

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY

PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST
BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

SELINGSGROVE.

H. F. Charles and Aaron Stettler were in Phila. last week.

The Reformed reunion at Island Park was well attended by the members of the church here. We learned that the exercises were very interesting.

Mrs. R. L. Schroyer returned from her visit to Huntingdon and brought with her Ethel Follmer, her niece.

Prof. O. C. Gortner and family of Millin are guests of his mother. The Prof. is County Supt. of Juniata Co.

Mr. Pryor of Baltimore is being entertained by his uncle, M. A. Miller.

Mrs. Boyd Blecker and daughter, of Phila. are at Grandpa Blecker's.

G. F. Hunsicker, wife and mother-in-law of Phila. are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Rev. Genszler.

Dr. Luther Peters of Phila. circulated among friends last week.

D. W. Crouse of Norwood, Pa., is visiting his brothers and sisters.

Miss Mame Romig accompanied Mrs. Milton Romig to Elkhart, Ind. where they expect to visit friends.

The laying of the corner-stone of the Lutheran church at Kratzerville was largely attended, Revs. Pfeuffer of Elizabethtown and J. J. Kline, Ph. D. of New Hanover assisted Rev. Genszler at the corner-stone laying. Rev. Dr. Ochsenford was also present.

G. W. Burns accompanied Dr. Yoder to New Berlin last week to see the latter's parents.

Miss Bertha Conrad is visiting the family of Geo. Fenstermacher.

Lu Smith was arrested Saturday evening for fast driving on our streets. He was fined $3.00 and cost. This is as it should be. There has been entirely too much reckless driving on our streets.

A. Richter entertained his parent and other relatives recently.

My baby was terribly sick with th diarrhoea," says J. H. Doak, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by the Middleburg Drug Co.

UNION TOWNSHIP.

E. R. Zimmerman spent Sunday with friends at Shamokin Dam.

Rev. J. G. Martin and wife of New Columbia spent a week among friends here.

Jockey Aucker has a new wheel.

Frank Scholl was at home over Sunday. He is employed at Shamokin Dam.

Our boys are getting ready for amputation day.

A number of heads were under water in the canal last Friday morning, but they were only cabbage heads.

We have men that are too busy attend to their business.

Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is so large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a illness and weight in the stomach after eating, indicating that you eat too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided, or sale by The Middleburg Drug Store.

FLINT VALLEY.

Michael Hassinger, Jonathan rubb's farmer, has his wheat still in shocks in this valley.

J. A. Moyer is digging a well. Hoover and Co. are doing the work. E. Haines is employed making a porch.

The saw employes of G. A. Bortorf are having their oats harvest operation in some of the oats fields near Freeburg. They will soon start for North'd. County again.

The U. B. Ebenezer S. S. are having singing school with Prof. M. Moyer as teacher. Singing will be Sunday evening, Aug. 4th, at 7:30.

CENTERVILLE.

Martin Moyer and family of Middleburg visited S. C. Dundore and family Sunday.

Miss Mary J. Reish and grandchildren of Milton were visitors in town over Sunday.

Master Emory Mohr of Jersey Shore is visiting his grandparents.

R. B. Erdley and wife visited Morris Erdley and family near Vicksburg.

Prof. F. C. Bowersox delivered a very interesting sermon on Home Missions in the U. Evangelical Church Sunday evening.

P. M. and F. H. Stine and wife were the guests of the latter's parents near New Berlin Sunday.

L. A. Musser, J. O. Bowersox and A. H. Stine left for Lewistown Tuesday of last week.

W. F. Sechrist wears a broad smile—its a girl.

Ex-Judge Bucher and wife of Lewisburg and Dr. Rooke and wife of Winfield took dinner at the Centerville House last Thursday.

Levi Bitger residing in Limestone twp., Union Co., about one and a half miles north of here died suddenly Saturday morning. He was interred Monday in the L. and R. cemetery. His age was about 70 years.

