VOL. XXXVIII NOV. 7, 1901. NUMBER 44

Judge McClure Elected.

THE returns from Tuesday's election shows that Judge McClure has been re-elected by a good substantial majority.

This tribute to his service on the bench is a fitting testimonial to the regard in which he is held by the people. He was nominated by a large majority of republicans and it is but fitting and proper that all fair-minded men should be consistent and substantiate their deeds by acts of harmony. Judge McClure has stood as the target for many ill-aimed missiles, but the people were the judges and jury and the verdict has been most decisive.

With almost one thousand majority in Snyder County and about the same in Union, shows a complete landslide, bestowing harmony and good will of two-thirds of the people of the Judicial district.

There should be no sore spots to heal, but like good loyal Americans, all should lay down their arms of political warfare for one of peaceful avocations.

The defeated candidates, no doubt, are disappointed, but there have been others in the same shoes before them and doubtless will be again.

LITERARY NOTES.

LADIES HOME JOURNAL.

EVERY one who has read the inimitable "Peterkin Papers" remembers the "Lady from Philadelphia." She it was to whom the Peterkins turned when they didn't know what to do nor how to do it. Comparatively few persons, however, knew that the "Lady" really lived, that her name was Gillespie, and that her great-grandfather was Benjamin Franklin. These facts, which with many others equally interesting were brought out on the occasion of her death in Philadelphia the morning of October 13, lend additional interest to a new department just begun in The Ladies' Home Journal, called "The Lady from Philadelphia." The identity of the person who conducts this department is withheld. All that is vouchsafed is that the new "Lady" is an authority on all questions pertaining to etiquette, manners and good form, and each month in The Journal she will answer such questions regarding these points as may be sent in by young women.

WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION.

THE Woman's Home Companion for November opens with a Thanksgiving story by Mary E. Wilkins. Another New England story is "The Diplomacy of Grandma Gage," by Sophie Swett. Heybert D. Ward contributes "The Man Who Failed." An especially timely article is "Foot ball Heroes," by Mrs. Walter Camp. The beginning of a series dealing with "Curious Marriage Customs" deals with marriage in Russia. Articles of vital interest to house-keepers are "November Settling and Cheer," by Mrs. Larned, "The New Art," "Danish Needlework," Gold Bullion Embroidery, "Women at the Exposition," and several pages of fashions. There are three reproductions of notable paintings. Published by The Crowell & Kirkpatrick Co., Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy; sample copy free.

COSMOPOLITAN.

AS WE come toward the Christmas holidays, larger space in the magazines is given to fiction.

THE COSMOPOLITAN includes a tragic story of the Mexican foot-hills by THOMAS A. JANVIER, a very clever society story by CAROLYN WELLS, one of the Old French Romances by RICHARD LE GALLIENNE, an unusually interesting Indian narrative by H. T. GEORGE, and a weird story by S. R. CROCKETT.

THE OUTLOOK.

THE only portrait which has appeared of Ex-Governor Thoma G. Jones of Alabama, who has been appointed a Federal Judge by President Roosevelt because of his eminent ability, without reference to the fact that he is a Democrat, is to be found in the Magazine Number of The Outlook for November. ($3 a year. The Outlook Company, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York.)

SUCCESS.

MANY good qualities go to the insuring of a genuine success: a strong, hopeful heart, industry, patience, perseverance, a largeness of aim and view, tenacity of purpose, power to control the tongue, swift precision, mental sight, a clear view into the future, reticence concerning plans, the submission of the body to the will, and, as a prime factor, that peculiar virtue which, for want of a specific name, may be called "ballast." Ballast is really many virtues, in nice proportion. It is to know ourselves, our position, and the power we possess for any task to be done. It is the making for a desired point, with the steadiness of a locomotive, and as directly as a crow flies. If we accuse a person of waiting "ballast" we think of him blown about by every wind of circumstances, and of waving among a variety of ends. This is the great commercial sin. No one in the business world is held more cheaply than the man without ballast. He is like a ship, leaving port with colors flying, and not a pound of ballast in her hold.—Amelia E. Barr, "Success" for November.

REVIEW OF REVIEWS.

THE threatened disappearance of many kinds of game from the United States and the needed legislation for the protection and preservation of birds and animals in our States and Territories are the topics discussed by Mr. John S. Wise in the Review of Reviews for November. The article is full of suggestions to legislators and officials, as well as to sportsmen and other private citizens.

THE BEE HIVE

Silk and Flannel Waists

Are among the principal attractions of the store at present. People are getting ready for the cold weather. Our stock of these indispensable garments is well nigh limitless. Everything that is new and is smart here, and what is more, is here at prices that cannot be found elsewhere. We started out to give you a description, but there were so many styles that we found it an impossible task. Suffice it to say that the silk waists are bewilderingly beautiful with hemstitching, cording and tucking in lovely shades of rose, light green, blue, maize, cardinal, gray, pink, and white and black.

The prices are $2.98, $4.50, $5.00, $5.50 up to $7.50.

The Flannel Waists: Some are plaited, some tucked, others have strap trimming, or velvet ribbon or buckles, or new cuff, while others depend on the quality of the flannel alone for their beauty and are fine simplicity itself. Color-line pink, light blue, cardinal, green, rose, royal, white and black. Scale of prices, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 up to $3.50. A good line of flannel waists for 50c.
