

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

PURPLE FOR MULDOON.

Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago is Created Auxiliary Bishop by the Pope.

Rev. P. J. Muldoon, pastor of St. Charles Borromeo's church, has been chosen auxiliary bishop for the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Chicago.

His appointment was confirmed by the authorities at Rome, June 11, and although no definite day has been set for his consecration, it is thought the services will be held August 24 at the Holy Name cathedral, Chicago.

The news of the selection of Father Muldoon did not come as a surprise to his friends in the church, as it had been expected in ecclesiastical circles that Rome would take such action.

Rev. P. J. Muldoon has been prominently before the Catholic public for the last ten years. Born at Columbia, Cal., in 1863, his elementary education was received in the schools of that town.

At the age of 14 years he was matriculated at the collegiate school of St. Mary's, Louisville, Ky. Graduating from that institution, he pursued his studies for the priesthood at St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore. He completed his course when 23 years old and was ordained and admitted to the priesthood.

His first assignment was as assistant to Father Henneberry, the pastor of St. Pius' church, Chicago. There the young clergyman began to assert himself and make his activity felt, first in the affairs of the parish and then in the archdiocese.

His ability as a director was recognized early and he was appointed chancellor of the archdiocese of Chicago. During the world's fair he attracted much attention as secretary of the Catholic exhibition, which received such favorable recognition.

In 1885 he resigned the chancellorship to become the pastor of St. Charles Borromeo church, Twelfth and Cypress streets.

Wants to See His Papa. The son of John Smith is anxious to see his dad, and puts this advertisement in a Texas paper: "If John Smith, who 29 years ago deserted his poor wife and babe, will return, said babe will knock the stuffing out of him."

Human Nature. Sniffles—What do you see up there? Biffles—Nothing. Sniffles—Then why do you stand here and look? Biffles—Well, I saw half a dozen people looking up, and I am trying to find out what attracts them.—N. Y. Herald.

Against His Principles. Perambulating Pete—I've just been deeply insulted, Leary! Langrid Leary—How so, Pete? Perambulating Pete (indignantly)—De leary at de last house accused me of tryin' "to work" on her sympathy!—Brooklyn Eagle.

Guiltily as Charged. Uppardson—I am told you have been talking about me behind my back. Atom—That's the way I have always talked about you. I never talk about a man in front of his back.—Chicago Tribune.

Not Artistic. First Artist (sneeringly)—Dauber evidently believes in painting the sort of bosh the public wants, and not in following art for art's sake! Second Artist (deprecatingly)—Yes; he believes in art for the stomach's sake!—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Silence of Discretion. "Your cook sits on your front piazza every evening." "Well, we like the back porch just as well, and of course we never say anything to hurt cook's feelings in the hot weather."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Perfectly Absurd. Ethel—That detestable Mrs. Brown said that I looked 30! Maud—How perfectly absurd! Ethel (elated)—Frankly, now, how old do you really think I look? Maud—About 40.—Tit-Bits.

Shirt Waists. Henry—Are you partial to shirt waists? David (absent-mindedly)—It depends upon what kind of young woman is inside of them.—Boston Transcript.

Next Thing to It. Mrs. Baldwin—That husband of mine is a most careless man. I expect he'll lose his head some of these days. Mrs. Bunn—I see he's lost the next thing to it—his hair.—Tit-Bits.

His Usual Fate. Getthere—Did you ever attend any of Miss Budd's "at homes?" De Bore (sadly)—No, but I've attended a good many of her not-at-homes.—N. Y. Weekly.

Happiness. I would not care to sit upon a throne if some could share the glory of my state with me. Or about in thankfulness to me. We wisely ruling there.

I would not care for millions if I never might hear the profits of others who accounted me. Their greatest friend and happily trod newer, fairer ways.

I would not care to gaze upon Earth's grandest scene, to see another fair day dawn if there could be no others who might share it and be glad with me. —S. M. Kiser, in Chicago Times-Herald.

PUG ROBS MISTRESS.

Dog Steals Bank Books, Deeds to Valuable Property and Money to Make a Bed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Flecknoe, of No. 540 Metropolitan avenue, Williamsburg, N. Y., found some lost bank notes and deeds of property under peculiar circumstances the other day.

Two weeks ago she discovered that a tin box belonging to her had been forcibly opened and $400 in bills, three bank books and property deeds stolen.

Mrs. Flecknoe, after a vain search, complained at the Herbert street police station, and said that only a person well acquainted with her premises could have committed the robbery.

