

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY

PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

SELINGSGROVE.

Mrs. B. E. Emrick and children and Mrs. Annie Strohn and sons of Carlisle are spending several weeks with their mother, Mrs. P. R. Waggoner.

Dr. Emrick spent a day or two working in part of the commencement.

The commencement exercises were well attended and were very interesting beginning with the Society debate at eve. The Baccalaureate sermon, the address to the Y. M. C. A. Monday the class day exercise on the campus, music by the 12th Regt. Band, Tuesday the music elocutionary recital and the reception of the Literary Societies, the philo being exceptionally fine, the active and experienced doing honors to the invited guests. The Clio had an exercise which was enjoyed, the Banquet and Junior oratorical contest, and the field sports were largely attended and highly appreciated, the concert of the combined clubs was immense; the house being crowded and standing room was scarce. The young men were at their best. The graduating exercises were on Thursday and were very good. On every hand we could hear from the strangers in our midst, what fine exercises and such excellent music.

Among the many at the exercises we noticed the following.

Miss Blanch Gable of Harrisburg, at Fred. Ulrich's.

Miss Jones of Newport, at Miss Bessie Ulrich's.

Miss Byerly of Herndon, at J. M. Boyer's.

Miss Mildred Fortney of N. Y. at Miss Hattie Zigler's.

Miss Roush of Sunbury with Miss Mary Schure.

Miss Gibson of Sunbury at Miss Bertha Meiser's.

Mrs. Keboch at the Keystone.

Mr. Sims at H. L. Philip's.

Harry Hare at Keystone.

F. E. Woodley at Keystone.

Mrs. W. H. Ulsh and cousin left for Driftwood Monday.

Chas. Wetzel of Steelton is visiting relatives in town.

The Children's day exercise in the Trinity Luth. church Sunday was very fine. The most of it was rendered by the primary school.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by the Middleburg Drug Store.

UNION TOWNSHIP.

A. E. Aucker and wife spent Sunday with friends at Riverside.

Rev. J. H. Maice (the blind evangelist) and wife of York Pa. are visiting at H. H. Sechrist's.

Foster C. Fisher of Salem, mingled among friends here last week.

Chas. Mengle of Mt Pleasant Mills is working for W. J. Herman.

Charles H. Sechrist of Shamokin Dam spent Sunday at home.

D. W. Stahl is building a complete threshing machine.

Our poplar watch and clock repairer, A. E. Aucker, has his shingle out to indicate his trade.

If our road tax this year will be in proportion to the amount of work done on our roads it will be small.

E. R. Zimmerman fell from his wheel Sunday. He is still carrying some external token of remembrance.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver, you may know that his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Middleburg's drug store.

PORT TREVERTON

Mrs. L. F. Charles made a business trip to Chapman Saturday.

Miss Dilla Sholly is visiting her parents, Daniel Sholly and wife.

Mrs. G. C. Faust and son are visiting their parents and grandparents respectively, Wm. Boyer and wife.

Photographer Bailey of Pallas was in town Saturday.

Miss Jennie Charles attended commencement at Selingsgrove last week.

Harvey Bogar, a graduate of C. P. C., New Berlin, and Bucknell University, Lewisburg, is enjoying the hospitality of his parents, John Bogar and wife.

Clarence Lenig of Milton circulated among friends over Sunday.

Robert Ferry, wife and daughter of Kantz mingled with relatives Saturday.

Mrs. Moses Brubaker and daughter, Jennie, of Eclipse were business callers here Saturday.

Henry Hoot and wife of Dundore passed through our little progressive town Saturday.

H. F. Charles was to Freeburg Sunday.

Daniel Snyder and daughter, Maria, of Selingsgrove, spent Sunday with his son, Jerre, and family.

Richard Koltz, who is employed at Duncannon, spent Sunday with his family.

Mrs. M. H. Herrold has gone to Lewisburg to see her daughter, Mrs. David Burkey, who is very ill.

Guy Neitz of Sunbury is visiting his uncle and aunt, S. P. Steffen and wife.

Adam Reif and wife and William Fisher, wife and son spent Sunday with relatives of Salem.

