Then Use Dr. Greene's Nervura—It Gave Me Health and Strength.

Beauty is the dower and the gift is priceless. Beauty lies in having a brilliant eyes, and vivacity to all women who are in there are to-day who are priceless possession of

Dr. Greene's Nervura Gave Me Back My Health. It Will Give You Health and Strength if you'll take it.

which nature bestows upon woman. Most women can be beautiful, for clear complexion, velvety skin, of expression, attributes common good health. How many women gradually but surely losing their beauty! Their health has become poor, they are run down, they feel weak and nervous, have headache, poor appetite, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, kidney or liver trouble, backache, female weakness, or some other difficulty, which is surely sapping their health and strength and ruining their beauty. At this season, Spring Debility is woman's worst enemy. A woman's first duty is to regain and maintain her health and beauty. If she gets back her health, beauty will surely follow, for beauty depends entirely on good health. The great health-giver and beautifier for women is Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, for nothing in the world so surely and quickly restores lost health, gives strength and vigor to the nerves, purifies and enriches the blood, and makes women strong and well as Dr. Greene's Nervura. It clears the complexion of that dark, sallow, pale look, removes eruptions, blackheads, and humors, makes the skin velvety and glowing with rosy color, the eyes brilliant, the lips red, imparting a full, round contour to face and form.

Above all it banishes melancholy and restores the lively spirits, vivacity, light, elastic step and exuberant life, energy, and enjoyment which constitute happiness to women. Dr. Greene's Nervura does all this because it makes weak women strong and sick women well, and thus prevents them from growing old before their time. It makes them look young and feel young, for it braces women up as nothing else in the world can. Try Dr. Greene's Nervura; you will never regret it. Use it now, for you certainly need a spring remedy, and Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the best of all spring medicines.

In taking Dr. Greene's Nervura you are using the wonderful prescription and discovery of a famous physician, Dr. Greene, of 101 Fifth Avenue, New York City, who is the most successful physician in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, and who can be consulted without charge, in regard to any case, personally or by letter.

VASE FOR PRINCESS.

Rare Work of Art Presented to Princess Henry's Wife by the German Ladies of Chicago.

A handsome silver vase, two feet high, with a gold lining, was the present which the wives of the members of the Germania club of Chicago made to Princess Irene, wife of Prince Henry, through the courtesies of the prince while in that city. After it has been admired for a few days at the Germania club it will be packed up and sent to Berlin in time to reach there when the prince arrives, so that it can be given by him at once to the princess. The presentation was made during the reception at the Germania club immediately following the luncheon which the men of the club had given the princess. The vase has on one side a figure of Aurora in relief. She stands, or rather floats, in the rays of the rising sun, with ribbons streaming from her hands. Morning glories are the flowers which complete the decoration on that side of the vase. A rooster is the decoration on the opposite side. The present was not offered until after permission had been received from Prince Henry, and the cost was contributed by the women of the reception committee and others.

NOW LOOK OUT!

"Take care of yourself," say our friends. "I'll try to," we answer. We do take a little care, yet in spite of warm clothes, rubbers and mackintoshes, an army of people were bowled out by pneumonia and other lung and chest diseases last winter. They caught cold, neglected it, let it fix upon them, were torn by coughs, choked by inflammations and congestions, wasted by fever, tired out by pain and then gave up the fight. The hour you realize that you have a cold on the chest, place a Benson's Porous Plaster where the pain or oppression is felt. If you think two are needed make it two. No harm if you were covered with them. They act quickly and prevent the engorgement of blood in the organs. In this way—with ordinary caution as to exposure—you will break up the cold and avoid a serious sickness. No other applications, or any other form of treatment, will accomplish this as certainly and speedily. Benson's Plasters have a distinct and positive action and are curative to the highest degree. Use them with the same confidence for coughs, muscular rheumatism, the grip (back and chest) and all similar ailments. Women, who are chief sufferers from cold weather complaints, should keep these plasters always within reach. Get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each. Seabury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N. Y.

TYPICAL APPLE BOX.

Western Fruit Growers Use it to the Exclusion of Clumsy and Heavy Barrels.

