Mrs. McHenry Sent to the Penitentiary.
 In the court at Bloomsburg on Wednesday Mrs. Alice McHenry pleaded guilty to the charge of perjury in testifying against Jacob Evans, who was charged with the murder of her husband, Thos. McHenry, on Feb. 1, 1901. Her attorney prayed for mercy saying that she was the mother of six children, the oldest being less than 11 years of age, and that she was under the influence of morphine when she committed the crime. Judge Little sentenced the prisoner to one year and six months at hard labor and solitary confinement in the penitentiary and a fine of $306.

This case grew out of a second confession made by Mrs. McHenry, in which she stated that Horace Eveland and herself had conspired to fasten the crime upon Evans in order to secure the $300 reward offered by the Columbia Co. Commissioner.

Letter to H. S. Mertz, MIDDLEBURGH, PA.
 Dear Sir: There is going to be, from now on, in Middleburgh, a good deal of painting done, that will last in good condition for 3 years up—10 years is common; we know of it good in 15; and we know no limit—it seems to be likely to last as long as the house lasts, in favorable conditions.

The painter that uses this paint will get all the business he can do.

Devco lead and zinc is the paint. It looks as good as any; costs no more; and is ready—no tinting or mixing to do.

The zinc is ground in with the lead by machinery—you can't do that. Test it yourself, if you like; but there's plenty of evidence for it. We take the risk of how it turns out—there is no risk.

Do you want this work?
 Yours truly,
 F. W. DEVOE & Co.

Republican Standing Committee.
 The newly-elected members of the Republican Standing Committee will meet in the court house at Middleburg Saturday, March 8th, 1902, to elect officers for the ensuing year.

PETER YOUNG, Chairman.

A cow belonging to Wm Metters near Klinsgrove, Northumberland county, got sick, and would not eat. Her condition became such that it was found necessary to kill her, which was done last week one day. A post mortem examination was made, and a knife blade four inches long was found in her throat and a lot of nails and old iron and a phosphate sack in her stomach.

Mrs. Abraham K. Middleswarth.

By McClure Correspondent.
 Elizabeth, a daughter of Peter and Wilmna (Hassinger) Bubb, was born in Beaver township, Union (now Snyder) County, on the 9th day of March 1817. Married A. K. Middleswarth on the 16th day of January 1836, died at her home in McClure on the 8th day of February 1902, aged 84 years, 10 months and 29 days. She was raised on the farm now owned by her brother, Reuben Bubb. After her marriage she and her husband moved to West Beaver township where they resided until about twenty-five years ago when they retired from farming and moved to McClure where they have since resided. She is survived by her aged husband and the following children:

Delila, married John Felker and reside at McClure.

Isaac Middleswarth, Ner. B. Middleswarth, Ellen, married to Geo. Benfer, all reside at McClure.

Sallie C., married Wm. M. Bratton, and reside at Lewistown.

In addition to the above named children here are surviving sixteen grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren.

Three brothers are also still living—Reuben Bubb residing near Beavertown, aged 81 years.

David Bubb, residing at Three Rivers, Michigan, but is present visiting in Snyder county and was present at the funeral, aged 72 years.

Mrs. Middleswarth was baptized in her infancy and joined the Lutheran church by the confirmation of Rev. Garman of which she remained a faithful member until her end. She was always a regular attendant in Sunday school and church services until about 2 years ago, when on account of feebleness of mind and body, she was unable to attend. She was a loving mother, a faithful wife and a kind and sympathetic neighbor. No one in need was ever turned away from her door empty handed. The funeral took place last Tuesday, the 11th of Feb. She was followed to her last resting place in the McClure cemetery by a large circle of relatives and friends. According to her request her funeral sermon was delivered by one of her former pastors, Rev. D. M. Stetler of Herndon, Pa., and her present pastor assisting Rev. Seiger.

Cards of Thanks.
 I wish to thank all the Republican voters of Snyder County for the liberal support given me at the late Republican primary election and I shall endeavor in every way to deserve the confidence and esteem they have reposed in me.
 CHAS. E. SAMPELLE.

I desire to publicly express to all my Republican friends my most sincere thanks and gratitude for the liberal support they extended to me for the nomination of County Treasurer and if elected will do all in my power to faithfully and honestly carry out the trust reposed in me.

John J. Wagonseller.

John J. Wagonseller of Bloomsburg, a native of Selinsgrove, died at Bloomsburg last Friday and was buried at Selinsgrove Monday of this week. He was born July 16, 1845, the son of Dr. Jacob Wagonseller, who served two years as state senator for Juniata and Union (including Snyder) Counties, and his wife, Mary Richter, daughter of Peter Richter.