J. C. Smith a former resident of this place now of Williamsport spent several days with relatives here last week.

C. F. Berger and H. P. Markle were home from Laurelton.

Our miller, H. H. Herbster is so crowded with work that he has to run his mill day and night.

Some of our people took in the colored campmeeting at Rand.

PALLAS NEWS

John Teats has completed excavating the cellar for his new dwelling and the masons are at work on the wall.

Calvin Bailey intends to take a trans-continental trip this fall stopping in Colorado with his brother.

The funeral last Sunday was well attended, deceased being an infant child of Millard Walter and wife. Rev. Miller officiating.

Last Monday during a heavy thunder storm which passed over this locality between four and five o'clock the Grubb's church was twice struck by lightning. One bolt striking the large steeple tearing away the northern half of the dome, shattering the window glass and frame. Another bolt tore thro the ceiling burning the paper all around the room playing the most curious pranks in following the painter's brush on the wall paper. Nearly every place in the church both above and in the basement shows signs of the lightning's presence, by burns, splintered boards, torn carpets and oil cloth as well as torn plaster and displaced bricks. Loss is covered by insurance.

When you want a modern, up-to-date physic, try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at The Middleburg Drug Store.

HUMMEL'S WHARF.

Dr. Newt. Nipple and wife, who have been visiting their parents, returned to their home in Akron, O.

Among those who attended the corner-stone laying of the new church at Kratzerville were Irvin Millhoff and family, Mrs. Frank Hettreck, Miss Martha Hummel and Wm. Young.

Mrs. Troutman of near Newport is spending a few weeks with her parents, John Schoch and wife.

Mrs. Norton Bower, Miss Katie Fulkroad and friend of Oriental were visitors at Levi Dressler's Sunday.

Frank Erdley lost a valuable cow last week.

A child of Geo. Moll is very ill with the measles.

J. H. Bailey is very ill at this writing.

Amos C. Gemberling, Penn township's wide-a-wake thresher, is threshing for a number of farmers in this vicinity.

DUNDORE.

Some people are so angry that even the mosquitoes won't bite them.

The Susquehanna with its islands, the picturesque Mahanoy and the valleys beyond lend enchantment to the view.

Mr. Holtzworth of Selingsgrove was on our streets off-ring fresh fish from the lakes.

A friend, after making some close observations, says that it takes only about five minutes to get married.

A few crying babies in church can make more noise than the preacher, but the impression for good will not be so lasting.

On Monday evening of last week lightning struck a telephone pole near Henry Hoot's residence and made it necessary to substitute a new pole.

Oats harvest is about over and the crop is short this year.

We are living in an age of progress, they used to open boils by applying a poultice but now a man sears at a flash of lightning and the boil opens and the cure is permanent.

Our Overseers of the Poor will have trouble as some of the tax payers as well as some of the paupers are not pleased with the low tax of this year.

S. B. Overholtzer passed through town with a load of new potatoes.

Minnie Eyer of Selingsgrove and Mamie Beck of New York City are the guests of Maria W. Dundore and are reveling in our fresh air and pure mountain water and boat riding on the Susquehanna.

Geo. Neitz has returned from the timber tracts where he worked for the last 90 days.

July is gone and we hope the intense heat with it; and as the wind blows over the oats stubble now we look for cool nights.

Some of young gents spend their Saturday evenings in Selingsgrove; town girls are pretty but they may.

The heavy showers of last Friday morning were a welcome surprise.

The corn crop looks exceptionally good and our farmers are elated.

Early apples are scarce and late ones will be few.

HOPPER

W. H. Grimm was seen here Friday.

Miss Maggie Sanders of Northumberland was visiting friends last week.

Jerome Marshall of Northumberland was visiting his aunt last week.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and got better at once." For sale by the Middleburg Drug Co.

Centerville

Rev. Schoch preached here Sunday morning.