A typical box is shown here which represents the thought and experience of apple shippers on the Pacific coast. Every part of it appears to be carefully studied, and it certainly answers the purpose well. The inside dimensions are 20 1/2 x 11 x 9 1/2 inches. This makes a cubic content of a trifle over an even bushel, and about six quarts less than a heaping bushel. The ends are three-fourths-inch material, and all four sides are one-fourth-inch hard pine. There is no partition, as in the orange box. The apples may be put in tightly, and the thin springy sides hold them without bruising. The box is put together with 32 rough wire nails 1 1/4 inches long. The chief advantages of this package are: Convenient size; strength, given by the solid ends and secure nailing; and springy sides, permitting the apples to be crowded in slightly, and holding them firmly without bruising. Eastern fruit-growers' associations are becoming numerous and strong. This undeveloped city trade may be theirs if they will establish uniform, convenient packages, put on labels that shall become guarantees of quality, and work systematically to get the goods introduced. This trade will never be worked up by those who take a back seat and merely think about it. Get the fruit to the consumer's door, let him see what it is, and he will be glad to invite the boxed apple in and hand over his cash for it, for even at these extreme prices fancy boxed apples are no higher proportionately than many other food stuffs which he buys.—Rural New Yorker.

SCIENCE OF SPRAYING.

Every Farmer Should Study Its Rudiments Before Applying Poisonous Substances.

Injury to plants by insects falls under two heads; first, where the plant itself has been eaten; second, where the juice has been sucked out, leaving the tissues. Insects causing injury of the first class are called biting or chewing insects, such as grasshoppers, caterpillars, cabbage and army worms. They have well-developed jaws fitted for cutting and chewing plants. They can be destroyed by using poisons such as the arsenicals. The insects of the second type have long lancetlike beaks which they insert into the tissues of the plant, sucking out the juice, causing the plant to collapse, wilt and die. This class includes all the so-called sucking insects, such as the aphids, scale insects, plant lice, squash bug, harlequin and terrapin bug, etc. The external application of arsenical poisons to plants would have little or no effect upon this group, as the poisons do not enter the cells of the plant. Materials are used to act externally on the bodies of such insects either as a caustic or to smother or suffocate them by closing their breathing organs. Insects do not breathe through their mouths, as do higher animals, but through small openings on either side of their backs called spiracles. By spraying anything of a caustic or oily nature over the body, these spiracles are closed and the creature is destroyed.

These remarks apply especially to insects which feed upon the exterior of plants or pass the greater portion of their lives in an exposed condition. They can be readily reached by one of the methods mentioned. Insects of both classes at times feed upon plants above the ground, for a short while, and pass a portion of their lives upon the roots below the surface. The white grub or root lice are common examples, the former being a biting insect, while the latter is one of the sucking group. Still other insects live in straw, grain, seeds and manufactured products of the mill where neither arsenicals nor irritants can be used. In such places the fumes of various gases are employed for their destruction. Farmers should carefully consider the nature of the insect before applying any remedy.—Orange Judd Farmer.

Best Way to Feed Wheat.

The best form in which to feed wheat is to roll or grind it into a coarse meal. It may then be fed alone or mixed with corn meal or ground oats. When ground fine it is pastry and adheres to the teeth, gums and cheeks, so that it is not so readily masticated or eaten. In the form of a coarse meal it is relished by all animals. It is in a condition to be attacked by the digestive processes whether thoroughly masticated or not, and in most cases it gives the best results.

a wide experience in public office. He came into national notice as interstate commerce commissioner and went to Cuba as a special commissioner to investigate the affair of Gen. Ruiz. He was offered the choice of several other places by President McKinley, but his personal affairs needed his attention. Mr. Calhoun was born at Hubbard, O., in 1850, and he was a schoolmate of William McKinley. In 1896 he was an important factor in capturing the Illinois delegation to the national convention for his old friend.

Milk Kept in Frozen Chunks.

There are but few cows in Labrador. No wonder. The natives procure their milk for the winter and then kill their cows. The milk is kept in barrels, where it freezes and never threatens to sour throughout the entire season. When one wishes any milk he has simply to go to the barrel and cut out a slice.
