Editor Brown talks pugnaciously of a Bloomsburg McKinley defamer. He says: "We have received a communication from one of our subscribers that relates circumstances that have occurred in our town and remarks made about the assassination of President McKinley that we can scarcely credit. If it be true that one old miserably fool on Seyenth street made the remark that 'the d—s—of a b—' ought to have been shot," he should have been tarred and feathered and be ridden on a rail. If this remark had been made in our presence, something would have dropped. But then, this old cur knows no better. Probably he should be pitied for his ignorance. But however this may be, if it be true what is said of him, he is unfit to mingle in decent society and should be shunned as a rattlesnake. If he lived in New Mexico, the poor old wretch would be before this dangling from a lamp post or the limb of a tree. But such disposition of him would not be endorsed in this community, only a good dose of tar and feathers and a rail."

SOLDIER IN TROUBLE.

Member of Twelfth Regiment at Williamsport Ordered to be Discharged.

Harry H. Lilley, a private in Company G, Twelfth regiment, of Williamsport, is alleged to have said, while on duty at the station on the day President McKinley's remains passed through that city, that he "would not take off his hat to any man." The remarks attributed to him were reported to his captain and he was ordered to turn in all State property and be discharged.

Private Lilley declares that the remark of disrespect attributed to him is without the slightest foundation. He claims that he never used such words or any others of a similar nature while the train was in the city. He said that he had the greatest respect for the memory of President McKinley. The story, he says, has hurt him very much. He wanted to go with the company to Athletic park on Tuesday night, but he was refused this privilege; socially it has injured him, and his sweetheart, he says, will not permit his presence at her home until he has cleared himself, and Friday the man by whom he is employed told him to lay off and make an effort to straighten out the trouble.

S. S. K. L. C. E. and W. M. S. CONVENTION.

The Snyder County Sunday School, Keystone League of Christain Endeavor and Woman's Missionary Society Convention of the United Evangelical Church convened in 7th annual session in the Pine Grove Evangelical church of hospitable Paxtonville, Pa., Sept. 25, 6, 1897.

The first session was held Wednesday evening. Prof. F. C. Bowersox, President, called the convention to order. After an inspiring anthem entitled "Trust ye in the Lord" by the church choir, Rev. J. Shambach, pastor of the place read part of the 84th Psalm and offered earnest prayer. A most pleasing and cordial address of welcome was delivered by Miss Lottie Gift, in which the delegates were made to feel at home and thrice welcome, to which Allen S. Sechrist of Dundore responded in a happy manner.

The keynote of intense interest was deftly struck in the first session. Rev. A. E. Gobble, D. D., President of C. P. C. New Berlin, Pa., occupied the period of the evening addressing the convention on the subject, "What constitutes a Christian Education," and in his ready manner clearly set forth the constituent elements of such an education. The church quartette sang "Some day I'll reap what I have sown" with telling effect. The President's address opened the way for an open-hearted and profitable convention.

Thursday morning dawned clear and fresh and at the appointed hour the second session opened with the usual devotional services conducted by Robert Feese, of Beavertown. The "ever ready" Rev. Jacob Lawver delivered a very searching and practical address on the topic, "Our children; the obligation of the church toward them, and how can we employ them to the best advantage?" An animated discussion followed.

Mrs. Rev. J. Shambach, an enthusiastic advocate of missions read an excellent and beautifully prepared paper on the timely subject, "Why should the church support the W. M. S.?" The convention sang heartily, "I'm the child of a King." The Rev. C. H. Goodling, of Lewistown, gave an inspiring and touching address on "Our duty to the associate members of the K. L. C. E." Appropriate remarks followed by a number of delegates. Mrs. Wm. Gorden of Kremer, then treated the convention with a short, earnest, and spicy paper on "The Mission of the K. L. C. E."

At this juncture the Chairman announced the following committees: NOMINATIONS—Rev. A. D. Gaamly, W. H. Hartman, Joseph Lepley, Allen S. Sechrist, and Robert Feese.

RESOLUTIONS—Rev. J. Shambach, Mrs. Dr. Samsel, Mrs. Jere Bowen, Mrs. John Hughes, and Miss Mollie Whitmor.

The 3d session opened very auspiciously with devotional services conducted by W. H. Hartman of Centreville. Following this with unabated interest came the enthusiastic Rev. C. H. Goodling fully prepared to handle the topic assigned him. In his characteristic earnest manner he presented "Progressiveness of S. S. Ideals" and provoked a lively discussion especially, among the older members of the convention.

The Misses Lottie and Maud Gift of this place sang a beautiful duet with pleasing effect. The Rev. J. Shambach, of Middleburgh read a clean, clear, and well-prepared paper on the subject, "Our Watchwords," "Duty," "Loyalty," "Fellowship," which was rich in thought and delivered with good effect. A pleasing feature of the convention was a solo, entitled "Where is my wondering boy to-night" sung by Miss Ethel Harner, accompanied on the violin by Master Harry Harner. With rapt attention did the entire audience listen to the chairman, Prof. F. C. Bowersox, who occupied the next period on the programme and in artistic touches, grandly pictured to all hidden beauties as he eloquently discoursed on the "Benefits derived from S. S. Picnics." The subject matter was presented in such well-chosen words that convinced all of the fact, that the speaker has good command of the English language.