Elmer Zechman is making his rounds with his new threshing machine. He has almost more to do than he is able. Elmer seems to understand his business.

The huckleberry teams can be seen going through town on their way to Lewisburg where they endeavor to dispose of them.

Milt Walter was stopped on his way home Friday evening near Jas. M. Bingham's on the public highway by a man whom he did not know. No one was hurt.

Florence Markley and Stella Hartley visited friends near Zion church over Sunday.

We are desirous of seeing the new road law carried out for at some places it is highly necessary to remove the obstructions. We hope the supervisors will attend to their duties.

Prof. Anderson will deliver a free Temperance lecture Thursday evening in the Evangelical church.

Ammon Kline and family visited Elias Hartman Sunday.

Rev. Aurand was hurt in some way one day last week.

PORT TREVORTON

Miss Lizzie Keller of Sunbury mingled with relatives during the week.

Wm. Schrawder, who is employed at Lewisburg, is enjoying home luxuries.

Chester Nipple, son of Dr. J. O. and Mrs. Nipple, formerly of town but now of Sunbury, spent several days with his cousin, Frank Houser.

J. C. Schaeffer and wife spent Sunday at Sunbury visiting their sons, Albert, Edwin, John, Benjamin and Jacob and returned home accompanied by their grandson, Clayton Schaeffer.

N. T. Dundore and wife and Miss Minnie Eyer passed through town Sunday.

C. O. Gaugler of Selingsgrove was in town Monday.

Mrs. John McAllister of Steelton is visiting her grandfather, Levi Woodling.

Mrs. Jackson Bickel of McKees paid relatives a visit Sunday.

Daniel Krebs and daughter of Dundore were in town during the past week.

T. H. Bogar and wife visited D. S. Krebs and family at Dundore and returned home accompanied by Miss Frances Krebs, a cousin of Mrs. Bogar of Herndon.

Perry Rothermel and family and Wm. Arnold and family were the guests of J. S. Wise and family of Dundore, Sunday.

Mr. Holtzapple and wife of Kantz spent Sunday in town.

Miss Annie Martin of Wilkes Barre, and John Michael, wife and daughter of Milton are spending the week at Geo. Daubert's.

Barber Neitz has gone to Milton to accept a position there.

Miss Lizzie Hoffman of Scantion and sister, Mrs. Harry Boyer of Selingsgrove are spending the week with Wm. Boyer and wife.

Clarence Leng of Milton spent Sunday with his mother.

Wm. Boyer paid his daughter, Mrs. G. C. Faust of Sunbury a visit Sunday.

Rev. A. H. Zolnard of Lykens held communion services in the U. B. church Sunday morning and delivered an eloquent sermon Sunday evening.

Mrs. L. F. Charles, Mrs. Lucetta Shaffer, Jno. Snook and Albert Neitz are on the sick list and A. W. Auckler, P. C. Shambach and William Schrawder are on the retired list.

Wm. Leng of Clark's Ferry spent Sunday with one of the town's fairest.

C. W. Knights, our honorable commissioner, is taking in the sights at Buffalo.

Hair Splits

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for thirty years. It is elegant for a hair dressing and for keeping the hair from splitting at the ends."—J. A. Gruenfelder, Grantfork, Ill.

"Hair-splitting splits friendships. If the hair-splitting is done on your own head, it loses friends for you, for every hair of your head is a friend.

Ayer's Hair Vigor in advance will prevent the splitting. If the splitting has begun, it will stop it.
$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

A Delicate Position.

"It was very embarrassing," said Mr. Stormington Barnes. "Very embarrassing indeed. I fear the lady thought me rude; but rather than be suspected of egotism I kept silence."

"What has happened?"
"Our hostess asked me who is the greatest living actor. How could I avoid misinforming her without appearing to indulge in self-praise?"—Washington Star.

WEST BEAVER.

