PENNSYLVANIA NEWS IN BRIEF.

During a thunder storm a barn owned by Abraham Warner, of Rock Station, was struck by lightning and burned. James Bretz, of Schuylkill Haven, a painter, and Scott Lamont, of Pottsville, a tinsmith, fell from a scaffolding and both were seriously injured. Gilbert Saulsbury, one of a party of picknickers who camped in the woods near Upland on Sunday, was stabbed Michael Furly, aged 82, retired in excellent spirits at his home, in Jermyn, Sunday night. When his wife went to arouse him yesternay he was dead. The barn owned by C. S. Morris, of Garland, was struck by lightning and destroyed with its contents. The loss, against 73 insurance companies to $2,500, is partly covered by insurance. Funeral services over the remains of Alvin S. Altland, a member of the Forty-first Regiment Volunteers, who died en route from Manila, were held in Manchester.

Easton will receive from the navy department two Parrot guas and 40 8-inch shells, which will be placed about the soldiers' monument in Centre Square.

Samuel, the 7-year-old son of Rev. C. D. Clauss, of Massachusetts, tumbled into a 36-foot well at the resities in eastern Pennsylvania. Work dence of George Henrick, but was rescued alive.

The shirt waists for the Pottsville letter carriers, which were ordered last spring, have not yet arriver and if they are not on hand before Thursday the order will be canceled.

Mrs. Frank Grubes and her son, Fred Grubes, of Easton, were painfully burned in carrying a can of burning varnish from their home. The varnish was set on fire while being boiled on the kitchen stove. Police officers of Connellsville last evening arrested Charles, known as "Judy," Shaw and his brother Clarence, who are charged with being implicated in the murder of John Scuffle at Homestend last night. Adjutant General Stewart will issue warrants today for the individual pay of the officers and men of the First and Third Brigades for their tour of duty during the recent brigade encampment.
