LUCID LOCAL LAONICS

A short session of court was held Monday. The highest cash price will be paid for new potatoes, if brought to this office at once. The music of West Market street aroused the village Tuesday evening. They came down town 8 or 10 in number on a one-horse wagon—bearing aloft the banner inscribed, "Gravel Hill Concert Band. Do not invite us to Drink." The music was excellent, in fact one would suppose there was a full band or two. This added to the burlesque dress and fantastic appearance of the members and above all a surprise made the town gay festive and happy. The August number of the J. W. Pepper Piano Music Magazine opens with a song peculiarly appropriate to the season, "Down by the Sea," by Joseph S. Willing, a writer who in this piece worthily sustains his reputation as a writer of exceptional ability. The Magazine contains 21 complete pieces of original copyright music for the piano—10 Songs and 11 Instrumental—10 cents. For sale at all music dealers. We are sorry to learn that Comrade Eli Miller, who lives near Fremont, is seriously ill with what has been pretty generally pronounced cancer by the physicians who have been consulted by him, and pronounced incurable by some of the most prominent. The malady made its appearance in the jaw nearly a year ago and was at first attributed to an injury to the jaw resulting from the extraction of a tooth. It grew rapidly and has developed into what is unquestionably cancer. Eli was the youngest member of Co. G, 147th, and enlisted with his father, Reuben Miller, who was killed in the battle of Chancellorsville, the son being taken in the same engagement and until paroled was confined in Libby prison and Belle Isle. Eli's comrades tenderly sympathize with him and his family in this the hour of their affliction, and would gladly alleviate his sufferings were it possible for them to do so.—They would kindly point him to the great Physician, Who can heal body and soul, and who has so considerately said, "Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest."—Tribune.

The editor of the Post and wife spent Sunday at Sunbury. Caleb Smith and family spent Sunday at Selingsgrove with E. W. Snyder and wife. Jeremiah Hummel and son were in town Tuesday having assisted James Slear to move to this place in George Smith's house. Mr. Slear will assist Amandus Shambach in the blacksmith shop. APPLICANTS FOR TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS. Applicants for a teacher's certificate will be examined in the several districts of Snyder County for the year 1901 as follows: Jackson, Kratzerville, " 15 Centre, Centerville, " 16 Beaver, Beavertown, " 19 Spring, Adamsburg, " 20 Adams, Troxelville, " 21 West Beaver, McClure, " 22 General Special, Middleburgh, Sept. 2, 1901. Examinations will begin at 8:30 o'clock A. M. promptly. All applicants must be examined in district in which they intend to teach unless compelled by valid unavoidable circumstances to take it elsewhere. Persons under seventeen years of age need not apply, as a certificate cannot be issued to them. Directors and friends of the public schools are cordially invited to be present at the examinations. Truly yours, E. C. BOWERSON, Co. Superintendent, Middleburgh, Pa., July 23, 1901. Levi Cuts Big Trees. The Lewisburg Journal last week says: "A pleasant visitor to invade the Journal sanctum last Saturday was in the person of Levi Beaver, of Cowan, whose visits to the county seat are few and far between, but nevertheless pleasant. He is at present engaged in stocking and keeping in operation the saw mill for James Reish on the Kinbel tract near Cowan. The tract of timber has about 300,000 feet on it, but the trees are enormous in size, formidable rivals to the famous redwood giants of California. Mr. Beaver told of cutting trees that were nineteen feet in circumference and five and a half feet across the stump, and were sound to the core. To get these timbers to the mill was no easy job, and it was necessary to cut them up. Many were cut over four feet in diameter. It was a fine oak tract, and of such that the size is extremely rare." [Eleven or twelve years ago when the editor of the Post was principal of the schools at Cowan, he bonded with the above named Levi. If getting up early will hasten the completion of Levi's job, he'll have it finished in a short time. Levi always did get up too early to suit his boarder. Ed. Post.] National Glass Company's Exhibit, Pan-American Exposition. The above company, which operates twenty-one plants, with main office at Pittsburg, Pa., has erected a complete factory on the Pan-American grounds and show all processes of manufacturing glass from raw material to the finished to the finished product, varying in value from a few cents to hundreds of dollars for each piece. They also show processes of cutting, engraving, etching, decorating and spinning and weaving glass into cloth. They exhibit a full size figure of Miss Maxine Elliott, the celebrated actress, draped with dress woven from glass, and furniture upholstered with glass cloth. Their exhibit is the only manufacturing exhibit on the grounds, and is really the best educational feature of the Pan-American. Does Advertising Pay? A merchant who is known as a steady advertiser can seldom be prevailed upon to drop his newspaper talks. He knows they pay. The more he advertises the more business is done and whenever he needs handle a few extra hundred dollars does a little extra advertising and the hundreds come to him. They must if he has goods that are needed by the buyers. The location of the First Pennsylvania State Normal School is ideal, and the discipline of the school is easily maintained. Millersville, is a pleasant, quiet village, with no temptations for boys and young men.

