

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY

PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

PENNSYLVANIA EVENTS.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 16.—Valuable copper deposits have been discovered at Evans Falls, Wyoming county. Specimens of the ore were submitted to Prof. Horn, of Dickinson College, Carlisle, and he found that 65 per cent was copper. A Wilkesbarre syndicate has purchased the land and will develop the mines.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 15.—Leo Bodish, of Williamsport, was found dead yesterday in a field near Rockville bridge, one mile east of Marysville. His throat was cut in four places and by his side lay a bloody razor. The authorities are not positive whether Bodish committed suicide or was murdered. He was 24 years old, and was a wood worker.

Scranton, Pa., July 16.—A mogul engine of the "hog" type on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, while going into the tank switch at Gouldsboro, Pa., yesterday, ran into two connected "hogs" coming out. Fireman Howe, of this city, on the engine was killed, and Engineer Harrington was fatally injured. Fireman Phillips, of the out-coming engine, was injured, as were also brakemen Proper and Neal.

Lancaster, Pa., July 15.—The sixth annual convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance of the districts of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia, now in session at Rocky Springs, was yesterday addressed by the following speakers: Rev. A. E. Funk, New York; Rev. M. B. Fuller, missionary to India; Rev. L. B. Quick, missionary to China; Rev. E. D. Whiteside, of Pittsburgh; and Rev. F. W. Meminger, of Chicago.

Reading, Pa., July 11.—William Jones, a negro, aged 44 years, was placed in jail here last evening on the charge of being implicated in the murder of John Edwards, whose wife and daughter Mary are already under arrest on suspicion of connection with the crime. Jones had no statement to make. The mother takes her arrest coolly, but the girl has been crying from time to time ever since she was locked up. Neither knows that the other is in prison. They have told some contradictory stories.

Scranton, July 13.—The United Mine Workers' convention of the First district closed yesterday, to meet again in Wilkesbarre next January, it being decided to meet semi-annually hereafter. The request of the Seventh district miners that the other districts join them in a movement to curtail the output was discussed, but it would not be given out whether or not any action was taken. At the afternoon session a gold badge was presented to Fred Dilcher, the retiring national organizer.

Altoona, Pa., July 16.—The Bluff County Democratic convention held here yesterday elected A. V. Dively, J. F. Shute, T. H. Greedy, R. A. Henderson and Louis Casey delegates to the state convention. Resolutions were adopted condemning the Republican state administration for profligacy and general unfitness, and endorsing Judge Yerkes for the supreme court nomination, and Representative Coray, independent Republican for the nomination for state treasurer. The county committee was instructed to name a county ticket at its earliest convenience.

Indiana, Pa., July 12.—One of the largest coal deals in the history of the county was completed a few days ago and the particulars in regard to the matter just came out yesterday, when the deeds for the transfer were filed. The land included in the deal is the famous Eldersridge field, which lies partly in Indiana and partly in Armstrong counties. It consists of 6,000 acres and is considered the finest coal field which yet remains unopened in this part of the state. The price paid was $125 per acre and the total amount involved in the deal is a trifle over $750,000.

Greensburg, Pa., July 10. The Jamison Coal and Coke company, of this town, with a purchase made yesterday now own the largest body of coal owned by an independent company in western Pennsylvania. The company has just closed a deal for 2,300 acres of coal in Salem and Hempfield townships, practically acquiring the entire Pittsburgh seam of coal north of the Pennsylvania railroad in this county. The consideration was $1,118,000. A modern plant, consisting of structural steel tipples, shaft, railroad siding, etc. will be erected at once, and employment will be given to 1,500 men.

Altoona, Pa., July 12.—One hundred thousand people viewed the great parade in this city last evening in honor of the Altoona company of the Forty-third regiment, which returned yesterday after 17 months service in the Philippine islands. Of the 75 men who went out to the Philippines two were killed, two died of disease, and one was wounded and sent home. The captain, John S. Fair, and private George Steele, have been appointed lieutenants in the regular army and sergeant McClay has been recommended to congress for a medal of honor for unusual gallantry and personal bravery in saving the life of an officer.