There is still some wheat standing in the fields. Persons who have threshed are not allowed full price for wheat that has been taken to the mill on account of dampness.

The base ball game at McClure Saturday, between McClure and Beavertown, resulted in score of 30 to 9 in favor of McClure.

Miss Viola Steely has accepted a position at the stocking factory in Lewistown. She left Tuesday for her new field of labor.

Rev. Gill and family of Bamerville have picked and sold to Long and Son at Crossgrove 900 qts. of huckleberries this season, and they are still picking.

It took six men and two boys to get Robison Middlesworth and Abbe Holsbue to understand who were talked of as being candidates at our next primary election. My advice gentlemen is this, be a cash subscriber to the Middleburg Post and you will be posted in all the latest news of the county.

Chas. Houser spent a week with his mother at McClure, after the death of his father, then returned to his home at Lewistown last week.

Edward Hughes, Foster Treasurer and Grandmother Treaster spent part of Sunday with some of their Lowell friends. Bruce Wagner was a visitor also.

KREAMER.

John Deitrich and Frank Herman drove to Kratzerville Sunday afternoon to witness the corner-stone laying of the new Lutheran church.

Miss Izora Smith and Mrs. W. H. Gordon spent a day very pleasantly with a fishing party at Schoch's dam last week.

James G. Snyder transacted business at the county seat one day last week.

Quite a number of our young folks attended the festival at Erdley's church Saturday evening.

Chas. Herman and Kemer Ammiller, who have been working in North'd. Co., returned home.

Thomas Landis of Union Co. visited his parents over Sunday.

Peter Albert and wife of Selingsgrove visited N. C. Gutelius and family Saturday.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

SALEM.

Morris Erdley visited his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Erb.

Mrs. Geo. Miller of Freeburg and Theo. Row and family of Kreamer spent Saturday at the home of Matilda Fisher.

C. H. Woodruff arrived Monday from a trip to London, England.

Mrs. J. K. Moyer was entertained by her sister, Mrs. Louisa Snyder, Saturday.

Misses Annie Gemberling, Katherine and Edith Witmer attended the Reformed Reunion at Island Park, Thursday.

Quite a number of our people attended the corner-stone laying at Kratzerville Sunday.

MEXICAN SONGSTRESS HONORED

Austrian Emperor Remembers Her Noble Act of Years Ago.

Vienna, July 29.—Emperor Francis Joseph has forwarded a generous gift to Senora Concha Mendez, the Mexican songstress, on the occasion of her 80th birthday.

After Emperor Maximilian had been shot and Empress Carlotta had gone insane, the audience at a Mexican theatre called upon Mendez to sing a song, vilifying them, but she cried out "No, I shall not vilify the dead and the unhappy," and a hush fell upon the house.

The incident is recalled in connection with the gift.

Missouri Out For Roosevelt.

Kansas City, Mo., July 26.—Fifty prominent Kansas City Republicans have organized a 1904 Theodore Roosevelt Club. Its purposes are these: To secure the nomination of Vice President Roosevelt for president in the Republican national convention in 1904; to have this convention held in Convention Hall in Kansas City, and to have Missouri present a solid Roosevelt delegation in the convention.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Promotes and restores the hair. Prevents a Itch on the Head. Keeps the Scalp Healthy. Cures Itch and Dandruff. For Sale Everywhere.

A WEEK'S NEWS CONDENSED.

Wednesday, July 24.

The Commercial Law League opened its seventh annual convention at Put-in-Bay, O., yesterday.

The United Mine Workers of America will make an effort to organize all West Virginia miners.

Contracts were let yesterday for the new road which gives the Wabash a Pittsburg entrance.

Russia's wheat crop is reported almost ruined as a result of the drought over there.

Sarah Knapp, 78, and William White, 80, eloped from the Binghamton, New York, almshouse yesterday.

The sixteenth annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, an organization of the Episcopal Church, will be held in Detroit, beginning today.

