

MR. ELKIN'S BIG LEAD

Recent Primaries Send the Indiana Candidate Far Ahead.

HE IS A VERY LIKELY WINNER

Many Delegates Instructed For Him For the Governorship By Conventions and By Popular Vote in Various Counties.

(Special Correspondence.)
Harrisburg, March 18.—Republican primaries and conventions held within the last few days have given Attorney General John P. Elkin a tremendous lead for the nomination for governor. Up to date he has carried every county in which primaries have been held with two exceptions, and his strength in the interior counties of the state, that is outside of Philadelphia and Allegheny, has been demonstrated in a forcible manner.

Last Saturday's primaries were remarkable in many respects. The issue on the governorship was clearly defined and the lines were sharply drawn between the supporters of the two competitors for the nomination. Former Lieutenant Governor L. A. Watres has been making a canvass for the governorship for the last six months or more, but the only occasion in which he consented to allow his name to go before the people that they might choose between him and Mr. Elkin, who had eagerly embraced the opportunity to have his name on the official ballots, was in Blair county.

Both candidates went into the county and met the people. They discussed the issues of the campaign and their personalities were prominent in the contest. The outcome was a sweeping victory for Mr. Elkin.

The result of the balloting was a personal triumph for the Indiana county candidate.

Mr. Elkin received nearly 4,000 majority over Watres. The vote was about four to one in Mr. Elkin's favor. He carried every district but one, Juniata borough, which Mr. Watres won by a narrow margin.

BIG MAJORITY IN LANCASTER.

In Lancaster county there was a square fight between the regulars and the element which has been opposed to the present leadership of the Republican organization in the county. Secretary of the Commonwealth W. W. Grist led the forces of the stalwarts. He is known as a staunch friend of Attorney General Elkin and those who opposed his friends who were running for delegates to the state convention did so in the hope of checking the landslide to Elkin for the governorship. The returns show that the Elkin contingent carried the county by over ten thousand majority. Every one of the stalwart candidates was successful, including the twelve candidates for delegates to the state convention, who will vote for Mr. Elkin for governor.

DELEGATES SO FAR ELECTED.

The following table will show the number of delegates elected thus far to the Republican state convention, and how they stand on the governorship:

Delegates for Elkin for governor:	Delegates for Watres for governor:
Berks .....	7
Blair .....	5
Bradford .....	4
Carbon .....	2
Chester .....	7
Clearfield .....	4
Franklin .....	3
Indiana .....	3
Jefferson .....	3
Lancaster .....	12
Union .....	1
Snyder .....	1
Susquehanna .....	3
Total .....	54
Total .....	2

In most of the counties recorded for Mr. Elkin for governor the delegates have been instructed by resolution of convention or by popular vote to support his candidacy. In the above list are included the delegates from Clearfield and Franklin counties where the opponents of Mr. Elkin made no fight and he carried the primaries without a struggle on Saturday last.

NOT COUNTING ALLEGHENY.

Besides the delegates enumerated above there were nine delegates elected by district conventions in Allegheny county on Saturday, which will all be for Elkin.

Insurance Commissioner Durham states that every one of the 80 delegates from Philadelphia will be for Elkin, but adds that the intention is not to hold the Philadelphia primaries until practically all of the interior counties have elected their delegates.

"We know that Mr. Elkin is strong in the country districts," said Mr. Durham a few days ago, "and we do not wish to have it appear that Philadelphia is forcing any candidate upon the Republicans of the interior of the state. We are delighted with the enthusiasm with which the candidacy of Mr. Elkin has been received throughout the state. The vote in Blair county was particularly significant. It shows that the rank and file of the Republican party is with Mr. Elkin in this campaign."

One county which is not in the Elkin column, Wayne, was conceded to Mr. Watres. It is a neighboring county to his home county of Lackawanna, and for local reasons it was deemed advisable not to make a contest for delegates. They are the only delegates Mr. Watres has.

The other county not carried by Elkin, Delaware county, will give a complimentary vote for Senator Sprout and then vote for Mr. Elkin.

PENROSE IS INDORSED

Delaware County Heads Off For the Senator's Re-election.

LANCASTER FALLS INTO LINE

The Brilliant Young Philadelphian Not Making a Canvass, But is Very Busy With Official Duties at Washington.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, March 18.—As the Republican candidates for the next legislature are being placed in nomination throughout the state the sentiment of the Republican voters in favor of the re-election of Hon. Boies Penrose to the United States senate is being expressed through the delegates elected to the nominating conventions.

The latest county to thus go on record is Delaware. The county convention was held at Media last week and without a dissenting voice resolutions were adopted commending the public services of Senator Penrose and his close attention to the needs of his constituents, and cordially endorsing him for re-election. There were three candidates for the assembly nominated in Delaware county and all of them are reasonably sure of election and they are all for Senator Penrose.

The county convention adopted the following: "Resolved, That in view of the fact that the term of the Hon. Boies Penrose next expires, we endorse his candidacy for re-election, recognizing the fact that for two years his labors were exceptionally arduous, and in no instance has he been found wanting in attending to the needs of his constituency, and when the Dingley tariff measure was pending he was foremost in seeing that the local interests of this county were properly safeguarded."

Former State Chairman Thomas V. Cooper, who was nominated to succeed himself in the house of representatives, has made a statement for publication in which he declares his purpose to support Senator Penrose to succeed himself and says that he will go into every Republican caucus called for the organization of the legislature and for other party purposes, and that he will abide by the action of the majority in such caucuses.

SOLID LANCASTER DELEGATION.

