible. The whole account embraces chapters 21 and 22, which may be briefly summarized as follows:

The New Jerusalem.....21:1-5, 22:3
Blessing and Cursing.....21:6-8, 22:3
The City.....21:10-17, 22:3
Heavenly Worship.....21:22-23
An Invitation.....21:26-27

The New Jerusalem.—Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship. Daniel and his friends in captivity prayed with their faces towards Jerusalem. Sin has obscured the face of God from man. But sin will be finally banished from this earth, and there will be a new and a better Jerusalem where men will continue to worship God, but in a manner they never had before. For God will dwell among His people, and the harmony of universal righteousness will prevail. This reign of righteousness will mean the entire absence of sorrow and weeping. There will be only gladness and mirth. In verses 9 and 10 comes again the thought of Jerusalem as the place of worship, and the church is represented as the "bride of the Lamb." It was a place of exceedingly great beauty. Its glory and grandeur can only be represented by visions of fine gold and all the costly stones. Nothing will enter this city that will mar or deface its beauty. It is a significant thought the author puts in apposition the thoughts of "worketh abomination" and "maketh a lie." Of all the abominations of earth the lie is easily leader, for it fathers all the others.

Blessing and Cursing.—In chapter 21 are contained two promises and a curse. The first promise is the water of life to him that thirsteth. The second is to him that overcometh, he shall inherit all things; "and I will be his God, and he shall be My son." Sonship with such a God is surely the highest possible gift in even the Divine power. The curse is just as great as the promises, namely: exclusion from participation in such great blessings, refusal to even enter the beautiful city.

No Night There.—Two notable things about the heavenly city are the river of water, "pure," and "proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb," and the fact of there being no night. At the close of the day of toil comes the night of rest. Over yonder there will be no weariness, hence no need of the night of rest. Then night time stands for the gloom of sorrow and disappointment. The perpetual day of gladness is the promise beyond this vale of tears. The character of the light is God Himself, which means perfect mutual understanding and eternal peace.

Heavenly Worship.—Two things are to be noticed concerning the worship of the new Jerusalem. The first is that there is to be worship, and the second is that this worship is not to be of the abstract right, but of a personal God. John fell down to worship the angel, a case of human weakness worshipping Divine goodness, but John was rebuked, the angel commanding John to "worship God."

An Invitation.—"Whoever will, let him take of the water of life freely." Now is the time to come. In the last day "the unjust" and "the filthy" will have no desire to mend their ways; only the righteous will then be prepared to enjoy the celestial beauties.

International Association Prepared to Continue the Strike.

TO AID NON-UNION STRIKERS.
Financial Assistance For All Who Went Out—Already $40,000 Has Been Distributed, and a Special Strike Fund of $150,000 is Still Intact.

Toronto, Ont., June 11.—The International Machinists' association, in convention yesterday, decided to extend financial aid to non-union men who went out with members of the association. President O'Connell stated that officials were not restricted as to the amount non-union men should receive, but he added that in any event it would be sufficient to induce them to remain in the fight to the end. Since May 20 over $40,000 has been distributed among strikers, and as yet no regular system of benefits has gone into force.

A resolution was passed asking the American Federation of Labor to levy an assessment, as provided for in their constitution, to provide funds for the strikers. In the event of a long drawn out fight an appeal for aid will also be made to the trade organizations of Great Britain, who were assisted by the machinists in their struggle for an eight hour day.

Regarding the question of finances, President O'Connell stated that a special strike fund amounting to over $150,000 was still intact.

The convention almost unanimously voted down a resolution pledging the association to socialism. It was also decided that a certificate of death from a Christian scientist doctor would not be recognized in the future in a claim for death benefits.

The committee on laws has finished its labors. The constitutions of local lodges were adopted. The question arose as to the desirability of removing headquarters of the order from Washington to some more central point, Chicago or Cleveland being mentioned. A decision will be made later.

President O'Connell received word yesterday that 25 firms in California had granted shorter hours and an increase in pay.

Milwaukee is the favorite for the next place of meeting and will likely get it.

Unger and Brown Sentenced For Insurance Frauds.
F. H. SMILEY PLEADED GUILTY
And Turned State's Evidence—Attempted to Secure Twenty-five Thousand Dollars on the Life of Marie Defenbach, a Co-Conspirator.

Chicago, June 11.—Dr. August M. Unger and E. Wayland Brown, on trial for conspiracy to defraud insurance companies, through the death of Miss Marie Defenbach, were last evening found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary under the indeterminate act. Frank H. Smiley, indicted with Unger and Brown, pleaded guilty and turned state's evidence. It is likely that he will escape with a light sentence.

The evidence in the case showed that Unger, Brown, Smiley and Miss Defenbach entered into a conspiracy by which Smiley was to appear as the affianced husband of the woman. She was then to be ill and apparently die, leaving the insurance, which included one policy in a stock company and two in fraternal organizations, the total aggregating $25,000. The woman in her will said that she desired her remains to be cremated, and it is supposed that it was the intention to hurry her away after her supposed death and cremate another body procured from a hospital.

The woman became ill according to program, but did not rally, and died. Her body was at once cremated. An inquest was held by Assistant Coroner John B. Weekler without a jury, and Weekler returned to the coroner's office a verdict that the woman had died of natural causes. The death of the woman is shrouded in mystery, and physicians on the stand differed widely as to the cause of death. The state however, declared that the woman was murdered, although it could not be positively proven. It was shown that all the insurance carried by the woman was assigned before her death and that her will was drawn up after these assignments had been made. The will had no effect, save in the clause touching cremation, and it is claimed by the state that the will was prepared only to facilitate the disposition of the body after death.

