

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY
 PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

DUNDORE.

Early in the morning we find every sight beauty, every leaf a psalm, every flower a censor, every bird a chorister, every sound music.

Uriah Kelly of Williamsport made a short stay in town.

Freed Bros. the renowned shoe manufacturers called on our merchant.

Maria W. Dundore took an evening drive to Lydia Hoover and returned with a fine lot of dew berries.

W. S. Reichenbach and daughter, Cora, spent one day last week at Shamokin Dam.

Our young people took in Hoover's picnic last Saturday.

Butter, eggs, lard, onions, apples and poultry all command a high price in town.

Maria W. Dundore, Annie Meyer, Geo. Campbell and wife attended the funeral of Eve Houser of Port Trevorton last Friday.

A very pretty wedding took place this week at one of the suburbs of town and after the ceremony the party left for Atlantic City.

Our farmers are in the heights of expectation of a heavy corn crop, more potatoes than last year, and a good hay crop harvested besides a wheat crop unsurpassed for many years.

Buckwheat ought to command a good price this year as very little land has been given to the crop.

G. M. Witmer of Salem and his daughter, Katie, spent a few hours with N. T. Dundore and wife last Sunday.

Lizzie Witmer sold blackberries at Port Trevorton.

Huckleberry vendors from the Shade Mountain passed through town.

Merchants are not allowed to give or sell tobacco to children under sixteen years of age; parents must get their own tobacco.

Hucksters and peddlers must pay a license of $40. to sell goods from the wagon.

Phosphate agents are numerous but farmers are slow to invest as long as the price of wheat is so low.

Our uncollected taxes are $1500 and the new duplicates call for $2000; faith without works is dead; charity begins at home.

J. D. Riegel sold a load of hay at Port Trevorton.

I. W. Longacre, the auctioneer, was in town.

When you want modern, up-to-date physic, try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at the Middleburg drug store.

GLOBE MILLS

Mrs. Geo. Fagley of Shamokin, who has been visiting friends at this place, returned home Saturday.

John Klase and wife, Fred Klase and Mrs. Abraham Herbster of Lewistown attended the funeral of their cousin, David Rau.

Communion services will be held at this place July 28, by Rev. Snable.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. CURTIS BAKER, Bookwalter, Ohio. Sold by the Middleburg Drug Co.

HOFFER
 W. B. Rine made a business trip to Maize Tuesday.

A. D. Krotzer and John Leffler, who were employed at Glen Union, Clinton Co., returned home Monday.

Samuel Bollinger, an old veteran of the civil war and Jacob Lawer, the oldest man in the township aged 86 years attended the festival, the former ate four ten cent plates of cream and the latter two, afterwards returned home arm-in-arm supported by canes. That speaks well of our old soldier and neighbor.

The festival Saturday evening was well attended and was a success financially.

Geo. Hoch of Sunbury spent Sunday with his father-in-law, Perry Aurand.

D. G. Buck of Middleburg was in town Monday.

Heartburn.
 When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. For sale by the Middleburg Drug Co.

A Good Cough Remedy.
 Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years, have yielded to this remedy and health has been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by the Middleburg Drug Co.

PALLAS NEWS.

S. Wenit and C. I. Bailey have returned from McClure.

On Saturday Aug. 10th our annual picnic will be held at Grubb's church, which is calculated to be one of the grandest events of the season, surpassing all former picnics held at the same place. Everybody is invited.

Miss Wert and Miss Wolverton of Shamokin were visiting here.

We are glad to note that the people are taking an active interest in the proposed new railroad on this side of the Susquehanna, as we need the road badly.

A merry huckleberry party from this place visited Shade Mountain on Wednesday and brought back eleven good sized buckets of choice berries. The party consisted of Augustus Straub and wife, John Shaffer and wife, B. P. Straub and wife, Palmer Bower and Cleveland and John Straub.

William Troup's grain crop this year was so large that after filling the barn and making a large stack, he was compelled to thresh a few days so as to make room for his other crops, which speaks well for one of Pallas' farmers. He expects 600 to 700 bushels of grain.

Farmers are sowing buckwheat. Percival Benfer of New Berlin was seen on our streets Sunday.

Richard Shaffer's festival was well attended last Saturday evening.

W. S. Straub sports a new road wagon. Walter is an industrious young man.

Next Sunday forenoon and evening Rev. Maice will again preach at Aline.

Tuesday Mrs. Benjamin Swartz late of Kantz was interred at Paradise cemetery.

Hair Falls
 "I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor to stop my hair from falling. One-half a bottle cured me."
 J. C. Baxter, Braidwood, Ill.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is certainly the most economical preparation of its kind on the market. A little of it goes a long way. It doesn't take much of it to stop falling of the hair, make the hair grow, and restore color to gray hair. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

WEST BEAVER.
 Our farmers are about through with their wheat harvest. They are now busy with their grass. By all appearance the oats will soon be ready to cut. A very light crop is looked for.

Mrs. Martha Haines of McClure spent Sunday with her son-in-law, S. H. Phillips.

Mrs. L. B. Treaster spent part of last week visiting friends in Mifflin Co.

Miss Mollie Stealy has been a sufferer for the past two weeks with a sore arm.

SHADEL.
 The whistle of the steam thrasher is heard already. The people have commenced to thresh out some of their grain.

