"Burns my Cash."

"After all my funeral expenses are paid I direct that my administrators gather up my cash and, in the presence of witnesses, burn it until nothing but ashes are left.

This remarkable provision is from the will of H. Y. Scott, an eccentric member of Fairbault, Minn., who died on Saturday last. The old testator left $5,000 to his servant girl saying that it was in return for care of him during his last illness.

He left not a penny to his nephew.

His only relative, so far as is known, who had expected to inherit the $90,000 representing his uncle's fortune. Nearly all the money is in cash.

The nephew, it is understood will contest the will on the ground that his uncle was insane. It is not believed that the courts will order the $55,000 destroyed. If it is held that Scott was insane the money will naturally go to the nephew.

What Kills a Town.

More towns die for want of confidence on the part of the business men, says an exchange, and lack of public spirit, than from the rivalry of neighboring towns or adverse surroundings.

When a man in search of a home or a business man goes to a town and finds everything brimful of hope and enthusiasm over the prospects of the hope; and everybody at work to build up the town he soon becomes imbued with the same spirit, and as a result he drives down his stakes and goes to work with the same interest. When, however, he goes to a town and everyone expresses doubt and apprehension in the future prosperity of the place, moping about and indulging in complaints about the impending evils that are likely to befall the town, he naturally feels it is no use for him, and at once shakes the dust from his feet, and he pulls with all possible speed to some other town.

ECONOMIZE TIME AT BUFFALO.

How to Get Five Days of Sight Seeing at Pan-American Into Three.

Those who attend Expositions often complain of the loss of time entailed in going to and fro between their hotel and the grounds, and would often spend more time and money in the Exposition, if opportunity offered. Travelers who intend visiting the Pan-American this year at Buffalo, however, need have no trouble on this score. The Exposition is fortunate on having right beside it a building which is in itself an object of intense interest, and one of the sights of Buffalo—we refer to Statler's Hotel on Elmwood avenue, overlooking the grounds. This wonderful building, although only three stories high, contains over 2100 rooms and can accommodate over 5000 guests. Its dining room will seat 1200 people to a meal without crowding and so perfect is the organization, management and equipment that parties of excursionists, often numbering into the hundreds, are taken in and furnished with accommodations without creating so much as a ripple of excitement. From its towers and terraces a magnificent view is to be obtained of the whole panorama of the Pan-American, while the scene at night of the illumination of the grounds as viewed from Statler's will never be forgotten.

The erroneous impressions so frequently fostered by runners, etc., on trains and elsewhere about the difficulty of obtaining accommodations and paying fearful prices for them can all be thrown to the four winds of Heaven, for Statler's can give you a clean, comfortable room with breakfast and evening dinner for $2.00 and $2.50 a day, and guarantees to take good care of all who come. For those who do not care to board at the hotel, good rooms may be obtained at $1.00 to $1.50 per day, and first-class meals at 35 and 50 cents each may be enjoyed at Statler's down-town restaurant in Ellicott Square. Statler's, therefore, is a valuable adjunct to the Exposition and intending visitors by availing themselves of its conveniences can save themselves both time and money, and greatly enhance the pleasure of their trip.

Theodore Broullont and George Broullont of Philadelphia, and Daisy and Maud Fisher of Penn township were visitors at the home of Andrew Kratzer.

Won Wife by Advertisement.

David W. Harden, a prosperous farmer of Hartleton, Union County, and Miss M. Gross, an accomplished young lady of Shickshinny, Luzerne County, were married Sunday at Shickshinny, under romantic circumstances. Harden had inserted the following advertisement in the newspaper:

Miss Gross, who is only 18 years old, saw the advertisement and entered in correspondence with Harden. Photographs were exchanged and finally they agreed to meet. Farmer Harden arrived at Shickshinny Sunday. The meeting was a most satisfactory one. Both said it was love at first sight. They repaired to the residence of Rev. John Dougherty, of the Methodist Episcopal church, where nuptial knot was tied. Three hours after Harden's arrival in the village he was married.

DIGEST OF GAME LAWS.

Put This Out and Keep It for Your Own Protection as Well as of Game and to Settle Disputes.

Secretary Kalbfus, of the State Game Commission, has compiled the game laws of the State up to date, giving all the important points. The following is his summary:

The fines attached to the violation of the several sections of the act of June 4, 1897, must be paid with costs of prosecution or the convicted party serve one day in jail for each dollar of penalty imposed.

There shall be no hunting or shooting on Sunday. Penalty, $25.

Section 1 of the act of May 14, 1889, reads: "That no person in any of the counties of this Commonwealth shall kill, wound, trap, net, snare, catch with birdlime, or with any similar substance, poison or drug, and bird of song or linnet." Here follows quite a lengthy list of birds of Pennsylvania (including the yellow hammer or flicker) and closes with the words "or any wild bird than a game bird." Penalty not less than $10 or more than $50. This act is unrevoked and still the law of the State.

Section 2 of the act of June 4, 1897, after quoting a lengthy list of the birds of Pennsylvania, says, "Nor shall any person purchase or have in possession, or expose for sale any of the aforesaid song or wild birds or the game mammals killed or taken in this State, except as hereinafter provided" (for scientific purposes only, under a certificate of the Game Commission). Penalty, $10. This is still the law and should be used by those interested in bird protection, to prevent the killing of our wild birds for decorative or any other purpose.

The destruction of the nests or eggs of wild birds is forbidden except "for strictly scientific purposes under the certificate of the Game Commission." Bond, $100; fee, $5; penalty, $10.

