In Life Worth Living?

Then don't neglect a cough or cold, especially when only twenty-five cents will buy a bottle of Mexican Syrup. It is so soothing and so many consumptives have been made well by its use. Read some of the testimonials on the wrapper around each bottle that prove this remedy more sure for deep seated colds, habitual coughing and even consumption, than any other remedy known to physicians. Many of whom recommend and prescribe it where ices efficacious remedies fail.

Pale, Puffy, Children.

If a child has a bad smelling breath, if it habitually sneezes, if it is cross and nervous, if it does not sleep soundly, if it is hollow-eyed, if it has a pale, bloodless complexion, if it is growing thin and lifeless, give it Mother's Worm Syrup and you will remove the cause of its distress quickly. Then will its little cheeks get red and rosy, its appetite and digestion improve and its health be better. Price only 25 cents. No other worm-killer so effective.

Be Not Deceived.

Don't think you can neglect your health and reach old age. The way to longevity is to be kind to nature and then nature will be kind to you. Constipation, inactive liver, etc., are foes to nature. Try them. They are cured by cleaning and strengthening.

Pain Can Be Cured.

Why suffer pain? Pain is trying to kill you. Why not kill pain. Nothing kills pain, either internal or external pain, so quickly and so effectively as Gooch's Quick Relief, Cures cramp and colic.

A Complete Cure.

When you take Gooch's Sarsaparilla you find it a complete cure for bad blood.

Pile-lice Cures Piles.

Money refunded if it ever fails. ANTI-AGUE cures Chills and Fever.

A new remedy for biliousness is now on sale at Middleburg Drug Store. It is called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the attack if given as soon as the first indication of the disease appears. Price, 25 cents per box. Samples free.

Her First Potato Salad.

She boiled the eggs and sliced them with discriminating care. She cut the onions finely, with a most important air. With comprehending art she mixed the golden mayonnaise. Which, really to her credit, was deserving the highest praise. Then she added the potatoes (humming easy a little ballad). As she thought: "How pleased will hubby be with this delicious salad." But at lunch she was the saddest little girl you ever saw. When he said: "Aren't these potatoes, dearest, just a little raw?" -London Tit-Bits.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN PERSUASIVE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth in General Assembly met, that the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Amendment One to Article Eight, Section One.

At the end of the first paragraph of said section, after the words "shall be entitled to vote at all elections," the words "subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact," so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 1. Qualification of Electors. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

1. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.
2. He shall have resided in the State one year (or, if having previously been a qualified elector of native born citizen of the State, he shall have resided in and returned within six months immediately preceding the election.)
3. He shall have resided in the election district for which he votes at least two months immediately preceding the election.
4. If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Amendment Two to Article Eight, Section Seven.

Strike out from said section the words "but no elector shall be deprived of the privilege of voting by reason of his name not being registered," and add to said section the following words, "but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to such laws, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class," so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 7. Uniformity of Election Laws.—All laws regulating the holding of elections by the cities or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

FUSION DEAL ON

Democrats Finally Accept Terms of Union Party Managers.

TO DISRUPT REPUBLICAN PARTY

That is the Game So As to Pave the Way For a Democratic Governor and a Wanamaker Legislature at the Ensuing Session.

(Special Correspondence.) Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—As was expected, the Democrats have withdrawn their candidate for state treasurer in order to permit of the carrying out of the deal to have E. A. Coray, the nominee of the Union party, put upon the Democratic ticket in his stead.

This will complete the compact made between James M. Guffey, member of the Democratic National committee from Pennsylvania and the Wanamaker managers of the Union party, by which they are to work together against the Republican party this year to form a nucleus of an organization which will run a fusion campaign for the election of members of the legislature next year, who will be called upon to elect a United States senator.

It is quite manifest to all of the Wanamaker adherents that their favorite cannot hope to be supported by regular Republicans for the United States senatorship or any other honor in the gift of the Republican organization.

They fear, as the Philadelphia Record said a few days ago, that "Wanamaker is a dead cock in the pit," but as long as the cash holds out they propose to make the best fight they can for the money.