The blind Evangelist preached in the Aline church Sunday.

The new iron bridge across the Mahantongo creek at Peter Rauch's is nearly completed. Bridge building will cost our county this year a great sum of money, but they are necessary at some places. The old saying is if we get over the dog we can get over the tail.

The Sunday school scholars are practicing for children's day.

H. A. Elbricht received quite a number of bushels of onions and cherries last week.

SAMPSON ENTERS CONTROVERSY
 Says He Was Partly Responsible for McClure's Statements.

Boston, July 23.—Referring to McClure's naval history, which has been criticised by Secretary Long on account of statements considered objectionable, Rear Admiral Sampson said: "In one way, possibly, I was responsible for the statements made in the history. I was commander-in-chief of the squadron and was responsible, so far as reading the proofs goes. If the historian has taken facts from my official reports to the navy department that is all well and good. I stand by first reports and official communications. I would welcome an investigation of this whole matter by Congress or by the navy department." In an interview yesterday "Fighting Bob" Evans asserts that Sampson failed to give Schley at Santiago all the information which he furnished to the other commanders.

Heir to Fortune Arrested For Theft.
 New York, July 23.—Christian Hansen, who, the day that he learned he would receive $30,000 from his father's estate, was arrested on a charge of stealing $77 worth of carriage lamps and other stable articles, was held in $1,000 bail yesterday. Hansen's father was one of the best known contractors in Denmark. He built a large section of Copenhagen and the opera house in Stockholm.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
 Cleanses and beautifies the hair, prevents itching and dandruff, restores to its natural color, and gives it a luxuriant growth.

CRUGER HEARS OF WIFE'S DEATH
 "Quarreled But Once in Long Married Life," He Says.
 London, July 22.—From Holland it is ascertained that Mr. Kruger burst into tears when informed of his wife's death and asked to be left alone. "She was a good wife," he exclaimed. "We quarreled only once, and that was six months after we were married."

Mrs. Kruger died Saturday afternoon at Pretoria from pneumonia. Her long separation from her husband, combined with the death of her favorite daughter, Mrs. Smith, last week, completely broke her spirit. She was 70 years old.

BIG WEEK IN BUFFALO.
 Pan-American Visitors to Witness Many Interesting Ceremonies.

Buffalo, July 22.—During the coming week interesting events crowd each other at the Pan-American Exposition in quick succession. Members of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association will throng the streets of the Rainbow city tomorrow. Addresses will be delivered by Archbishop Corrigan of New York, Right Rev. Bishop McQuaid of Rochester and the Bishop of Detroit, at the exercises in the Temple of Music. Wednesday the Knights of Columbus and Utah people will unite their forces. Thursday will be Scandinavian Day and Porto Rico Day. Governor Allen will be at the exposition for the celebration of Porto Rico Day. Saturday will be marked by the dedication of the Wisconsin state building.

Grand Army Meets at Cleveland.
 Cleveland, O., July 20.—The first bulletin of information of the Grand Army encampment committee was issued yesterday. The bulletin gives the names of the chairmen of committees, hotel rates and the preliminary program, as follows:

Monday, September 9—Receiving and welcoming delegates and visitors.
 Tuesday—Perry's victory day—Naval parade, 9:30 a. m.; "dog watch" of naval veterans at Gray's Armory in the evening.
 Wednesday—Grand parade, reception and camp fire in the evening.
 Thursday and Friday—Encampment in opera house and conventions of other organizations in places to be announced later.
 Saturday—Sightseeing.

Thermometers Reached 128 in Kansas.
 Kansas City, Mo., July 23.—A veritable hot blast literally scorched the southwest yesterday, breaking all heat records in the history of the local weather bureau. Thermometers at highest points in the city showed 106 degrees yesterday, while thermometers on the streets reached as high as 128. Hardly a breath of air stirred. The suffering was intense, and especially among persons compelled to work outdoors and among the poor districts in the bottoms. Seven deaths from prostrations were reported during the day in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., and over 30 people overcome by the heat were treated. This makes a total dead for the two days of 16.

Pretty Irene a Book Agent.
 Indianapolis, July 23.—A special from Goshen, Ind., says: "Irene Canning, the supposed Texas heiress to $500,000, is no longer a mystery. She was identified yesterday as Kate Kanning, a young book agent of East Barre, Vt., where her parents reside. She left East Barre last winter. When asked if her name was Kate, she broke down and went into hysterics."

Constitution Best in Fair Weather.
 New York, July 23.—The race between the Constitution and the Columbia on Long Island Sound yesterday again demonstrated that the Constitution is the faster fair weather craft. In a light breeze and smooth water over a 21 mile course Columbia was defeated 4 minutes 18 seconds elapsed time.

"No Treating," Say Columbia Knights.
 Put in Bay, O., July 22.—The annual outing of 1,000 Knights of Columbus from the several states in this vicinity closed yesterday. At the Saturday session the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved That we, Knights of Columbus, assembled from various states of the middle west, unanimously endorse the sentiment of 'no treating.' Further, we recommend to our respective state councils, and to the national council, the adoption as a rule of the order, the forbidding of the common saloon treating habit."

Hugh Jennings is the Captain. Philadelphia, July 23.—Manager Shetline said today that Hugh Jennings was captain of the Philadelphia club. He was made captain just prior to the time the team started west. Delebant, he said, was the consulting captain.
