TO SUSTAIN ROOSEVELT

Republicans of Pennsylvania Will Poll a Rousing Majority This Fall.

PENROSE SEES THE PRESIDENT

A Perfect Fizzle Was the Gathering of the So-called Union Party to Nominate An Independent State Ticket to Further Personal and Political Aims. (Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Sept. 24.-An absolute fizzle would properly characterize the so-called convention of the Union party which was held in Philadelphia this week for the purpose of placing in nomination an independent ticket for justice of the supreme court and state treasurer. The program to nominate Judge Yerkes, Democrat, of Bucks county, for the supreme bench, and E. A. Coray, Wanamaker insurgent, for state treasurer, was mapped out months ago when Wanamaker, Mc-Clure and Gordon concluded that they would start in upon their latest political enterprise, which has for its object the disruption of the regular Republican organization in the state, in order to make possible the political ambitions of Wanamaker and to serve the personal interests of Colonel A. K. McClure and former Judge James Gay Gordon, McClure and Gordon are regarded as simply hanging on to the Wanamaker outfit for what there is

THE MONEY STILL FLOWS.

The hundreds of thousands of dollars already spent to land Wanamaker in the United States senate have been distributed through various channels without satisfactory results, but it has been determined to make another effort to capture the big prize and the Mr. McKinley. money is still flowing freely to the rame end.

McClure and Gordon are both practical men and they know what they are about. They are not losing anything through their activity in the Wanamaker camp.

While a great amount of money was spent in the work of organizing this TIN PLATE MEN'S TREATMENT Union party convention, there is every reason to believe that the money might as well have been thrown away.

There were few men of prominence or influence in the gathering. Scanning the list by counties, no one familiar with the leading men in different sections of the state could pick out ever half a dozen former Republicans of any standing in the entire membership of the convention.

It was packed with hirelings of the insurgent machine in the various counties and it was made up largely from Philadelphia precinct heelers. who could be gotten to attend any convention for any purpose, at so much

The so-called Union party is a false pretense. It is no party at all. It is merely a collection of free booters, disgruntled office seekers and men who have never been Republicans and who seek every opportunity to disrupt that organization. Included in the aggregation are many soldiers of fortune, who follow any cause or any leader who will keep them supplied with funds.

WILL STAND BY ROOSEVELT. While political highbinders have been engaged helping the insurgent organization the regular Republicans have been wide awake and active and the prospects are that the majorities for the candidates on the Republican was at first expected.

There appears to be a widespread feeling among Republicans that it is their duty as patriotic American citizens, in view of the assassination of President McKinley, to have grand old Pennsylvania come to the front next November with the banner Republican majority in the Union, to show President Roosevelt that he has the absolute confidence, the hearty good will and the loyal support of his fellow countrymen and fellow Republicans at the outset of his administration. from the wilds of Idaho to reach Canton in time to attend the funeral of the satisfactory talk with President Roosevelt and given his assurance of the support of both Senator Quay and himself in the policy he has outlined for his President Roosevelt have been personal friends for years. They were at Harvard together, and the friendship of their young manhood days ripened into an intimacy which has continued throughout their successful careers.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS ACTIVE. Senator Penrose has gone to Scranton, where he will make the principal eulogy at the McKinley Memorial services gotten up under the direction of a citizens' committee. He will remain ever to attend the convention of the State League of Republican Rubs, where the opening guns of the state political campaign will be fired this week. The young Republicans, who constitute the bulk of the membership of the State League of Republican Clubs, are

They are united in their hostility to the methods of the "yellow" newspapers, which are held responsible for the spread of the anar- Philadelphia Woman Says Reportchistic doctrines of Emma Goldman and the others who inspired Czolgosz to slay the President. They will be heard from throughout the coming canvass in no uncertain tones, and the champions of Emma Goldman, like Dime Novel Like Happening in Staid Wanamaker's Philadelphia North American, will be severely scored from one end of the commonwealth to the other.

FOUR MEN HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Philadelphia Startles the Country. Perpetrators Under New State Law Are Liable to Imprisonment for Life.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8 .- Mabel Goodrich, of 241 North Tenth street, stout and composed, yesterday related the sensational story of her experience as a prisoner in the hands of a band of kidnappers. When, last week, she made complaint to the police they cried "impossible." But now the detectives admit that the crime was real and that it touched depths of the dark side of city life heretofore unsounded. Howard S. Sloan, of 2556 North Twelfth street, a reporter employed at various times upon the Inquirer and Times, was, after yesterday's hearing, held without ball upon the and in $1,000 bail each upon charges of assault and battery and highway robbery. D. Knight Finlay, of Wayne, Pa., a stenographer in the employ of The North American, was held in the same way for similar charges. Harry E. Wallace, of 124 North Seventeenth street, society editor of The Press, and Oscar S. Dunlap, a barber, living at 5257 Addison street, were held without bail upon charges of kidnapping and conspiracy.

Last Monday Mrs. Goodrich went to police headquarters and told a story of kidnapping and robbery so daring that the police at first doubted its truth. She said that for some time past a young man, who represented himself as a resident of Germantown, had been a frequent visitor at her establishment. He was well dressed and spent money freely. Last Wednesday a week, she said, he proposed a drive through Fairmount Park. He asked her to dress in her best clothes and for her to wear all her diamonds and other jewelry, because on the return from the drive he intended to take her to the finest dining room in the city, and he wanted her to "shine with the other women in the place.

She accepted, and the next day she went out with him in a carriage, with a fine pair of richly caparisoned horses, and with a coachman on the box wearing stylish livery. At a lonely place in Fairmount Park the carriage was stopped by a man whom she said represented himself as D. Clarence Gibboney, the secretary and attorney of the Law and Order Society of this city. This man, she went on to say, told her that he had a warrant for her arrest on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, but that the matter could be fixed up. He was invited into the carriage, and the next moment she was gagged and blindfolded. She was driven somewhere she did not know, but she noticed from one corner of the handkerchief over her eyes that the men paid toll Pittsburg, Oct. 4 .- A combination of at two toll gates, and that they took her into a building where a fire en-Pennsylvania is being formed, and ap- gine and a hook and ladder truck were

He FRENCH REMEDY told substantially the same story as that narrated by the woman.

He said they kept her confined in the fire house, and then took her to the house, where Sloan was arrested yesterday, at 2556 North Twelfth St. All the lewelry was recovered, most of it having been found in the possession of Findlay and Sloan, who were wearing some of the rings. Only one check, for $155, was cashed, and most of this money was also recovered. Sloan was to have begun work on the same newspaper on which Findlay was employed the been society editor of the paper on which he was employed for only two weeks.
