SAMPSON HEARD FROM

His Appeal For Representation Re-fused By Schley Court.

Washington, Sept. 25.—In the Schley court of inquiry yesterday a letter was presented from Rear Admiral Sampson, asking to be allowed to be represented in the court by counsel, Messrs. Stayton and Campbell, but the court refused to grant the request, on the ground that "the court does not at this time regard you as a party to the case."

After the court adjourned Mr. Stayton said today he would again renew his request to be allowed to appear in Admiral Sampson's behalf. He added that the continued references to Admiral Sampson were offensive and should be properly met. He further stated that he did not regard favorably efforts on the part of the judge advocate to prevent exploitation of Admiral Sampson's part in the war. He thought it better to bring the matter in and meet the questions squarely.

FAILED TO NOTIFY SCHLEY

Wise Told Spanish Fleet's Position Only to Sigsbee.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The Schley court of inquiry was in session for only an hour and three-quarters yesterday, adjourning at 12.45 in order to permit its members and others engaged there to attend the funeral of Judge Wilson, late chief counsel for Admiral Schley. Captain Wise concluded his testimony. Admiral Cotton made a brief statement on recall, and Lieutenant Spencer S. Wood, who commanded the dispatch boat Dupont during the Spanish war, began his testimony. Machinist Gray, who was in charge of the starboard engines of the Texas on the day of the battle, also testified briefly. He said that on the day of the battle the starboard engines were stopped and the machinery reversed.

Captain Wise was questioned at considerable length as to what he had done before the arrival of the flying squadron off Santiago towards locating Cervera's fleet in the harbor. He said that while he had satisfied himself of the presence of the Spanish, he had been content to communicate his knowledge to Admiral Schley through Captain Sigsbee, not considering it necessary to make direct communication with the commander-in-chief.

SCHLEY COURT INQUIRY.

Cotton Says Admiral Worried Over Fleet's Coal Supply.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Two new witnesses were introduced in the Schley court yesterday. They were Admiral Cotton, who as captain commanded the auxiliary cruiser Harvard, and Captain Wise, who commanded the auxiliary cruiser Yale during the Spanish war. Both these vessels were used as scouts and both came up with the flying squadron off Santiago on the 27th of May, before the retrograde movement to Key West was begun.

Admiral Cotton testified that he had gone aboard Admiral Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, on that date to take dispatches to him and he said at first that he gave him four or five dispatches addressed to the commander of the squadron. He afterwards modified this statement saying that probably all but two of these dispatches were addressed to himself (Admiral Cotton), but that they contained information which he thought should be in Admiral Schley's possession. One of these was a copy of a dispatch from Admiral Sampson, which had not been printed in the official records, stating that the Spanish fleet was at Santiago. He also said that coal could have been taken from the Merrimac on the 27th of May, the day on which the retrograde movement to Key West was begun for the purpose of coaling.

JUDGE WILSON EXPIRES.

Sudden Death of Schley's Counsel Started Inquiry Court.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Judge Jeremiah M. Wilson, chief counsel for Rear Admiral Schley, died a few minutes after 11 o'clock yesterday morning in his room at the Shoreham Hotel. On Monday evening Judge Wilson was taken suddenly ill and called his family physician. The ailment was thought at that time to be acute indigestion. Now it transpires that the cause of death was uraemic poisoning.

The court of inquiry promptly adjourned until this morning upon the news of Judge Wilson's death. Admiral Schley and Attorney Rayner were visibly affected. Tears sprang to the eyes of Admiral Schley, although

It was plain that he was trying to suppress his emotion. Mr. Rayner said that the death of Judge Wilson would make no change in the court's program, and the hearing would go right along.

TOMB GUARD ATTACKED

Soldier at Late President's Resting Place Tells Thrilling Story. Canton, O., Sept. 30.—A strange story came from Westlawn Cemetery last night, where a company of regulars from Fort Wayne, Mich., are now guarding the vault in which the body of the late President McKinley lies. It is to the effect that the guard on duty on the top of the vault fired a shot at one man who refused to heed his challenge, that the shot was diverted by another man, who appeared from another direction, and that an effort was made to stab the guard.

Private Deprend was on guard duty on top of the vault at a point commanding the entrance below, and the men appeared from the rear. Shortly before 7.30 he saw what he took to be the face of a man peering from behind a tree about 40 feet from his post. He watched it for 20 minutes, he says, and at 7.45 saw the man hurry to a tree 10 feet nearer.

He challenged the man to halt, but this was not heeded, and the fellow approached nearer. Deprend leveled his gun and aimed to shoot for effect, but just at that instant another man, who came toward him from the opposite side, caught the gun, threw it up, and the bullet was spent in the air. This same man struck Deprend on the right side of the abdomen with a knife or other sharp weapon, cutting an "L" gash in his overcoat an inch and a half long each way and a smaller one in his blouse. The flesh was not broken but was bruised under the cuts in the clothing. Deprend in the struggle fell and rolled down the side of the vault.

Lieutenant Ashbridge, officer of the day, was in front of the vault, and rushed to the top on hearing the shot but the men made good their escape. All members of the company on hearing the shot hurried to the vault, and besides searching the cemetery the guard was increased.