The woman has a pet pugdog, which knows every nook in the house. For several days past Mrs. Flecknoe had noticed that this animal had found a snug place to sleep behind a hat rack in the parlor hall, and when she removed the rack to dust it she found the missing bank books and deeds.

There was no trace of the money. Mrs. Flecknoe called the dog. When the animal saw that she had possession of the bank books and deeds it tried to seize them. The police are of the opinion that the dog has eaten the money.

JAMES R. KILBOURNE.

Democratic Nominee for Governor of Ohio Is a Popular Citizen of the State Capital.

James Kilbourne, of Columbus, O., democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, was born in Columbus in 1841, graduated at Kenyon before the civil war and at Harvard law school after the war, enlisted as a private and became a colonel. He is president of the Ohio centennial committee, the Columbus board of trade, public library, children's home, guild and associated charities, director of banks and railways, vice president of the army of the Tennessee and a member of other military organizations. He has never held public office and was never a candidate till two years ago, when he was defeated for the gubernatorial nomination by John R. McLean. He has been especially popular among workmen and is an honorary member of the Columbus trades and labor assembly. For years he was the next door neighbor of the late Senator Allen G. Thurman and was his close counselor. His father formerly represented the Columbus district in congress and his grandfather was one of the earliest settlers of that city.

Dimensions of Saturn. Mr. T. J. J. See, of the naval observatory, has announced the results of new measurements of Saturn and its rings, which differ somewhat from older determinations. He makes the exterior diameter of the rings about 173,226 miles, the equatorial diameter of Saturn 74,990 miles, and the polar diameter 67,395, the difference between the two diameters being 7,595 miles, almost equal to the entire diameter of the earth. Mr. See's measures make the diameter of Titan, the largest of Saturn's moons, 2,092 miles. It had previously been estimated as high as 3,500 miles.—Science.

PISO'S CURE FOR

CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup, Tussive Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION

Isn't it Worth 25c. To Be Cured of Constipation

People who suffer from habitual constipation with all its attendant ills, clogged stomach and bowels, sluggish liver, heartburn, indigestion, and thin and impure blood, are too apt to believe that the only remedy is violent purgatives. The contrary is the case. Such cathartics, even if they do move the bowels, are irritating and griping, leave the stomachs inflamed and enfeebled and the constipated condition recurs with greater difficulty of cure and the sufferer constantly growing worse. There is a laxative that moves the bowels without pain or griping, cleanses the stomach, sharpens the appetite, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, and purifies the blood, while its marvellous tonic properties tone up the entire system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It

Its remarkable tonic properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure.

Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine. It tastes good. Children like it and ask for it.

Laxakola, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, viz. Laxative and Tonic, and at one price. No other remedy gives so much for the money. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to LAXAKOLA CO., 122 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 236 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

The Review of Reviews

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS is commended by Statesmen, Professional men and thousands of others prominent in the world's activities, for its fine discrimination in sifting the actual news from conflicting report and the presentation of current events in their just proportion. They comment on its freedom from daily-paper sensationalism. All men and women who want to know what the world is doing find it an intellectual necessity, to judge from the letters received from hundreds. Its editorials are comprehensive, and labor saving to the busy man or woman. Its timely contributions on important topics are by the best-informed writers. Its reviews of other magazines give the best of their best work. It is profusely illustrated.

These letters will enable all thoughtful men and women to judge of its value to them:

PRESIDENT "I know that through its columns views have been presented to me that I could not otherwise have had access to because all earnest and thoughtful men, no matter how widely their ideas diverge, are given free utterance in its columns."—Theodore Roosevelt.

EX-PRESIDENT "I consider it a very valuable addition to my library."—Grover Cleveland.

"It is a publication of very great value. I have sometimes found there very important matter indeed which I should not otherwise have discovered."—George F. Hoar, U. S. Senator, Massachusetts.

"I am a constant reader of the 'Review of Reviews,' and appreciate it very highly indeed. I think it a very important part of my library, and practically a necessity for one in public life."—J. H. Foraker, U. S. Senator, Ohio.

"It is one of the best and most satisfactory publications of the day."—Charles W. Fairbanks, U. S. Senator, Indiana.

"I do not have a great deal of time to read magazines, but I take pleasure in saying that the 'Review of Reviews' is among the number which finds a place on my table each month."—James K. Jones, U. S. Senator, Arkansas.