PERTINENT PERSONALS

Henry Snyder of Kremer passed through town Friday. Beau Hartman and Frank Sechrist visited friends at Centerville Sunday. Mrs. Henry Freed of Liverpool was entertained by W. L. Garman and wife. Jacob Schoch and wife of New Berlin spent last Wednesday in town with friends. W. J. Heltzman of Kremer attended the examination in town Friday. C. L. Marks and Wm. Shindel attended the picnic at Selingsgrove Thursday. Homer Rathfon and Chas. Stetler attended the ball game at Adamsburg Saturday. Editor J. G. Leshner of the Selingsgrove "Times" was in the village Saturday afternoon. Mr. Weidenhamer of Milton, agent for Gim & Co., was at this place during the past week. Mrs. W. I. Garman and Mrs. Lester E. Wetzel visited friends at Pfoutz Valley, Perry county. G. W. Burns and family of Selingsgrove spent Sunday at the home of Joseph Bowersox. Harry Hummel, who had been visiting friends at Millersburg, returned home Thursday. Edwin Charles is celebrating the arrival of a daughter and J. E. Stahlnecker the advent of a young son. Misses Carrie Haas and Katharine Hock of Shamokin were guests of J. W. Runkle and family this week. Miss Hattie Swartz of Cleveland, O., spent some time visiting her brother, J. W. Swartz and family in Swinerton. Mrs. Jefferson Arbogast and daughter, Katie, of Red Bank, spent one day last week with H. R. Bickhart and wife. Mrs. M'Linn of Philadelphia spent several days last week with her brother, Jay G. Weiser, at the Central Hotel. Cashier J. N. Thompson spent last Wednesday at Selingsgrove to attend the appraisal of Mrs. Wm. Haines' Bankruptcy Estate. Prof. John G. App of Lewisburg, representing R. L. Myers & Co., of Harrisburg, is in the county interviewing the school directors in behalf of his company's publications. James P. Smith of this place one day last week caught 26 bass. This is the largest catch of bass for a single day yet reported. Mr. Smith is entitled to the belt. M. H. Wagner of Mohantongo was a Middleburgh visitor Wednesday of last week. He called at this office and dropped a dollar in the slot for the Post dividends. Henry H. Mengle, residing near Fremont, has rented Prothonotary Geo. M. Shindel's farm and will move on next spring. Amos Bowersox proposes to move to Franklin and will work in the tannery. John A. Barner and wife were in town Wednesday of last week. Mr. Barner dropped in to pay his subscription while in town. He was attracted by our hot weather bargains in envelopes and ordered a thousand. The price and quality always brings the order. Professor George W. Walborn of Freeburg, was in town on Saturday and dropped in to pay his respects to the editor of the Tribune. The professor informed us that he expects to be a candidate for County Superintendent of Public Schools. The professor is an old teacher and certainly would be well-qualified for the place if experienced as an instructor has anything to do with it.—Tribune. W. J. Harrington, Miss Randolph and Mrs. Powell gave a most excellent entertainment in the court house last Monday evening. The entertainment was as good as any at Teachers' Institutes, but we regret to say it was very poorly patronized. The people of this place missed more in missing the entertainment than the entertainers did in missing the coin, though they richly deserved more than they received.