Thursday, July 25.

W. Morgan Shuster left Washington, D. C., yesterday for the Philippines, with a revised copy of the tariff.

Edgar W. Abbott, professor of languages at Butler University, Indiana, was drowned while bathing yesterday.

Secretary Root is at his summer residence, Southampton, L. I., for a three weeks' vacation.

The Federal grand jury was called into session at New York yesterday to investigate the affairs of the Seventh National bank.

Joseph R. Hixson, general eastern agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, died at his home in Elizabeth, N. J., yesterday, aged 69.

Abdul Hamid's beautiful enemy, Princess Haree Hanem, wife of Ali Nouri Bey, consul general for Turkey in Rotterdam, has escaped from Constantinople.

Friday, July 26.

Andrew Carnegie has presented the city of Winnipeg with $100,000 for a free public library, which has been accepted by the city council.

W. E. Samuelsen, of Provo, Utah, broke the world's unpaced mile bicycle record last night, riding the distance in 1:53.25.

Superintendent of Philadelphia's Mint Henry K. Boyer is seriously ill of typhoid fever at his country home in Lower Providence, Montgomery county.

Operations have been begun on the proposed ship canal between St. Petersburg and the White Sea.

The Colburn family offer a reward of $500 for the finding of Mr. Colburn's body.

Earl Spencer, chancellor of the Victoria University, yesterday severely criticized Dr. Koch's theory to the effect that human beings were immune from contagion from tuberculous cattle.

Saturday, July 27.

Knights Templars will ask President McKinley to visit their encampment next month at Louisville.

Minister Wu Ting Fang says he has no knowledge of the fact that his country intends to recall him.

Signor Francesco Crisp, who has been dangerously ill for several days, seems to be weakening gradually.

Voorhees, a pitcher for the Atlantic City baseball club, was left $60,000 by the death of an aunt.

Governor Stone has reappointed Dr. J. L. Forwood, of Chester, a member of the state quarantine board.

Mayor Ashbridge has returned to Philadelphia, after a two-weeks' vacation, during which his whereabouts were unknown even to the newspapers.

Monday, July 29.

There were nine deaths from the heat in Cincinnati yesterday, while Louisville had three.

Surrounded by a brilliant cortege and in the presence of the diplomatic corps, President Romana opened the Peruvian congress yesterday.

The Denver National Live Stock Association has issued a warning against hasty acceptance of the Koch tuberculosis theory.

Pressed glassware factories of the American Flint Glass Manufacturers' Association started up today, giving work to 20,000 men.

High telephone rates in Chicago, Ill., has caused court proceedings against the Chicago Telephone company by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

Congressman W. H. Graham, Allegheny; Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, Lancaster; Edward Bailey, Harrisburg, and Senator William P. Snyder, Spring City, have been named as Pennsylvania's State Capital commissioners.

Tuesday, July 30.

Paul Alexis, the novelist, is dead, in Paris.

Mormonism is reported to be making rapid strides in Germany.

The Lyons-Mediterranean railroad has purchased a number of American locomotives.

Henry L. Wilson, the United States Minister to Chili, will be tendered an elaborate banquet by Chilean friends.

San Francisco is having a sixteen weeks season of grand opera under the direction of Professor Steindorf.

Congressman Burk, of Philadelphia, gave the leopard he received as a friendly token from India to the Zoological Gardens.

President L. F. Loree, General Manager Potter and other officials of the Baltimore and Ohio left Baltimore yesterday for a third inspection trip over the road.

Threshers Smashed Liquor Joint. Wichita, Kan., July 30.—Eight threshing machine crews reached the town of Colwich, in this county, Sunday, and because they could not get liquor on account of Sunday law they smashed five "joints" and wrecked a number of town pumps. The citizens organized a party to cause their arrest, but the threshers made them retreat.

The rioting was resumed yesterday when the citizens again tried to arrest the threshers but again they had to give up.