Guffey sees that he cannot lose anything, particularly as it is understood that part of the deal with the Union party managers is that the Democrats shall be permitted to elect the next governor in return for their support of the Union party candidates for the legislature.

BREAKERS AHEAD FOR GUFFEY.

The withdrawal of Palm, the Democratic nominee for state treasurer, does not meet with favor in Democratic circles and Guffey is going to have troubles of his own in working out the scheme.

Guffey would have nominated Coray instead of Palm when the Democratic state convention met at Harrisburg, but he found the sentiment among the delegates to the convention pronounced against the placing of a disgruntled and bolting Republican on their ticket. He was afraid to force Coray's nomination. He decided to put Palm on the ticket, temporarily, at least.

Had Palm withdrawn before, Guffey would have been compelled under the Democratic rules, to reconvene the Democratic convention, and he would have had to nominate a Democrat in place of Palm. The state convention adopted two resolutions calling for the nomination of a Democrat in the event of either of the candidates withdrawing.

Now the Democratic state committee will have to fill the vacancy occasioned by the withdrawal of Palm. There will be a vigorous protest against the substitution of Coray for Palm, and it is not improbable that there will be a lively struggle at the meeting of the state committee.

Chairman Creasy has been visiting different parts of the state, meeting members of the committee and working in the interest of the nomination of Coray.

Coray has nothing in common with Democracy, the Democrats opposed to his nomination say, and it is quite manifest that he has no place in the regular Republican organization, as he has been an insurgent for a number of years. He is an ardent Wanamaker supporter.

The managers of the Union party know that there is no likelihood of success at the coming election, but they hope to form an organization, as their state chairman, Ritter, indicated on his acceptance of the position which he now holds, in order to be in shape for the United States senatorial contest of next year.

CORAY WILL BE KNIFED.

The Union party managers and Colonel Guffey have evidently not taken into account the feeling among straight Democrats throughout the state against the Wanamaker movement.

There will be thousands of Democrats who will not vote for Coray for state treasurer. They realize that he has no standing in either the Democratic or Republican party and they resent the idea of his being foisted upon their party at this time simply to oblige the Wanamakertes.

Coray is a very erratic politician. He will be cut most where he is best known to Democrats. In his home county of Luzerne, Democratic committees have already adopted resolutions protesting against his being placed upon the Democratic ticket.

In Philadelphia he will be cut many thousands by the Democrats who are protesting against Colonel Guffey coming into this county and dictating to the local Democracy. He practically told them that unless they nominated the Wanamaker local ticket he would read their organization out of the Democratic party.

Imagine what these Democrats will do with Mr. Coray when they reach the ballot box.

Guffey has practically given over the Democratic organization in the Quaker City to Judge Gordon who is on the Wanamaker staff of political supporters and the Democratic voters have no redress excepting as they propose to act at the coming election.

YERKES WEAK AT HOME

Candidate for Supreme Court Not Strong Among His Neighbors.

A MAN OF VIOLENT PREJUDICES

He Is Assured of Defeat Should He Aspire to Re-election to the Common Pleas Bench in Bucks County at the Coming Election.

Special correspondence from Doylestown tells of the weakness of the Democratic candidate for the supreme bench, who at the instance of the Wanamaker interest in Philadelphia has been placed upon the Union party ticket.

"Judge Harman Yerkes, of Doylestown, the Democratic and anti-Republican candidate for judge of the state supreme court," says a Doylestown correspondent, "has presided over the courts of Bucks county for nearly 18 years. He was first elected judge by more than a thousand Democratic majority. At the close of his first term he was renominated and elected by the bare majority of about 230 votes. The prediction has been repeatedly made in Bucks county lately that he cannot be re-elected to another term because of the enemies he has made in and out of his party. His second election as judge of the Bucks county courts was only made possible by the votes of Republicans who supported his candidacy.

