

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

SELINGSGROVE.

Mrs. Mary Bordner (nee Kantner) of Steelton is visiting her mother and friends.

Harry Forgey and wife who spent a few days with his mother, left again to his bridging work, but his wife will remain in town for a while.

Forest Gregory and family of Williamsport are visiting his parents B. F. Gregory and wife.

H. O. Reynolds of South Fork, who graduated from the University in June, spent several days in town.

R. C. Burns of the State College Times visited his mother on South Market St., Mrs. Isaac Buras.

Thompson Hilbish and family returned from their trip to Buffalo.

H. Benner, one of our bridge-builders, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Rev. Follmer and children are visiting her parents, F. J. Schoch and wife.

I. C. Schoch and wife spent Sunday at Benvenue.

Mr. Kissinger and family of Wiconisco were in town Friday.

Dr. B. F. Wagenseller and wife have taken a trip to New York and Saddle River, N. J., the latter place being where his son-in-law, Rev. M. L. Snyder lives.

R. C. North and his mother accompanied by Mrs. Mary Wilson of Phila. are taking in the Exposition.

Rev. J. Peters and wife, (nee Crouse) were guests of their friends in town.

There were quite a number of picnics Thursday.

B. M. Wagenseller is visiting his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. McBride of Berwick were visitors in town several days last week.

G. W. Ocker of Lewisburg representing the Buffalo Milling Co., was in town interviewing our business men who handle flour.

Major Rohback spent several days of last week at Lancaster.

John F. Schoch and wife of New Berlin are guests at A. Marburger's.

Clayton Kantz, clerk at Wagen-seller's drug store, is off on his annual vacation.

John Rine of McKees was in town Friday attending the horse sale.

The App re-union will be held at Milton Park Aug. 22nd and the Schoch re-union at Salem on the 29th.

Dr. F. P. Manhart filled the pulpit of Trinity Lutheran Church Sunday the 4th. His subject was "The Deaconess work."

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Doak, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by the Middleburg Drug Co.

KREAMER.

Miss Verda Fields is visiting her sister Mrs. Jacob Hummel and Mrs. W. A. Hummel of Lewistown at present.

Miss Lottie Maurer is visiting friends in Northumberland County.

Reuben Hummel of Lewistown was home over Sunday.

Charles Mitchel and family visited Mrs. Mitchell's parents at Centerville over Sunday.

Miss Cora Rau returned home from a few months visit at Paxinos.

Mrs. Jackson Miller and children of Paxinos are visiting friends at this place.

Jefferson Hummel and family of West Milton visited Levi Erdley's Sunday.

Ammon Gearhart and James Zeigler left for Milton Monday, where they secured work.

G. C. Stuck and Chas Bowersox of Globe Mills drove to Selingsgrove Saturday.

Miss Katherine Hock and Miss Carrie Haas of Shamokin are visiting N. C. Gutelius and family.

FLINT VALLEY.

The Mennonites had services in the Ebenezer church Aug. 11. Text was taken from Mark, 13: 32. Rev. Banks Winey did the preaching. Services again Sept. 22nd. All are invited.

Flint Stone Valley was well represented by our young people at Grubb's picnic Saturday.

Philip Ramer visited his parents over Sunday.

Christopher Haines and Jonathan Trevis visited James Haines Sunday.

C. E. Haines is employed to re-roof the bridge at Kreamer.

Mrs. G. A. Shaffer is on the sick list.

Miss Polly Swartz, the famous fortune teller did a rushing business Saturday.

G. A. Botdorf's saw mill hands were at home to attend the Grubb's picnic.

J. W. Neitz lost a flock of turkeys.

Quite a number of people of this place attended church at Freeburg Sunday morning.

Jonathan Grubb of this place is building an excellent house.

Chas. More, Sr., is working in the silk mill at Snubury.

Miss S. B. Shaffer is going to teach the Flint Valley school, and many wishes of success to her.

W. R. Garman was going to Selingsgrove twice a week with huckleberries and blackberries.

Last Tuesday C. E. Haines was lucky, he shot a hawk before breakfast. M. L. Moyer also got one some time last week.

Chas. Dreese and Wm. Sprengle spent Sunday with J. W. Neitz.

Samuel Straub, our old plasterer is working at Kreamer.

It is quite a time since the readers of the Post had the pleasure of reading the Flint Valley news, but I am again with you.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and got better at once." For sale by the Middleburg Drug Co.

ADAMSBURG.

Mrs. J. W. Snook visited her father in Lewistown Saturday.

Misses Anna and Miriam Smith of Berwick are spending some time very pleasantly at this place.

The Lutheran church will hold a festival on the lawn opposite the church. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. Jonathan Spangler and grandchildren, Carrie and Mary, were entertained by relatives in your burg Thursday and Friday.

The Carriage works are fast nearing completion.

Ground has been broken for our new wagon factory.

Mrs. Jerry Hackenberry is spending the week with her son John in Altoona.

Jas. Benfer and family of Benfer spent Sunday with H. I. Romig's.

Prof. Wm. Moyer of Freeburg was seen on our streets last week.

Miss Lizzie Boreman of Painter-ville visited her parents at this place.

Rev. Zimmerman and family spent Saturday and Sunday in Beavertown.

When you want a modern, up-to-date physic, try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at The Middleburg Drug Store.

FREEBURG.

Quite a number of the Freeburg people have attended the Pan-American Exposition.

On Tuesday of this week a party left for Akron to attend the Hilbish Re-union which will be held there on Thursday, upon their return they will spend a week at the Exposition. The party consists of: S. G. Hilbish and wife, Mrs. James Arley, Miss Mary S. Hilbish and Geo. F. Hilbish.

SHAMOKIN DAM.

J. O. Bilger and wife of Salem were visitors to his sister. Mrs. J. N. Young and family.

T. A. Stetler, J. P., held a short session of court in his office Saturday.

Edward Fisher and wife of Hummel's Wharf were seen on our streets Sunday.

Saturday, August 3rd, George E. Hartman and Miss Edna Wendt were married by T. A. Stetler, J. P.

Harry Wendt, wife and family of Sunbury were visitors among friends Sunday.

After spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Young of Northumberland, Miss Lillian Wendt returned home Sunday.

Mr. Waltman and wife of Milton were visitors to R. C. Fiss and family Sunday.

Annie Winerick and brother of New Jersey were visitors to P. H. Hottenstein and family Sunday.

Mrs. Sallie Harper of Sunbury and Miss Eldia Boyer of Paxtonville were visitors of Mrs. Wm. Snyder Sunday.

Mrs. Trade and daughter, Annie, of Sunbury were visitors in our place Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Walker and son, Harry, and daughter, Catherine, of Norristown were visitors at Conrad Dutry and family one day last week.

J. F. Shipton and Fred Steimling of Middleburgh returned home Monday after spending a week with Edgar Derr and wife.

Chas. Motter, wife and two sons, Walter and Foster, of Montgomery were callers of Mrs. A. R. Shipe Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Hafley and daughter, May, were visitors to Conrad Dutry and family Sunday.

Mrs. Blyler and daughter of Lewisburg were visitors of W. S. Kuhn Sunday.

Mrs. John Malick and son, Daniel, of Shamokin visited A. R. Shipe and family.

E. R. Hottenstein and wife were out for a pleasure ride Sunday.

Justice and Ira Fiss, John Fairchild and Harvey Hottenstein took a drive toward Selingsgrove Sunday.

GLOBE MILLS

Miss Wilhelmina Sommers of Phila., who has been visiting Mrs. S. O. Ulrich the past 4 weeks returned home Monday.

Jacob Bruner has accepted a position in the steel works at Lewistown.

John Dark of Mt. Carmel visited relatives and friends at this place last week.

Samuel Erdley spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Chas. Stuck gave a picnic in honor of her daughter Verna's 11th birthday. It was well attended.

Antes Ulrich was to Selingsgrove Friday.

Mrs. B. F. Longnecker is visiting relatives at Plainfield and Carlisle.

Geo. Clelan of Middleburg was seen on our streets Sunday.

B. F. Row took a trip to the mountain Monday bringing home about 2 bushels of huckleberries.

Billy Thomas was camping at this place a few days.

Misses Mabel Rau, Mabel and Viola Beaver attended the picnic at Kratzerville Saturday.

Miss Sallie Kratzer of New Berlin visited J. A. Schroyer Sunday.

Miss Effie Bolig, Miss Eva Laundenslager and Mabel Spaid visited the Misses Beaver Sunday.

Sydney Walter of New Berlin spent Sunday visiting his parents.

Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the stomach after eating, indicating that you ate too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. For sale by The Middleburg Drug Store.

DUNDORE.

The Post shows the way through the jungle of events and every family ought to have a copy of it.

Isaac Campbell and family of Herndon spent last Sunday with his parents.

The Herndon camping party had 77 tents, 20 Divines led by Bishop Dubbs of Chicago, and the people Sunday no man could number.

The Sunday Schools of Port Trevorton will hold their picnic next Saturday at Bear Spring Park, which is a rival to Asbury Park.

Dundore has reduced the price on sugar.

After the heavy rains of last week the winter springs were called into play.

New potatoes and sweet corn are selling at good prices.

The Penna. canal is a fruitful source of malaria and many along the line are shaking.

Farmers are busy plowing and are getting ready for seed time.

H. B. Reichenbach spent Sunday at Toe Hill with his parents.

The Telephone Co. made substantial repairs along the line.

The river is in fine flattening condition and has not been low once this season.

Our supervisors have returned from the sea shore and are now ready to give us better roads.

Prosperity has greatly reduced the number of paupers and our overseers are all smiles.

Next Sunday Rev. Searle will preach at Witmer's at 10 A. M.; at Hoover's at 2 P. M. and at Olive at 7 P. M. His discourses are most masterly.

Our school teachers are sharpening their lead pencils and no doubt will make their mark next Tuesday.

Our school board is above the average and are not capable of making an error in stationing the teachers.

J. H. Wise and wife visited their daughter at Harrisburg.

Our Susquehanna coal diggers are busy and successful.

My Hair - "I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it brought all my hair back again." W. D. Quinn, Marseilles, Ill. One thing is certain, - Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. This is because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair and the hair grows, that's all there is to it. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists. If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

CENTREVILLE.

By all appearance the hot weather ceased for this summer.

The whistle of the threshing engine is heard in nearly all directions.

James Hackenberg and Melvin Oberlin attended the picnic at the Grubb's church Saturday.

Wm. Napp, son of Henry Napp thought it was not a wise thing for man to be alone so he concluded to take unto himself a life-partner viz, Mrs. Annie Luck. We wish the young couple much happiness and success through life.

Henry Bowersox and wife visited Mrs. B's. mother one day last week.

A. W. Reichley filled the appointment Sunday for Rev. S. Auran, he being unable to go himself.

Theodore Bingham came home last week on account of his sick child.

Pure whiskey direct from Distillery is what you get when you buy from The Hayner Distilling Co., of Dayton, Ohio. They are offering four full quarts for $3.20, express prepaid. See their offer which appears elsewhere in this issue.

YOUR MONEY BACK - If this Refrigerator is not as described For $8.95 - We will ship you this Refrigerator, Freight Prepaid. East of the Mississippi River - points west are allowed freight to the River. It is made of solid oak, nicely polished, measures 50 inches high, 24 inches long, 18 inches deep, is lined with heavy zinc, galvanized iron shelves, and is insulated with water proof fibre felt. Its retail value is $18.00 - $7.00 saved in buying of the maker. Our Furniture Department contains thousands of similar bargains. Our Mammoth Catalogue of 400 pages, size 14 by 10 1/2 inches, tells all about Furniture - also about everything to Eat, Use and Wear - contains over 1,000 illustrations and quotes wholesale prices to consumers on over 150,000 different articles. It costs only $1.25 - mailed to you for 10 cents, with 5 cents you deduct from your first order of $2.00. Free Illustrated Catalogue shows "FAMOUS WARE" - LAMP, Targets, Bags, Breeches, Wall Paper, Sewing Machines, Blankets, Comforts, Framed Pictures, and Appliances for Upholstered Furniture, in their real colors. Catalogue sent free. Listing furnished without charge and FREIGHT PAID ON ALL THE ABOVE. Free Catalogue of Men's Ready-to-Order Clothing - see large cloth samples attached. WE PREPARE EXPRESS-ABLE AND DELIVER TO FIT. Free Dress Goods Catalogue contains samples from 15% extra to $1.50. WE PAY TRANSPORTATION. Why pay retail prices for anything? We sell absolutely everything. Which look do you want? Address this way: JULIUS HINES & SON, Baltimore, Md. Dept.

STROUPTOWN.

The oats crop is all harvested and the thrasher whistle can be heard daily.

A heavy thunder shower passed through here Saturday afternoon doing much damage to the plowed fields.

