onvincing proof that the kidneys and blader are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant ecessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extra-ordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. f you need a medicine you should have the st. THE ETHICS OF LUCK.

Arbitrary Dogmas Take the Place of Strange Ideas of Some People Rea Logical Basis Among Believers.

On the belief in luck have augurs, divinators, fortune tellers, all traded from time immemorial to the present age, says Chambers' Journal. They essarily, arbitrary dogmas take the out their schemes. They rely on the luck of odd numbers; in them the imnine was at one place and period looked as one of the Caesar's gave his name to the eighth month-that in which had occurred. Have they not succumbed to the ill-luck attending a gem, to gain possession of which a shed their blood? No doubt it is very unlucky to awaken the covetousness of a robber and a murderer.

HIGHLY CIVILIZED ANCIENTS.

Contents of Long Buried Tombs Show Fine Work of Early Artisans.

The middle-aged man who has explored life to weariness and whom novels will no longer stir may find his cane and sugar beets. sense of mystery and wonder excited anew by the account of discoveries in buried Egypt, says the London Outlook. Prof. Flinders Petrle, who has devoted his life to exploration of the soil and research into the history of that ancient land, completed last week a series of highly instructive lectures at the Royal institution. Long-buried tombs of ancient kings have been discovered and explored, and, although in nearly all cases these have been previously pillaged in the Roman age, enough of the contents remain unbroken or overlooked till now to afford ground for reconstructing, in outline at least, a wonderful and unsuspected working of designs, variety of form ent borne. PROFIT IN GOOD CENTS.

Counterfeiters Run Little Risk and Make Good Margin on Genuine Coins.

To pass a counterfeit $1,000 bill is an extremely difficult undertaking, because the very size of it invites close inspection, but counterfeit cents will pass about as fast as you hand them out, even in banks, under the eves of experts, for their insignificant size disarms suspicion. This fact is being very strongly impressed on the officers of the national subtreasury, who are now in receipt of an immense number of these humble little counterfeits, says the Chicago Tribune.

About 500 of these little bogus coins are arriving at the subtreasury daily, and the April report shows that 13,168 counterfeit cents were received out Pyof a total of 373,870; yet the secret service men are not able to locate the counterfeiters. It is found that the counterfeit cents are growing more and more like the genuine ones, as practice is making perfect, and it is often with difficulty that they are distinguished.

A strange feature of the business is that the bogus cents are intrinsically worth as much as the genuine ones. They have the right quantity and quality of metal in them, bear the proper image and superscription, and yet represent only 17 cents, in value, to the pound, while a pound of similar coins, struck at the United States mint, are legal tender for $1.20. The margin makes profit enough to invite counterfeiting.

Turks are very fond of singing, and boys or men with good voices are eagerly sought after to make up water parties. Their songs, however, are not pleasing to European ears. The singer leans his jaw on his hand, as if he had toothache, and then emits a series of yells, which are impossible to convert into words, but which are supposed to form songs, nearly every word being followed by the word "Aman." Sometime the whole song consists of longdrawn out "Amans."-N. Y. World.

Isn't it Worth 25c. To Be Cured of Constipation

People who suffer from habitual constipation with all its attendant ills, clogged stomach and bowels, sluggish liver, heartburn, indigestion, and thin and impure blood, are too apt to believe that the only remesly is violent purgatives. The contrary is the case. Such catharties, even if they do move the bowels, are irritating and griping, leave the stomach inflamed and enfeebled and the constipated condition recurs with greater difficulty of cure and the sufferer constantly growing worse. There is a laxative that moves the bowels without pain or griping, cleanses the stomach, sharpens the appetite, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, and purifies the blood, while its marvellous tonic properties tone up the entire system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It

Its remarkable tonic properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain-and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine.

It tastes good. IV Children like it and ask for it.

Lazakolo, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most mical, because it combines two medicines, vir.; laxative and tonic, and at one price remedy gives so much for the money. THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEWS REVIEWS

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS is commended by Statesmen, Professional men and thousands of others prominent in the world's activities, for its fine discrimination in sifting the actual news from conflicting report and the presentation of current events in their just proportion. They comment on its freedom from daily-paper sensationalism. All men and women who want to know what the world is doing find it an intellectual necessity, to judge from the letters received from hundreds. Its editorials are comprehensive, and labor saving to the busy man or woman. Its timely contributions on important topics are by the best-informed writers. Its reviews of other magazines give the best of their best work. It is profusely illustrated.

These letters will enable all thoughtful men and women to judge of its value to them:
