SELINGSGROVE.

There was no Phila. mail from Saturday until Tuesday morning, it seems as though we were almost out of world.

The first transfer of passengers at Island trestling works took place yesterday afternoon.

A benefit basket ball game between the all professionals of Phila.

Susq. team took place Monday evening, this being the second game. The result was in favor of Susq.—54 to 15.

The bridges over the creek at Port Trevorton were badly damaged, the one at the upper end of town is still standing as is also the one at Pine Street, but cannot be rebuilt as it now is, the iron bridge at the lower end of town is minus two spans.

The middle or short span is still standing, Sam Spahr, one of our bridge builders, is at home with his family. John J. Batman of Sunbury was a visitor with his parents, Jacob Batman and wife last week.

Mrs. Rev. N. H. Follmer and family of Huntingdon, are the guests of the parents, F. J. Schoch and wife. The funeral of Mrs. H. E. Miller took place from her late residence yesterday forenoon. A great many persons were present at the services.

Among the people in attendance out of town we noticed Hon. G. Alfred Schoch and wife and Michael Schoch your place, Miss Carrie Strickler of Lewistown, Hon. Chas. Miller and wife and Geo. M. Whitmer and wife of Salem, Jonas Troxler and wife of Shamokin Dam, Mrs. Newman and Miss Tillie Fisher of Sunbury.

Rev. Prof. Yutzy had quite a filling experience getting home from Sunbury, last Sunday, owing to the flood having been unfortunate enough to lose part of his baggage.

Right on the heels of the flood came the snow blizzard Tuesday night and all day Wednesday and part of the night. The roads were completely blocked by drifts being from three to ten feet deep.

Willson VanValzah of New Berlin spent several days in town last week. Mr. VanValzah at one time was a resident of this place.

Dr. Focht was able to attend to his duties Sunday, having recovered from the attack of Grip.

Miss Cora App, daughter of H. App, died Saturday night and was interred Wednesday afternoon. She has been a sufferer for years from dread disease, consumption. Her sympathies go out to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Rev. McLain and child are visiting her parents, J. A. Lumbard and wife.

PORT TREVORTON.

(Too late for last week.)

Miss Rivers was entertained by S. S. Herrold and family the past week.

Mrs. Wm. Schrawder spent several days with her aunt, Mrs. Dr. O. Nipple at Sunbury last week.

The sale of John Rehrers was well attended and things brought a fair price.

The people of our village were entirely cut off from communication to other towns for several days, owing to the storm and flood.

The flood made it impossible to either cross the river or drive to Selingsgrove and the storm had blown the telephone wires down between Herndon and our place and also between Selingsgrove and here. Finally when traffic could be resumed and the mail again reached town an anxious crowd awaited its distribution to see what business, friendship or love might have in store for them.

Prof. Aucker and Prof. Bogarat-tended to business at Selingsgrove Thursday last.

Wesley Arnold caught a large carp in the river with his hands.

Rev. Seilhamer is conducting revival services at St. Thomas Church.

George Kemble, an old veteran of the civil war, died Friday and was interred in the Witmer's cemetery Sunday.

Wm. Schrawder and family will move to Sunbury in the spring.

One of the Sunbury steam boats which was carried away with the flood was caught by John Michaels and Wm. Reigle two of our men.

Michael Brubaker of Mahantango paid the town a visit Wednesday of last week. He was the first man to drive the river road after the great flood.

The flood damaged the old bridge piers considerably. The water had reached the height within eighteen inches of the great flood of 1889.

Eggs are becoming quite cheap since Germany sent their Henry (henner) over here.

Mrs. Henry Schrawder visited her daughter Mrs. Hersh at Sunbury the past week.

Chas. Shaffer moved into the Bolig mansion.

Rev. Haney attended conference at Hazelton and we are glad to note that he was again returned to our place as pastor of the Evan. church.

It Is Easy to Say.

"Be careful," but we must all go from heated houses into chill outer air, and the change sets us coughing and wheezing. Avoiding winter colds is difficult; curing them is not hard if you take Allen's Lung Balsam. Better begin when the cold is young and not wait until it settles deep into the lungs, for then, even with Allen's Lung Balsam, complete relief will be slower.

WEST BEAVER.

Our last week's snow measured about eighteen inches on the level.

Mrs. Malhe Hoofnagle and her brother Reedy Steely spent part of last Sunday as a guest of Mrs. E. W. Pierce.

James W. Steely has been home for the past week from McVeytown where he had been employed on a stove mill.

Rev. Moler of Mifflin county spent Sunday with his son-in-law, J. B. Shellenberger at Bannerville.

James Peter has had lots of water to contend with for the past few weeks on his saw mill at Lowell, Pa.

Mrs. E. W. Pierce, after spending about six months in Pa., started for her western home, Kansas city, Mo. Monday morning.

The McClure scribe for the Herald says the plum fell on a Potter man at our last court for tip staff. Bully for the plum, it also struck an old soldier and a good honest republican. That is more than some parties can say upon whom the plum struck heretofore for the same office.

TREATMENT AT HOME.

Dr. Hartman's Free Advice to Women—A Generous Offer to The Afflicted.

Secretary Illinois Woman's Alliance.
Miss A. Brady, Corresponding Secretary Illinois Woman's Alliance, writes from 2725 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Ill.: "Last year from continued strain in literary work I became very much exhausted, my nerves seemed to give way, and I had backache, headache and serious indigestion. One of my friends suggested that I try Peruna. It certainly acted like magic on my system. "Within ten days I felt new life and health given me, and by taking an occasional dose off and on when I feel extra tired, I keep my system in perfect order."—Miss A. Brady.
Miss Millie Baker writes from 200 East Ohio Street, Chicago, Ill.: "I suffered for years with weakness peculiar to women, severe bearing-down pains, and continual headache. "After using five bottles of Peruna I was as well and strong as ever."—Miss Millie Baker.

Mrs. Nellie Blyler, 670 W. Twentieth Street, Chicago, Ill., President of the Ladies of the G. A. R., has the following to say about Peruna: "Gentlemen—I recommend Peruna especially for women as it promptly cures the weakness of our sex and will always be sure to give satisfaction."—MRS. NELLIE BLYLER.
Mrs. W. A. Allison, Assis. Matron of Peoples' Hospital, 758 Sheffield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have had frequent opportunities to observe the wonderful curative effects of Peruna. It alleviates pain and soreness, increases the appetite and so tones up the entire system that the patient quickly regains strength and health."—Mrs. W. A. Allison.

Asthma
"One of my daughters had a terrible case of asthma. We tried almost everything, but without relief. We then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and three and one-half bottles cured her."—Emma Jane Entsminger, Langsville, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures many cases of asthma. And it cures bronchitis, hoarseness, weak lungs, whooping-cough, croup, winter coughs, night coughs, and hard colds.

Three sizes: 25c., enough for an ordinary cold; 50c., just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1., most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.
J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

at Didn't Suit Her.