Robbers broke into the Richfield store and took a lot of clothing and some money. They were prowling around this neighborhood for a few days preying on the farmers' wives for good eatables. Such fellows ought to be punished under the tramp law to its full extent.

Maggie Gebnet had one of her fingers bitten off and torn out of its socket by a cross mare. Dr. Deckerd dressed the wound.

Daniel Arndt of Milton was visiting his father over Sunday.

Clemmie Forry of Phila. is home on a visit.

The communion services at Pine church was well attended, Presiding Elder Stapleton had charge of the exercises.

L. S. Gelnet, merchant at Strouptown got in his fall stock of goods and sells at rock-bottom prices. Try him and be convinced.

CASTORIA - For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co. UNION TOWNSHIP. Harry Aucker of New Columbia spent Sunday at home. C. E. and Oliver Aucker both of Riverside mingled among friends here over Sunday. C. H. Sechrist of Shamokin Dam spent Sunday at home. Dr. W. W. Longacre of Mt. Pleasant Mills was here on business Saturday. Mrs. Elmer Naugle of Selingsgrove spent a few days of last week with her parents. Our public school teachers have been selected for the coming term and almost everybody seems to be satisfied. One of the severest electrical storms of this season passed over our section Saturday evening. In order to be up with the times and meet the increasing demand of our traveling public our genial mail carrier, John F. Minimm, who carries the mail from Pallas to Verdilla and Selingsgrove daily got a new two seated carriage. HOPPER (Too late for last week.) Miss Katie Garman and Miss Alice Meiser returned from Michigan. The Rockville fellows were home Sunday. H. H. Swartz returned from Johnston Saturday. Adam Tressler and Etta Wise of Shamokin Dam were seen here Sunday. G. A. Paige made a business trip to Sunbury last week. W. B. Leffler and father, who were working in the woods, returned home Wednesday. Quite a number of our people attended the campmeeting at Herndon. Miss Lulu Moyer, daughter of Benton Moyer, was buried at St. John's U. B. church Thursday, Aug 8th. Cyrus Tharp is sporting around here since the fellows left for the woods.

SALEM.

M. T. Orwig, wife and their four children, after sojourning in our midst the past six weeks, returned to their home in Phillipsburg Monday.

Friday evening Miss Verna E. Moyer was tendered a birthday surprise by about twenty five of her friends.

Mrs. C. K. Fisher and children spent several days visiting her brother Oscar Herman.

The artesian well on Henry Laudenslager's premises is attracting many visitors.

Oscar Kaltriter of Fremont spent several days at Wm. J. Boyer's.

Robert Coleman and family are staying at Jacob Coleman's several days.

SCINEE

N. E. Stuck of Seven-Points was in town last Saturday and gave us a pleasant call.

Carrie Yeager of this place was visiting friends at Richfield Sunday.

F. C. Landis was visiting friends near Salem Saturday and Sunday.

Farmers are busy plowing for their grain.

Mrs. Sarah Schriber and daughter Carrie and Bertha were visitors at this place Saturday and Sunday.

The Grubb's picnic drew an immense crowd from all parts of the county, even as far as Adamsburg, Beavertown and McClure, Northumberland, Sunbury, Middleburg, Globe Mills, Salem, Liverpool, Richfield and hundreds of other places.

All went well as a marriage bell, the immense crowd enjoying themselves with old friends, listening to the music, of which there were three and sampling the various refreshments served on the grounds, both on private tables and on the side stand, until about three o'clock in the afternoon when a thunder shower drove the people to secure shelter. It was soon cleared off and the picnic progressed as before until five o'clock when the second heavy rain arose and scattered every person for the day and evening.

The speakers present during the day were Rev. S. P. Brown of Pillow, Pa., Prof. G. W. Wallborn, Rev. Wezley of Sunbury and Rev. Stauffer of Mt. Pleasant Mills. The proceeds of the day amounted to the sum of $191.00.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS. Farmers are busy plowing.

The G. C. band will play for a picnic at Oriental, Saturday Aug 17.

The G. C. band and quite a number of others attended the picnic at Grubb's church Saturday.

Alveta Schmees, who was working in Scranton, returned home last week.

A daughter of F. C. Hackenberg and wife died at Northumberland Saturday morning of inflammation of the bowels, aged 1 year and 5 months. Interment in St. John's cemetery Monday. Rev. D. I. Schaeffer officiated.

P. A. Schmees is remodeling his house. J. A. Shadle and son are doing the work.