"During his second term he has developed the attributes of a czar. He has assumed to regulate and manage men and affairs in his own county as only a despotic ruler would do. He has commanded grand juries to do his biddings no matter judge in these days is known to do. He has gone far out of his way to exert his power, and has lost the esteem of many of the best people of Bucks county.

A MAN OF VIOLENT PREJUDICES.

"Judge Yerkes is a man of strong and violent prejudices. These prejudices he carries upon the bench and allows them to control him in certain instances. Up to the first nomination of Bryan he was an intensely bitter Democrat, but in the first Bryan campaign he sunk his partisanship and opposed Bryan's election. For this he has never been forgiven by straight-out Democrats.

"During that campaign, as an illustration, Judge Yerkes came to dislike a certain Democrat in Doylestown who was enthusiastic in support of Bryan. This man headed a company which later applied to court for a distillery license. Judge Yerkes, many believed, declined to issue the license because of his difference with this man on the Bryan issue. The case was carried to the supreme court, which directed Judge Yerkes to issue the license, all the conditions of the law having been complied with.

"In a subsequent case, not at all connected with the one referred to, Judge Yerkes took occasion to utter a slur upon the supreme court such as is without parallel in the judicial history of this commonwealth. That delinquency should be upon record in the Bucks county courts, and might have been made the basis of impeachment proceedings had it been desired to proceed in the matter.

"The prejudices of Judge Yerkes are many and deep-seated. He is extremely sensitive, and dislikes criticism. He himself criticizes freely, but he does not want his views or his actions commented upon adversely. He resents anything of this sort, and many of his opinions are burdened with this resentment.

"During the early years of his present term the Republicans elected as district attorney the county chairman of that party, who directed the fight against his re-election. That district attorney had the most trying experience that has ever befallen a similar official in the county. Judge Yerkes seemed to take advantage of every opportunity to humiliate him.

"Judge Yerkes lacks the judicial temperament in a conspicuous degree, some intimation of which has been given. He can not restrain himself in his likes and his dislikes, and carries them upon the bench. He never forgets an enemy and rarely remembers a friend. He is absolutely selfish and self-opinionated.

"There is another feature of Judge Yerkes' unfitness for the supreme judgeship, and that is his lack of experience in the higher or more involved law. Almost his entire time as a judge has been given to petty criminal cases. He has rarely been called upon to pass on questions involving momentous or even intricate questions of law.

"Much of the business of the Bucks county courts has been and is of a minor character. The business of the county is almost exclusively agricultural, and that, as everybody knows, does not call for much or important litigation. Consequently Judge Yerkes' experience as a lawyer and as a judge is with cases of no great importance.

"Judge Yerkes, realizing, no doubt, that he can not be re-elected to the position he now holds in his own county, has exerted every possible effort to secure another job. He has even thrown over his strong Democratic tendencies to accept the straw of independent Republican support. He wants to sit upon the supreme court bench, and he is willing to subvert his party inclinations to take advantage of every opportunity that may be the means of securing the coveted position. It is no lofty ambition that urges Judge Yerkes on in the pending campaign. He simply does not desire to retire from the judiciary to the place of a mediocre lawyer in a small country town."

IN THE WINTER.

(Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master.)

For coughs and colds Benson's Plaster is an incomparably better remedy than any other—external or internal. Their medicinal properties enter the skin and go straight to the seat of the disease.

They relieve and cure a "seated" cold without disturbing the system or upsetting the stomach. Cough mixtures often nauseate Benson's Plaster is medicinal in the highest degree, and quickest to act.

Placed on the chest or back or on both at once in serious cases, the good effect is felt immediately. The congestion yields, the cough abates and the breathing improves.

Lung or bronchial affections or kidney disease, are cured with the least possible suffering and loss of time.

Benson's Plaster is immeasurably superior to Belladonna, Strengthening, Capsicum or any other combination in plaster form. They are also preferable to ointments, liniments and salves.

Benson's Plaster has received fifty-five highest awards over all competitors; and more than 5,000 physicians and druggists have declared them to be one of the few trustworthy household remedies. It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by Middleburg Drug Store.