Carnegie, Pa., July 15.—Brother killed brother during a quarrel over a game of craps, in East Carnegie yesterday afternoon. Paul Butler, colored, and his brother Frank, in company with several other colored friends, went to the back of East Carnegie, near Idlewood, and began to shoot craps. The men were all playing pleasantly, when a quarrel arose between the two brothers, over 5 cents. They were sitting on the grass beside each other and after several angry names had been called back and forth, the two men rose to their feet. Frank pulled a 38-calibre revolver from his pocket and fired twice at his brother's head. Both shots took effect.

BRYAN NOT THE ISSUE

So Says Eminent Nebraskan In Speaking of Ohio Convention.

SHOULD HAVE BEEN PLATFORM

Ohio Democrats Criticized for Failing to Reaffirm Kansas City Plank. Money Question Not Yet Dead. Nominees of Convention Endorsed.

Lincoln, Neb., July 16.—In extended comment on the platform adopted by the Ohio Democratic convention, W. J. Bryan criticizes the convention for its failure to reaffirm the Kansas City platform and for what he regards as the weakness of some of the planks it did adopt. Mr. Bryan insists that the convention made a mistake in making himself an issue, and says: "Mr. Bryan is not a candidate for any office, and a mention of him might have been construed by some as an endorsement of him for office. The vote should have been upon the naked proposition to endorse the platform of last year, and then no one could have excused his abandonment of Democratic principles by pleading his dislike for Mr. Bryan."

Referring to the platform he continues: "The convention not only failed, but refused to endorse or reaffirm the Kansas City platform, and, from the manner in which the gold plank has rejoiced over this feature of the convention, one would suppose that the main object of the convention was not to write a new platform, but to repudiate the one upon which the last national campaign was fought. The gold plank assume that the convention refused to adopt the Kansas City platform because it contained a silver plank. If so, it would have been more courageous to have declared openly for the gold standard. If the gold standard is good, it ought to have been endorsed—if bad, it ought to have been denounced. To ignore the subject entirely was inexcusable."

"The money question is not yet out of politics. Every session of congress will have to deal with it. Republicans declare that it is dead, but they keep working at it."

Mr. Bryan comments on parts of the platform, especially those referring to state and municipal affairs. He endorses the nominees of the convention and urges their support.

Referring to the senatorial fight and the reported candidacy of John R. McLean he says: "Did the leaders ignore the money question in order to please those who bolted? Or does Mr. McLean want to be left free to affiliate with the Republican financial questions in case of his election?" He concludes as follows: "If any of the Ohio Democrats feel aggrieved because the re-organizing element of the party triumphed at the convention let not them visit their disappointment upon the state ticket, but rather see to the nominations of senators and representatives who will select a trustworthy senator. Let them see to it also that the state platform is made at the primaries next time rather than at the convention."

HANNA VISITS MCKINLEY.

Ohio Senator Hopes Steel Strike Will Be Adjusted.

Canton, O., July 16.—Senator Hanna spent yesterday afternoon with a resident McKinley. He arrived from Cleveland was met at the station by Secretary Cortelyou. He returned to Cleveland last night. It is said there is no significance in his visit, that he had not seen the President for a long time and that he came here to pay his respects and to talk over some personal matters.

Senator Hanna expressed himself as pleased with the political prospects of the country in general and in Ohio in particular. Prosperity and the lack of reason for a change, he thinks, will be the slogan of the Republicans in Ohio. He says the contest will be on national lines. Of the steel strike, he said, it threatened some labor troubles, but he hoped it would be adjusted without serious trouble.

Riots in Austria.