John J. was educated in the public schools of Selinsgrove, and Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport. He was first employed as a clerk with his brother-in-law, L. T. Sharpless at Bloomsburg. In 1878 he was the senior partner of the firm of Wagonseller & Co., but finding that the close confinement interfered with his health, he retired from the business, and began as a traveling salesman. He is known to almost every merchant in Central Pennsylvania, to which territory he was principally confined. He resided at Bloomsburg nearly all the time since 1862.

He was married three times: First, March 19, 1872, to Mary A. Willier, born Jan. 23, 1852, died March 19, 1879. To them were born two sons, John Carrol, born Sept. 2, 1874, and died Nov. 18, 1877; Freddie, born June 2, 1876, died Nov. 13, 1877. His second marriage was to Clara Hughes, born March 15, 1851, died Dec. 27, 1891. Married third Feb. 15, 1898, to Jennie A. Mears, born Aug. 2, 1862. The widow survives him.

Dr. Jacob Wagonseller, the father of the deceased, was born Jan. 2, 1801, in Montgomery county, and was liberally educated having graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in the course of Medicine. He began practicing in his native county, but about 1827, he located in Selinsgrove, Union (now Snyder) county. In addition to practicing his profession, he carried on a mercantile and grain business. For quite a number of years, he was in partnership with his brother, Col. Wm. F. Wagonseller, at the old stand at the canal when nearly all the product of Snyder county was hauled to Selinsgrove. Some of the older citizens of the county well remember their long drives hauling their product down to this firm. He was thus engaged at the time of his death, which occurred at Selinsgrove April 27, 1847. He had abandoned his profession some years previously. He was a man of business qualities and made a success in life. He became prominent in politics as a Whig and as such was elected to the state senate in which body his intelligence made him a useful member. He was active in party affairs and a man of influence in the community as well as a leading spirit in every movement calculated to develop the resources of the county and advance the interests of the community. He served two terms in the state senate, being a member at the time of his death. January 27, 1829, he was married by Rev. Daniel Weiser to Mary Richter, born Dec. 25, 1810 and died March 4, 1863. The union was blessed with eight children:

1. Peter Richter, born Dec. 8, 1829, married July 19, 1854 to Catherine

Chritzman of Gettysburg, was a physician of note and died Aug. 18, 1873, from the effects of a stab in the abdomen. Their children were: (1) Mary Amelia, born July 8, 1854, and died in infancy. (2) Dr. Franklin Jacob Wagonseller of Selinsgrove. (3) George C. Wagonseller, present postmaster of Selinsgrove. (4) Lemisa Alberta, now Mrs. Dr. B. F. Emerick of Carlisle. (5) Gertrude, born Sept. 29, 1861, and died in infancy and (6) Annie E., now Mrs. J. Alfred Strohm of Newville, Pa.

2. Sarah Susanna, born Dec. 15, 1831, married July 15, 1851, to Jesse Benner Evans, of Uwechlan, Chester county, Pa.

3. Mary Elizabeth, born Feb. 27, 1836, married Jan. 13, 1854 to Rev. Franklin Gearhart, who died at Williamsport, Feb. 1, 1890. The widow survives and resides at Bloomsburg.

4. Dr. Benjamin Franklin, born Feb. 17, 1838, married March 25, 1861 to Maria Schoch and reside at Selinsgrove.

5. Lydia Catherine, born Oct. 22, 1840, married William Wagonseller Holman of Chester county.

6. John Jacob, the deceased. The deceased traces his ancestry back to Christopher Wagonseller and his wife Christina, who came to this country from that section of Wittenburg, Germany, around Isny, Leutkirch and Kaufbeuren, and settled prior to 1734 near Pennsburg, Phila. (Montgomery) County. Christopher had an only son, John, and two daughters, Ann Mary, married to John Derr of Pennsburg, and Elizabeth Catherine, married David Haag, who came from Europe and landed in Phila. Sept. 7, 1848. The will of Christopher Wagonseller is filed at City Hall, Phila. It is dated June 13, 1790 and was probated Oct. 22, 1792. John Wagonseller, the only son of Christopher, or "Stoffel" as he was called, was born in 1790 and died in 1799 and is buried in the old cemetery church burying ground, in Montgomery county, (then Phila. Co.) Sept. 24, 1774, was married in Lower Providence township, Montgomery County, by Rev. Henry Geisenheimer, to Susanna Longaker, a lady of Swiss ancestry. To this union ten children were born, among them was Jacob, the father of the deceased, a sketch of whose life of usefulness is given above. The data contained in this sketch was taken from the "History of the Wagonseller Family in America" compiled by the editor of the Post and published in a book of 225 pages during the year 1898.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church of Bloomsburg. He was a pleasing and affable gentleman who made friends wherever he went. His long service with the same firm is the strongest testimonial of his true worth. Aged 56 years, 7 months and 28 days.