Senator Stober and Representatives Frank B. McClain, W. H. Brosius, John G. Homsher and D. W. Graybill have just been renominated and Dr. K. H. K. Blough and W. X. Snader, new aspirants, complete the legislative ticket in Lancaster county. They were all nominated on Saturday last and are all certain to be elected, and they are all for Senator Penrose.

It is not improbable that there will be no Republican candidate in the field against Senator Penrose when the legislature meets in January next to elect his successor.

The junior senator is apparently not giving much attention to a canvass for re-election. He is kept very busy at Washington from Monday morning until Saturday of each week, and then he runs over to Philadelphia and his office is crowded with callers all Saturday afternoon, each with some petition or request requiring his attention at one of the departments at Washington during the following week.

LABOR LEADERS PLEASED.

As chairman of the committee on immigration Senator Penrose has just reported to the senate the Chinese exclusion bill, which is evidently satisfactory to the labor interests that sought Senator Penrose's aid in their efforts to block the scheme of the steamship agents and other corporation representatives that hoped to have the bars let down so that Chinese cheap labor might be permitted to enter this country without interference from the federal authorities. Senator Penrose has received a number of letters from representatives of labor organizations thanking him for the interest he has taken in this matter.

CONFERENCE WITH DAIRYMEN.

During the last week Senator Penrose had a conference at Washington with representatives of farming and dairy interests in Pennsylvania, who want his co-operation in their efforts to pass the anti-oleomargarine bill, which will shortly come before the senate. Senator Penrose assured them he was heartily in favor of the legislation desired by the Pennsylvania dairymen and farmers and said they could count upon his active interest and enthusiastic support for the measure. It is understood that a larger delegation is to meet Senator Penrose in Washington within a few days, when plans will be discussed for getting the necessary number of votes in the United States senate.

Senator Penrose has just been advised by the war department that the requisite instructions have been given to the engineers to begin at once the survey of the property in Lebanon county which is to be used for a district encampment for National Guardsmen of the New England states, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan.

"I do not think the citizens of Pennsylvania generally appreciate the benefits that will come to our state through the establishment of this encampment," said Senator Penrose, in discussing this matter. "When the first encampment shall be held and they see 50,000 troops marshaled under Federal auspices they will realize what a great project this is. Many Pennsylvania industries will benefit financially through these encampments."

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference.

Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on their bones and red blood into pale veins. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle.

"But I can't cast Binks for that part," protested the manager of the amateur theatrical company, in answer to the request of the heroine. "He doesn't know how to play the lover."

"He doesn't!" she exclaimed. "Well that's all you know about it. Why he—"

Then she stopped and blushed.

La Grippe Quickly Cured.

"In the winter of 1898 and 1899 I was taken down with a severe attack of what is called La Grippe," says F. L. Hewet, a prominent druggist of Winfield, Ill. "The only medicine I used was two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It broke up the cold and stopped the coughing like magic, and I have never since been troubled with Grippe." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon to break up a severe cold, ward off any threatened attack of pneumonia. It is pleasant to take too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations in use for these ailments. For sale by Middleburg Drug Company.

A student of municipal expenditures has recently remarked that many American cities seem to be growing two per cent. in population each year, three per cent. in valuation, four per cent. in income, five per cent. in expenditures and six per cent. in indebtedness. This is a form of "progression" which every community will do well to avoid.

A Bloomington (Ind.) man entertained his four mothers-in-law at dinner the other day. A man who can manage to keep on good terms with four mothers-in-law is the proper man to represent this country at the court of old Tsi Ann.

THEY CRUSH THE POWERS

This is written in mid-October. The long, oppressive summer is quite gone. Fading leaf, withering tree and the rustling corn in the fields are signs of the season. A fog, frost, rain, snow—they are coming. You remember last winter: of 1900 and 1901. The weather was cruel. Ah! the thousands it killed, and the hundreds of thousands it maimed and crippled. Oh, the rough grasp it laid on men at work, women at home, and children in cribs and cradles. Coughs that began before Thanksgiving Day are racking and tearing them still; yes, and growing worse as they dig deeper into the poor, tired throat and lungs. Many were cured by using Benson's Pectoral Plaster. For the soothing and healing power of these Plasters is wonderful. They conquer the complaints.

THAT ARE KILLING THE PEOPLE.

No other plaster, no other medicine or application, can compare with them. Coughs, colds, backache, rheumatism, lumbago, kidney and liver troubles, asthma, indigestion—they all go down before Benson's Plasters like a snow image in the sun. You can't throw money away on a Benson's Plaster. Everybody is going to use them this season. But make certain you get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c, each.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson in the International Series for March 30, 1902—The First Easter.

THE LESSON TEXT.

(John 20:1-18.)

1. Then cometh Simon Peter following Him, and went into the sepulcher, and sought the linen clothes.

2. And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

3. Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulcher, and he saw, and believed.

4. For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

5. Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

6. But Mary stood without at the sepulcher weeping; and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulcher.

7. And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

8. And they say unto her: Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them: Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him.

9. And when she thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

10. Jesus saith unto her: Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto Him: Sir, if thou hast borne Him hence, tell me where thou hast laid Him, and I will take Him away.

11. Jesus saith unto her: Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto Him: Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

12. Jesus saith unto her: Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brethren, and say unto them: I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

13. Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He had spoken these things unto her.

THE FIRST EASTER.

With us Easter is a joyful day. The death of winter is giving place to the life of spring. The buried flowers are beginning to peep forth again from their woodland graves. Everything is speaking of resurrection. Man catches the inspiration of the season, and feels new life coursing through his veins. But the first Easter morning was sad, though it was not long before it became deliciously joyful. Christ was in the tomb, and oh, what hopes lay buried with Him! The proof that He was risen not only comforted the disciples ever since, inasmuch as it shows not only that we have an immortal Saviour, but that we also are immortal.