London, July 6.—"More than 100 persons, including troops and police, were wounded yesterday in an encounter at Lemberg," says the Vienna correspondent of The Daily Express, "growing out of an attempt by the police to stop street parades held in demonstration on behalf of the unemployed. The mob threw up barricades and defied the police. The troops were called in and charged again and again, using bayonets and bullets. Ultimately the demonstrators were dislodged. Lemberg is strongly guarded by troops, but it is reported that the mob is preparing for another fight."

Free Fight in Court Room.

Upper Sandusky, O., July 15.—During the progress of the Johnson murder trial here yesterday Willis Miller, the defendant, attacked Guard Grundtisch of the county jail, who had just given testimony which Miller characterized as perjury. A brother and sister of Miller joined in the attack on Grundtisch, and a desperate struggle ensued. A general fight followed and the court room was turned into a bedlam. A number of women fainted, and others screamed in terror. When they tried to leave the room they were trampled on by the excited mob.

Ex-Senator Pugh Very Ill.

Washington, July 16.—Ex-Senator Pugh of Alabama, is seriously ill at his home in this city with liver trouble. Saturday night the senator was in an extremely critical condition, but he rallied and yesterday his condition was slightly more favorable. He advanced age, over 80 years, is against him.

KREAMER.

D. F. Rau, Albert Leitzel and Frank Denius are on the sick list. There are but little hopes for his recovery.

James Magee and wife spent last week with a fishing party West of Forest Hill. Over 300 trout were landed. There were 29 in the party.

The citizens are beginning to realize that the Middleburg Post, the leader of Snyder County journalism, knows what it is talking about when it says Kreamer ought to have some manufacturing plant. The Post is the only paper in the county that has had enterprise enough to advocate building up all the towns of the county and by the way the Post has taught Scotty, the ego, a very useful lesson.

Irvin E. Buck and Ralph Clelan of Middleburg were Kreamer visitors Saturday evening.

J. Alvin Schroyer of Globe Mills and Miss Myrtle Longnecker of Plainfield, Cumberland Co., drove through town Sunday evening of last week.

Frank Seaman, F. I. Roush, W. J. Heintzelman and Miss Mabel Gutelius are attending normal at Middleburg.

Our enterprising farmer, A. D. Kreamer, sold his heavy bay team of horses last week to the Danville Fire Company for $450. There was no better team of horses in the county than this and Mr. Kreamer had to take them out of the binder. We congratulate Mr. Kreamer on his success.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. CURTIS BAKER, Bookwalter, Ohio. Sold by the Middleburg Drug Co.

DUNDORE.

Where there is honey there are bees.

H. F. Witmer has a good market for the coal he takes out of the river.

The onion crop this year is unusually large and prices are satisfactory.

Mary Shafer of Port Trevorton an afternoon one day last week with Maria W. Dundore.

J. S. Shafer is our most successful onion farmer; his favorite is the yellow Denver.

During a thunder storm last Thursday lightning struck a tree near the residence of J. W. Wise and split his pump stalk and stunned some of the family.

There is market in town for a few shoats.

The town bell will ring when the bells of town will exchange single misery for married felicity.

H. H. Sechrist has an abundance of all kinds of berries this season.

Ed. Witmer has finished hay making and expects a good market for his crop.

Some of our young people took in the festival at Port Trevorton last Saturday evening.

The whistle of the threshing machine is heard already but wheat is not shelling out as expected.

Nathan Hackenberg and family spent a few days last week in the harvest field near Kratzerville.

Hay making and harvest is about over in our community.

Uncle Sam makes his boys smile every ninety days; pensions are handy at all times of the year.

Henry K. Scholl made a trip to Selingsgrove last week on business.

Our merchant is shipping butter and eggs to Shamokin from Herndon by the P. & R. R.

Park Shambach of Port Trevorton froze ice cream and prepared other delicacies at Dundore's last Saturday for their festival at Port in the evening. He is an old experienced hand at it.

Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn will be avoided. For sale by the Middleburg Drug Co.