P. G. Shambach transacted business at Selingsgrove Saturday.

George Rine and wife of Kantz were the esteemed guests of the latter's parents, Henry Keller and wife, over Sunday.

Considering the inclemency of the weather Saturday evening, the festival which was held by the Mite Society of the U. B. church was well attended. The refreshments consisted of turtle soup, ice cream, straw berries and cake.

Mrs. Oliver Spotts and children of Milton are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Arnold.

George Herrold and wife, sister, Viola Herrold, daughter, Mrs. Fred Attinger, and grandson, Frank Attinger of Chapman passed through town Saturday.

Baker Shaffer of Selingsgrove was an all around man at the festival.

H. F. Charles and wife were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. George Herrold and husband, Sunday.

David Fox and wife of Millersburg were in town to attend the funeral of his brother, Christopher, Tuesday.

Chas. Witmer of Williamsport is visiting his brother-in-law, James Schaffer and wife.

T. G. Herrold of Chapman made his hebdomadal trip to our town Saturday night.

A crowd of about sixty of the leading people of town were to witness Sunday evening to witness the Children's Day exercises in the U. E. church. There was a crowded house and the exercises rendered were very interesting and were appreciated by all. The floral decorations were superb.

Chas. Aucker of Verdilla was in town Friday.

G. A. R. of Selingsgrove was well represented at Christopher Fox's funeral Tuesday.

Mr. Michael of Georgetown spent Sunday at the Port Treverton House.

George Strawser of Selingsgrove was in town several times during the week.

DUNDORE.

Economy in youth means an easy chair in old age.

Katharine Miller of Fremont called on Maria W. Dundore before starting for Phila. where she has secured a situation.

Isaac Campbell of Herndon spent last Sabbath with his parents.

Henry Witmer is a successful coal digger in the Susquehanna.

J. P. Wise is on the sick list.

Wilson Bingaman is working for a party at Trevorton.

Daniel Wolf is mowing briars for N. T. Dundore.

Old potatoes were very much in demand.

Dr. Nipple and wife of Sunbury on their return from a visit to Port Trevorton, halted a few moments in town, and the Dr. is full of rail road news of interest to our side of the river.

W. S. Reichenbach is confined to his room with rheumatism.

Our Overseers of the Poor have $550 uncollected outstanding taxes but have no money to feed the poor.

John Houser, the deaf mute of Port Trevorton, was in town ready to communicate in his own way.

Capt. Kise of Phila. called on our merchant.

Alice Bollinger and son of near Freeburg were in town on business.

Squire Sechrist held a widow's appraisal at Port Trevorton.

The exhibition of roses and the service of song last Sabbath evening at the Children's Day services at the Witmer U. E. church were exceptionally fine.

Maria W. Dundore made a trip to Selingsgrove on business and called on her niece, Sarah Eyer.

Wm. Aucker was burning brush one night last week and Herndon, Selingsgrove and Port Trevorton used the 'phone freely to ascertain where barn was burning.

Dr. Krebs called Toehill to look after one of his patients.

Farmers are looking for a heavy wheat crop.

J. W. Wise sold a horse to a party from Harrisburg.

Susan Wagner spent an evening with Maria W. Dundore.

Our town is exceedingly picturesque at present; the scenery is enchanting and our suburbs are in the midst of prosperity, foremost among them, Toehill, Hot Springs and Battletown.

John Houtz of Freeburg, the enterprising cigar peddler, was in town on business.

At Dundore's store you can have butter at any price and get for eggs any price you ask.

Maria W. Dundore and Minnie E. Eyer were to the funeral of their uncle, H. G. Herrold at Milton.

George Kratzer got a new Deerling mower.

HOFFER

J. H. Kreitzer, who is employed at Milton, was at home on a visit from Thursday to Monday.

W. H. Arnold, who is working in the asylum at Harrisburg is home on a vacation.

Wm. Hile is very happy since he is grandpa.

J. T. Wendt left for McClure last week to work.

Our blacksmith took a trip to Sunbury last week.

W. B. Rine bought a bicycle from Jno. Hummel, the new bicycle dealer. He does quite well for a beginner.

Albert Leffler returned home again from Duncannon.

J. P. Reitz and family returned home to Winfield Monday after spending Sunday with his sister at this place.

Mrs. Frank Heim visited her parents at Fremont last week.