The 4th and closing session, greeted with a large and packed audience, opened with a fine voluntary on the organ and an uplifting anthem by the choir. Rev. J. Lawver conducted a lively and ringing song service and led the devotional exercises of the evening. The heart of the convention was strangely touched when the Male Quartette sang pathetically, "In that Beautiful Land." Rev. A. D. Granly, of Beavertown read a paper on the subject, "Why should the United Evangelical Church send missionaries to the Foreign Field." Joseph Lepley, of Kratzerville presented and nicely opened the topic, "How can we reach those outside of the S. S.?" Many good suggestions were thrown out by the speaker.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres. Allen S. Sechrist, of Dundore; V-Pres. Joseph Lepley, of Kratzerville; Secy. Nelson Freed, of Beavertown; Treas. Wm. H. Hartman, of Centreville. Out of the many places that extended hearty invitations for the next convention, Kratzerville was selected by a majority of votes.

The interest continued to rise and the assembled delegation continued to partake of the good things until the closing consecration service was reached. The venerable Rev. J. Lawver had charge of the service and in a tactful manner lead in the van. The kind friends and pastor Shambach spread no pains in making our stay pleasant and profitable among them. How sweet was the fellowship! How uplifting the singing! A. D. G.

ALCAZAR SOUVENIR.

The Pan-American Exposition buildings and grounds are illuminated by over three hundred thousand electric lamps. Never before has such a magnificent spectacle been seen, and Niagara Falls power has made this one possible. Many attempts have been made to photograph this superb electric display.

The ALCAZAR VIEW, (size 4 x 8), is the result of much labor and expense, and excels anything heretofore produced. Every person should possess this wonderful night picture of the greatest electrical display ever attempted.

We have the consent of the Alcazar Hotel Co., Buffalo, N. Y., to announce that any of our readers who will send them their address with two cents postage, will receive this Souvenir free.

Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania.

A local advisory board in connection with the work of this society, was organized on Monday evening last in the United Brethren Church of Middleburgh at the close of a lecture delivered by Mrs. B. L. Russell, District Supt. for Central Pennsylvania. Mrs. Russell had already spoken in the several Sunday Schools and services on Sunday. Following is the list of officers and members of local organization: President, Prof. F. C. Bowersox; Vice Presidents, Revs. S. S. Kohler and J. Shambach; Secretary, J. H. Willis; Treasurer, G. W. Hassinger; Legal advisor, M. I. Potter, Esq.; Medical examiner, A. J. Hermann, M. D.; Executive Committee, Mrs. Paul Billhardt, Mrs. J. Shambach, Mrs. Jacob Gilbert, Mrs. H. S. Mertz, Mrs. John Steininger, Mrs. Kate Bowersox, Mrs. Thos. Smith, Frank Wenrich, F. W. Specht.

The duties of the local board are, to report cases of destitute children or abused or ill-treated little ones within their jurisdiction; to report good homes wishing to apply for a child and to keep a watch, care with discretion, over children placed in the town or community. The work of this Society is for the better protection of homeless friendless children, it has now become a national movement, was first organized in Illinois in 1885 and is now fully organized in 26 states and has already found good homes in well-to-do Christian families for over 18,000 little ones. The headquarters in Penna. are at Pittsburg, 708 Hamilton Building where the State Superintendent, Rev. W. H. Thompson, has his office. The Temporary Receiving Home is at Shadyside near Pittsburg, and there are at present in the Home for placement 19 children of all ages from 3 months to 14 years. Mrs. Russell's address is 214 West Market St., York, Pa., and persons wishing to report cases or to apply for children can see or write to the President or Sec. of local board, or write to her personally at York.

W. H. & F. M. SOCIETY CONVENTION.

The concluding day of the Missionary Society Convention was replete with interesting discussions. Wednesday opened bright and fair and at 9 A. M. Mrs. M. E. Smith of Reedsville led devotional exercises. After the transaction of some other matters, the following subject was taken up: Will God remove all barriers in the way of our work if we simply trust Him and press on in the path wherein He has led us? It was freely and voluntarily discussed. Mrs. W. M. Reaick of West Milton read an exhaustive paper on the subject, "Our Cradle Roll and its Benefits." "Bring you all the tithes into the storehouse," was developed by Mrs. Rev. R. W. Mottern of Salona, Pa. The children's hour at 3 P. M. was a most delightful feature. They gave a very pleasant entertainment. They were addressed by Mrs. J. H. Harms of Newport.

The evening services chiefly comprised the address of Rev. I. O. Moser of Port Royal, who spoke on the "Responsibility of woman toward the spread of the Gospel." The parson is a forcible speaker, a clear and logical reasoner and delivered a masterly discourse.

The closing exercises and parting scenes were effective, sincere and long to be remembered.

Band Reunion.

The 2d Reunion of the Kantz Cornet Band was held in Calvin Ferry's grove Saturday Sept. 28th. This picnic was held for the members of the band and their partners which are as follows: W. A. Erdley and wife, F. P. Holtzapple and wife, R. R. Torry and wife, C. A. Shemery and wife, T. E. Holtzapple and wife, T. F. Ulrich, Olive Stahl, C. A. Fisher, Katie Stahl, A. R. Hoover, Lizzie Swartz, C. C. Holtzapple, Florence Fisher, John F. Erdley, Maggie Romig, C. O. Shambach, Miss Annie Fisher, Lester Kline, David Fisher, Adam Fisher, Maud Fisher, E. F. Hosterman, Edna Hendricks, Florence Kline, C. C. Glase, W. H. Shambach, and George Allen Fisher.

All kinds of refreshments were served free. The amusements of the day were music, ring-tag, quoit pitching, a delightful dinner after which a most highly appreciated address was delivered by C. O. Shambach concerning the benefit of a band in the community. The merry picnickers were photographed in several different ways.
