We, the undersigned auditors in and for the county of Snyder, State of Pennsylvania, do hereby certify, that in the discharge of the duties devolving upon us by law, met at the Court House of the County aforesaid, on the first Monday of January, A. D., 1902. (it being the sixth day of the month) to audit, settle and adjust the accounts of the several offices of said county, whose account it is our duty to audit, settle and adjust, and that we find the foregoing statements correct, except that excess had been paid as follows, viz: Order No. 188, 50c; order No. 315, 71c, all of which has been refunded into the County Treasury.

D. N. APP,
J. C. BOWERSOX,
H. A. KLINGLER,
County Auditors

C. STETLER, Clerk.

Notable Exception.

"No man ever obtained anything worth having without working hard for it," said Mrs. Bickers to her husband, who was in a discouraged mood.

"That's so," replied Mr. Bickers, reflectively. "I remember that I obtained you without the slightest difficulty."—Tit-Bits.

A Huge Success.

Coonley—Pete Mokenberry done stahted er empl'yment agency las' week, but he gib it up afteh a few days.

Jackson—Didn't he make er success ob it?

Coonley—Sho', he did! Why, de very fust day he got a good job fo' his wife.—Brooklyn Life.

Second Thoughts Best.

Something that Will Do You Good.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will do them real good. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't a doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimonials given upon our own experience, we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup.—Golden (S. C.) Messenger. For sale by the Middleburg Drug Store.

Many years ago The Hayner Distilling Co. finding it impossible to prevent the adulteration of their product as long as it was distilled through irresponsible dealers, decided to sell direct to the consumer only. As a result, it is now supplying nearly two-hundred thousand customers with pure whiskey at that, too, at a lower price than poor whiskey costs otherwise. See offer elsewhere in this issue.

For Stomach Troubles.

"I have taken a great many different medicines for stomach trouble and constipation," says Mrs. Geiger of Dunkerton, Iowa, "but never had as good results from any as from Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets." For sale by the Middleburg Drug Store.

It Turned His Head.

Jack Winston—I hear you have charged your man, Cholly.

Cholly Chumpleigh—Yaas. Had to, don'cher know. Somebody misled the beggaw faw me, you know, and made him—aw—pwesume and take liberties. Good enough man in other wespects.

Jack Winston—Too bad. But how was it that mistook him for you?

Cholly Chumpleigh—My fiah.—Harlem Life.