King Edward Rewards Men Who Made Records in Africa.
London, June 11.—This morning, the Horse Guards' parade, King Edward, accompanied by the queen, distributed the South African medals amid imposing and elaborate military displays. Their majesties used the beautiful Indian tent which the king brought back from his Indian tour. The Moorish embassy witnessed the ceremonies. The first recipients of the medals were Earl Roberts and Lord Milner, who were followed by a crowd of generals and staff officers, including Gens. Buller, Warren, Gatacre, Colville, Pole-Carew and others. Medals were bestowed also upon the various foreign military attaches with the British forces in South Africa, including Capt. Stephen Sloum, U. S. A., together with a host of surgeons, nurses, and other persons, including Lady Sarah Wilson.

THE MACHINISTS' FIGHT.

Trying to Keep Chinese Reformer Out.
San Francisco, June 11.—Collector of the Port Stratton recommended to the treasury department yesterday that Su Shih Chin, the Chinese reformer and scholar, be allowed to land under section 6 of the exclusion act, as a trader. The Chinese authorities in this country are very anxious to keep Su Shih Chin out for political reasons. He is the leader of the reform party which is seeking to place Emperor Kwang Hsu on the throne, instead of the dowager empress. Pending the decision of the treasury department, Su Shih Chin is held at the Pacific Mail dock. There is a reward of $50,000 on his head.

THE MACHINISTS' FIGHT.

The Lawson Cup Races Abandoned.
Boston, June 11.—The proposed races off the North Shore between the Shamrock II and Constitution, the Independence and the Columbia for Mr. Lawson's $1,000 cup will probably be abandoned. Members of the Hull Massachusetts Yacht club committee said yesterday that the accident to the Shamrock II, with its postponement of the America's cup race would place the North Shore races too late in the fall. It was proposed that Mr. Lawson should offer his $1,000 cup for a special race at the time of the series off Newport.

THE MACHINISTS' FIGHT.

Applauding Uncle Sam's Decision.
London, June 11.—The Times, in the course of an editorial today on the Chinese indemnity guarantees, says: "Doubtless the United States are actuated by the same reasons as Great Britain in declining a joint guarantee of the Chinese indemnity. The Americans are business like people. They are no more likely to lend credit than money to oblige China's creditors, and Washington's decision must have been foreseen and discounted long ago."

THE MACHINISTS' FIGHT.

Norfolk Machinists Victorious.
Norfolk, Va., June 11.—The machinists' strike in Norfolk was settled yesterday and the machine shop proprietors signed an agreement granting a 9 hour day with 10 hours' pay. The workmen made some concessions on other points in their demands, but the result is a victory for the machinists.

Our recent acquisition of new territory, which is justified by many on the score of our necessities as a rapidly multiplying race, has revived popular interest in the discussion of the question as to how many people, under present condition of arts, could be supported on the soil of the United States. By the greatest possible economy and utilization of our natural resources, how large a population could subsist on the products of our soil? Of course, says the Chicago Record-Herald, those who are familiar with the vast unoccupied and undeveloped tracts in our domain are not apprehensive considering the future subsistence of the race. But the "possible population" of this country is none the less interesting as a topic of economic investigation. The Yangtze valley in China, with an area of 600,000,000 square miles, has a population of 170,000,000, or over two persons to the acre. Belgium, the most densely populated country in Europe, has about 540 people to the square mile, or less than one to an acre. For the United States to support one person to the acre would mean a deep and far-reaching transformation in utilization of the natural resources of the continent. According to the

Our recent acquisition of new territory, which is justified by many on the score of our necessities as a rapidly multiplying race, has revived popular interest in the discussion of the question as to how many people, under present condition of arts, could be supported on the soil of the United States. By the greatest possible economy and utilization of our natural resources, how large a population could subsist on the products of our soil? Of course, says the Chicago Record-Herald, those who are familiar with the vast unoccupied and undeveloped tracts in our domain are not apprehensive considering the future subsistence of the race. But the "possible population" of this country is none the less interesting as a topic of economic investigation. The Yangtze valley in China, with an area of 600,000,000 square miles, has a population of 170,000,000, or over two persons to the acre. Belgium, the most densely populated country in Europe, has about 540 people to the square mile, or less than one to an acre. For the United States to support one person to the acre would mean a deep and far-reaching transformation in utilization of the natural resources of the continent. According to the

Judging from this mud item in the Herald of New Hampton, Mo., the roan is in that vicinity must be in bad shape: "Amos Fox saw a hat on the road near his house the other day and managed by wading through the deep mud to reach it and pick it up. Imagine his surprise when he found George Wilson under it."

"It sounds like fiction," says a New York correspondent, "but there were lambs to-day waving bundles of money under the noses of certain Wall street brokers who could not and would not accept their orders." Some of the baffled amateurs almost wept. Those who got in will weep later on.

Quite a Relief.
Husband—What do you do when you hit your thumb with a hammer? You can't swear.

Wife—No; but I can think with all my might and main what a perfectly horrid, mean, inconsiderate, selfish brute you are not to drive the nails yourself.—N. Y. Weekly.