Misses Mamie and Irene Krotzer spent a day at Independence last week.

Thomas Herrord and Mr. Bergy of Chapman transacted business here Saturday.

Lottie Heckard spent last week at Georgetown.

John Rice wears a smile because brand new boy has called to stay.

MEISERVILLE.

The rain Saturday evening was welcome.

The festival at Oriental was well attended. By all appearance some came home bare-footed.

Wm. Gamby our supervisor is repairing the roads.

David Meiser and wife attended the funeral of Henry Nagle near Richfield Thursday.

Miss Minerva Stroup of Phila. was visiting her brother, Wesley, over Sunday.

Robert Wendt has a very sore hand on account of rheumatism.

Stuart Hall of Mc Kees was in town last Saturday.

G. W. Portzline was stretching wire with horses last week and during his work the wire caught at a stump, and in trying to loosen the wire he did not take notice that the horses were pulling, when it suddenly slipped off catching him, threw him about ten feet away and landed him squarely in a mud hole; there was nothing dry about him except his number 12 boots which he couldn't get in.

George Hall, our young merchant, is doing a good business; he is a strictly honest and an upright man.

Some of our farmers are cutting grass.

J. A. Moyer of Freeburg was the guest of G. W. Portzline last Sunday.

Reiley Weaver, our lumber dealer, is kept busy every day selling his lumber.

Rev. E. E. Gilbert of Fremont passed through here Saturday.

Prof. H. E. Keiter, who attends Ursinus College at Collegeville, Pa., is at home again and we are glad to hear that his brother, W. S. Keiter, who is now employed as Professor of Mathematics at Ursinus Academy, graduated this spring with second honors.

Gray?

"My hair was falling out and turning gray very fast. But your Hair Vigor stopped the falling and restored the natural color."—Mrs. E. Z. Benomne, Cohoes, N. Y.

It's impossible for you not to look old, with the color of seventy years in your hair! Perhaps you are seventy, and you like your gray hair! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. In less than a month your gray hair will have all the dark, rich color of youth.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

GLOBE MILLS

Mrs. Henry Hottenstein and daughter spent Sunday in Freeburg.

Charles Stuck of Cammal spent a few days with his wife and children.

Frank Snyder, the traveling basket maker, is again camping at Globe Mills.

David Row's many friends are glad to see him about again.

Allen Snyder and wife of Selingsgrove spent Sunday with A. A. Ulrich and wife.

Mable Row of Beavertown spent Sunday at home.

Samuel Hummel and wife of Beavertown spent Sunday with B. F. Walter and family.

The festival given by the Sunday school of this place was well attended considering the weather.

A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by the Middleburg Drug Store.

MIDDLEBURG.

One Grand and Glorious Holiday
MONDAY, JULY 1.
Exhibition Lot: Fair Grounds

COMING BY SPECIAL TRAIN

WELSH BROTHERS NEWEST GREAT R.R. SHOWS.

ROYAL IMPERIAL JAPANESE CIRCUS,
GOLIATHIC MUSEUM AND COMBINED
TRAINED ANIMAL EXPOSITION.

THE MOST STUPENDOUS ARENUE REVIEW
EVER OFFERED IN ONE RING.

500-EXTRAORDINARY FEATURES AND STRANGE SIGHTS-500

HUGE WATER-PROOF TENTS. SEATS FOR FOUR THOUSAND PERSONS. NO BETTER SHOW WILL VISIT HERE THIS SEASON.

CONSOLIDATED WITH
Chas. Lee Great London R. R. Shows
For This Day and Date Only
These Two Monster Popular Priced
R. R. Shows of America, under our Immense Water Proof Canvas for our Price of Admission.

Don't fail to see Capt. Chas. Lewis in his 100 ft. high dive for life, free on show ground at 1 and 7 P. M.

The price of adms-
25c sion has 25c been reduced to

At the afternoon performance all
Children (UNDER 10 YEARS OF AGE) will be admitted for 10 cents, but at night the price will be 25 cents for everybody.

GRANDSPECTACULAR FREE STREET
PARADE at 11 A. M., WORTH COM-ING MANY MILES TO WITNESS.