The killing of game birds and game mammals is prohibited, except with a gun to the shoulder. Penalty, $50.

THE LAW AS TO DEER.

But two deer can be killed in one season by one person and then only during the month of November. Penalty, $100. Deer must not be killed or captured in the waters of the State, and the running of deer with dogs is prohibited. Penalty, $100. Dogs found running deer can be killed by any person and the owner thereof shall have no recourse whatever.

It is unlawful for any person to kill in any one day more than ten pheasants, or more than fifteen quail, or more than ten woodcock, or more than two wild turkeys. Penalty, $50. Pheasants, wild turkeys, quail and woodcock can be killed only from October 15 to the 15th of December, inclusive. Penalty, $10 for each bird, except that woodcock can be killed during the month of July.

All manner of trapping of game is prohibited, except that quail can be trapped from January 1 to February 15 for the purpose of keeping them alive during the winter and all quail so taken must be released in the same neighborhood as soon as the weather will permit in the spring.

All manner of devices for the deception of game is prohibited, penalty, $50, except that decoys may be used in the hunting of web-footed fowl.

Rabbits can be killed from November 1 to December 15, inclusive. Penalty, $10. The use of ferrets in hunting is prohibited. Penalty, $25, and the possession of a ferret is prima facie evidence of intent of use the same.

Grey, black and fox squirrels can be killed from October 15 to December 15, inclusive. Penalty, $10. Red or pine squirrels are not protected.

PURCHASES PROHIBITED.

The purchase or sale of pheasant, quail, woodcock, wild turkey and deer is prohibited. Penalty, $25. All other game of the State can be sold within the State except wild pigeons, the capture or sale of which is forbidden in the county of Tioga.

The shipment or carrying out of the State of its game birds or game mammals is prohibited, penalty not less than $50 or more than $100.

All persons and common carriers, such as railroads, express companies or stages are absolutely forbidden to carry said game out of the State, penalty not less than $50 or more than $100.

Ducks, geese, brant, swine and snipe can be killed from September 1 to May 1. Boats propelled by sail or steam are forbidden.

Plover from July 15 to January 1:

Rail and reedbirds during the months of September, October and November. Section 33 of the Game Act of June, 1878, provides "that nothing in this act will prevent any person from killing any wild animal or bird when found destroying grain, fruits or vegetables on his or her premises." This section has not been repealed.

By act of April 11, 1901, owners or lessees of real estate are permitted to kill rabbits at all times of the year where said rabbits are destroying crops or fruit trees," and for no other purpose or reason.

The act of March 22, 1899, makes the constables of the State, ex-officio, forestry, game and fish wardens, and requires them to prosecute all violations of the forestry, fish or game laws coming under their immediate notice or reported to them in writing in a manner prescribed by said act. The penalty for neglecting or refusing to act so is $50 or two months' imprisonment.

Prosecutions can be brought by any person; one-half of the penalties go to the informer. All prosecutions must be brought within one year from the time of the offense.

LICENSES FOR NON-RESIDENTS.

By act of April 21, 1901, all non-resident gunners (the same not being owners of real estate in this State) are required to pay a license fee of $10 before shooting in the State.

The treasurer of the county wherein the non-resident desires to begin shooting is directed to issue a certificate. This paper, so far as the State is concerned, covers all the counties of the State. The penalty for neglecting or refusing to secure this certificate is $25 or one day in jail for each dollar of the penalty imposed.

This class of offenders can be arrested without warrant by a constable or warden where they refuse to display said certificate upon demand.

All shooting paraphernalia, including guns, etc., is forfeited to the State unless penalty and costs are paid.

By the act of July 9, 1901, the act of hunting or trapping upon "posted cultivated land" is made wilful trespass; penalty, $5 with costs. Upon failure to pay, the offender may be imprisoned not to exceed three months. This act applies against resident and non-resident, and the fact that a party may hold the license prescribed by the act of April 21 gives no rights that may conflict with the wishes of the owner or lessee of posted cultivated lands in this Commonwealth.

By an act of Congress all packages containing game intended for shipment from one State to another State must be so marked that the name and address and the nature of the contents may be readily ascertained on inspection of the outside of the package. For each evasion or violation, the shipper upon conviction shall pay the sum of $200. The consignee knowingly receiving such articles shall pay the same, and the carrier knowingly carrying or transporting the same shall also pay not to exceed $200. This is national law, and all violations thereof can only be tried in the United States courts.

Sleaz Re-union.

The first Sleaz Re-union was held at Brook Park, Union Co., Pa., Aug. 22. The descendants kept putting in from all directions until they numbered 192, but this was only a small representation, for if all now living would have been present, they would have numbered 900, but many living in the far west were not able to be present.

While all present were seated at the tables enjoying the feast of good things, they were all surprised by a visit from the ancestors (two of the descendants dressed in the garb of long ago) carrying their satchels and passing along the tables, talking to the numerous descendants. They were met with roars of laughter. After dinner all went to the grand stand where J. C. Sleaz of Millinburg took a picture of the group. Then all went to the hall where an interesting programme was rendered.

All were very well rendered. Then it was left to vote whether re-unions should occur annually. It was carried and the following officers were elected: President, Jonathan H. Sleaz, Sunbury, Pa.; Secretary, Aug. H. Miller, Lewisburg, Pa.; Treasurer, John C. Sleaz, Millinburg, Pa.; Committee on Arrangements, Elias Sleaz, Chairman, Sunbury; John Kreisher, Lewisburg; May Sleaz, Philadelphia; Dan. Brownell, Williamsport.
