A TRAIN TAKES ITS OWN PICTURE.

Allen Ayrault Green, a young photographer of the University of Chicago, was called on recently to take a picture for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad of their fast Chicago-Denver train, "The Burlington's Number One," while in motion. After several unsuccessful trials with the usual apparatus, he made an electric switch, attaching it to the rail so that when the engine struck it the circuit was closed. This switch communicated through a metallic circuit to a set of dry cells, and thence to a shutter-release. The shutter-release was a complicated machine, consisting of a pair of low-resistance coils, acting as electro-magnets on closing the circuit and attracting the armature, it in turn communicating with a series of levers so constructed as to minimize the resistance of the stout spring it was to release. The instant that the engine struck the switch it closed the circuit, and instantly the electricity communicated with the high-speed shutter and the picture was correctly registered on the center of the plate. Thus the Burlington's train took its own picture while running at full speed, and it may seem odd, yet it is true, that a railroad locomotive has at last joined the great army of amateur photographers.

fact an interesting and exhaustive essay on the humor of the world. In Mr. Howell's genial style the comprehensiveness of Senor Bellezza's book as well as the comprehensiveness of humor throughout the world is suggested.

REVIEW OF REVIEWS

PRESIDENT McKinley's assassination and Mr. Roosevelt's accession to the Presidency are the two dominant topics in the October Review of Reviews. Aside from the editorial treatment of those momentous events, a fully illustrated account of the last days of President McKinley is contributed by Mr. Walter Wellman, the accomplished newspaper correspondent, who was himself at Buffalo and writes from personal, first-hand knowledge of all the details of the tragedy. Mr. Wellman's comprehensive article is followed by a brief characterization of the last of our great trio of martyr Presidents, from the pen of Commissioner H. B. F. Macfarland, of the District of Columbia; there is also an article on President Roosevelt, with portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and the six Roosevelt children. The Review presents the full text of Mr. McKinley's Buffalo speech, made on the day before the shooting, and of Mr. Roosevelt's Minneapolis address of September 2.

WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION.

THE October number of the Woman's Home

Companion is of particular interest to women. Mrs. Larned, the noted writer of fine cookery, contributes an article of "Modern Savories in Antique Settings." Mrs. Kretschmar writes about "Servants." Sallie Joy White and Mary Graham talk about matters pertaining to the household. There are five pages devoted to fall fashions. The great Cincinnati Fall Festival is the subject of an illustrated article. Other features deal with Girard College and the life of its eccentric founder; "The Southern Girl of To-day." The fiction includes "Love's Repentance," by Lewis E. MacBrayne; "The Awakening of Caleb Swift," Frederic Van Rensselaer Dey; "The Stimulus of a Hope," by Grace S. Richmond. Published by The Crowell & Kirkpatrick Co., Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy; sample copy free.

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

A young man recently wrote to the editor of The Ladies' Home Journal asking, "What have you to say, squarely and fairly, to a young man of twenty-nine who is about to marry?" In the October Journal Mr. Bok uses a page for his answer. Its salient points are these: that a man should make the woman of his choice his chum, as well as his wife; that he should show her the highest consideration as well as love her; that he should remember that he owes his wife to her mother, and treat his mother-in-law with respect.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrh, Coughs and Colds.

MR. AND MRS. PETER HOFFMAN, KYLERTOWN, PA.

MR. PETER HOFFMAN, Kylertown, Pa., writes:

"I was deaf for five years and could find no help. I was completely deaf; was afflicted with shortness of breath, bronchitis, trouble in the throat, so that I was in misery. Through one of Dr. Hartman's almanacs I decided to try Peruna, and bought a bottle.

"I took three bottles and now feel well; my hearing is good again; I can breathe without difficulty; my throat is no longer inflamed. I followed all the directions, and can now say that Dr. Hartman's Peruna has cured me.

"I recommend it to all suffering with catarrh. I am seventy-one years old, have an appetite again and can work. I feel ten years younger."

When old age comes on, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people.

This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is their safe-guard. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that meets these cases exactly.

Such cases cannot be treated locally; nothing but an effective systemic remedy could cure them. This is exactly what Peruna is.

Mrs. Peter Hoffman also writes:

"I was sick for many years; suffered with the liver, stomach and kidneys. I had seven doctors, but none could cure me, as they did not know what ailed me.

"Every one who saw me said that I could not live very long. I began to take Peruna and grew better every day. The severe pains in the stomach have disappeared. I am now well and have a good appetite. I am seventy years old and can do my work without getting tired.

"Peruna is the best medicine in the world for catarrh. Your good Peruna has saved my own and my husband's life."

Mr. Robert Metters, of Mardock, Bas Co., Neb., Box 45, writes:

"I had catarrh from my head all through my system. I took Peruna until I was entirely cured. I am eighty-three and a half years old, and feel as young as I did ten years ago.

"I visited recently among some old friends, who said I looked as young as I did twenty years ago."

Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.
