G. B. MILBOR, A. M.

Muncy, Pa.

Where He Was Eminent.
"Your son," said the teacher, "has missed it on arithmetic."
"Yes."
"No good at spelling."
"Yes."
"A dunce in history."
"Yes."
"And there's no good in him."
"Perfessor," said the farmer, "have you ever heard that boy cussin' of a Georgia mule, under a brillin' sun, in a ten-acre field?"—Atlanta Constitution.

Imagination Required.
Bilkins—Your friend Scribbler seems to be always short of funds. If his books don't sell, why don't you try him at office work when you need a new man?
Boomer—No use. A man who can't succeed as a novelist hasn't imagination enough for the real estate business.—N. Y. Wee.

A Familiar Illustration.
"Papa, what is a king?"
"A king, my child, is a person whose authority is practically unlimited, whose word is law and whom everybody must obey."
"Papa, is mamma a king?"—Pittsburgh Bulletin.

Cash Better Than Credit.
It is all well enough to give credit where credit is due but it is better still to pay cash.—Chicago Daily News.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY

HIS LIFE AND WORK.

BY

GEN. CHARLES H. GROSVENOR.

The late President's lifelong comrade in war, colleague in Congress and champion in House of Representatives; was near the President's side with other great men when his eyes were closed in death; followed his remains to National Capitol and to Canton. Millions of copies will be sold. Sales spreading like fire in dry stubble, men and women taking 10 to 20 orders daily. It is the official book. Eulogies from Governors, Senators, editorials from great dailies. Last and dying words of world's great men, but none so grand as McKinley's.—"IT IS GOD'S WAY." Contains a photograph of last photograph of President ever taken. You can easily and quickly clear $2,500. The General requires that share of proceeds of sale of every book sold shall be donated to a McKinley Monument Fund. Thus every subscriber to this book becomes a contributor to this fund. Everybody will buy it, orders for the skin, no one will refuse. Send 12-cent stamps for elegant prospectus; 10,000 copies will be sold in this vicinity quick; widawake business man or woman of some means can make a fortune quick by getting sole control of a State.

You'll Get It.

You'll get a neat job of Printing, and a tasteful, effective, modern, stylish, and inexpensive one, if you place the order with us.

We do one thing; we print; and we do that so well that pleased patrons keep us busy. Big jobs or small ones—they "all look alike" to us.

THE POST, Middleburgh, Pa.

HE KNEW OF IT.

Dr. A—I performed an operation on Borsion yesterday.

Dr. B—Yes, I know; saw it in the papers.

A—In the papers?

B—Yes; in the death notices this morning.—Sondags-Nisse.

Fact in Fiction.
"Of making many books there is no end"—This truth would be of no adding as it looks Did not this famous book ever record: One reason why I don't read any books! —Puck.

The Only Kind She Knew.
Mrs. Browne—Mrs. Whitty is forever talking about the repartee at her house when she and her husband entertain.
Mrs. Malaprop—Yes, I suppose that's some cheap kind. I always use Oolong myself.—Philadelphia Press.

Be Opportune.
Inopportune consolations increase a deep sorrow.—Rousseau.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few of us are ever looking at A. T. Loomis, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Pa., that for ten years in suffering from Rheumatism a few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Indigestion, Typhoid, and all the Malaria, Gout, and Gravel, Glandular, and all the ailments of the J. W. Sampson, Ill.

A Bad Breath

A bad breath means a bad stomach, a bad digestion, a bad liver. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. They cure constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick headache.

25c. All druggists.

ONE ON THE MINISTER.

Rev. Dr. Thirdly—No, sir; a minister should never use another minister's sermon.
Deacon Kidder—I think he's justified under some circumstances.
Rev. Dr. Thirdly—Under what circumstances, sir?
Deacon Kidder—Well, for instance, if it was a very short sermon.—Chicago Chronicle.

Alas! Too True.
Truth crushed to earth will rise again. In a manner that's quite rash: For it no sooner gets upon its feet Than it gets another smash.—Chicago Daily News.

Had More Than He Wanted.
Wife (to unhappy husband)—I wouldn't worry, John. It doesn't do any good to borrow trouble.
Husband—Borrow trouble! My dear, I'm not borrowing trouble; I've got it to lend.—Tit-Bits.

Proficient Teachers.
"How nicely Mr. Jamaica dances the two-step!" exclaimed Miss Flushing.
"Well, no wonder," responded the Cheerful Idiot, "he was taught by his two step-sisters."—Brooklyn Eagle.
